THE POLLYANNA DANCING SCHOOL
 The Pollyanna Dancing school, which is held for children every Saturday afternoon at the Socialist hall, Twenty-first and Cuming street, is meeting with great success. It is a pretty sight to see the well dressed and well behaved children going through the graceful dances in which they are being thoroughly instructed by Mrs. Henry Buford, who is an expert at it. Mrs. Sina Brown and Miss Lena Paul are in charge of the school.
 There is a room for a limited number of new pupils. Parents who wish to have their children avail themselves of the privileges of the school should enroll them at once. The lessons are given for the nominal sum of 15 cents. The hours are from 3 to 5 p. m. Pupils are admitted from the ages of 5 to 15.

ADDRESSES THE STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR
 The Rev. John Albert Williams, president of the Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P., as representative of the organization delivered an address before the twelfth annual convention of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor last Thursday morning. He spoke of the aims and ideals of the N. A. A. C. P., told of its friendly attitude toward organized labor since it had shown a disposition to be fair with Colored labor and stressed the fact that labor to secure its just demands must be willing to admit to its ranks all working people without distinction of race, color or creed. The address was most favorably received.

TRIBUTES ABILITY TO WALK TO DR. HUTTEN
 Dr. J. H. Hanks, well known and successful chiropractor, with offices in the Crouse block, who was seriously injured several weeks ago by a street car and whom it was thought would be unable to walk again, is able to come to his office on crutches. He said to The Monitor: "I owe my ability to walk again to Dr. Hutten, who is certainly a skillful physician, as well as a splendid gentleman. He was most attentive to me and I cannot speak too highly of him."
 Dr. Hanks, who belongs to the other race, paid this deserved compliment to one of our leading physicians.

ST. PHILIP'S ANNUAL LAWN SOCIAL SUCCESS
 The annual lawn social of St. Philip's Episcopal church, which was given last Thursday evening at the beautiful home of Sergeant and Mrs. Isaac Bailey, 2816 Pratt street, was a delightful affair. The grounds were most artistically decorated and lighted and there was a large attendance.
A RINGING EDITORIAL
ATTENTION is called to the ringing editorial, "The Black Peril," which recently appeared in the Jewish Bulletin of this city, and which we republish elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Konecky, whose friendship we enjoy, is sincere in what he says. We thank him for his timely words.

N. A. A. C. P. HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING
 The regular weekly meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. was held Sunday afternoon at St. Philip's Episcopal church, with the president in the chair. The Rev. C. H. Newby, a Methodist minister of Decatur, Ala., and prominent in labor circles in his section, gave an interesting address. Other speakers were Thomas Reese, Mr. Herman and O. G. Oglesby.
 C. C. Calloway, chairman of the grievance committee, reported three cases which he had investigated, in which he believed the police had acted unfairly. One was the case of an aged Colored woman on Thirteenth street, whose home was entered by a rough looking and strange acting white man, apparently demented, who pushed her over, but was driven from her house. A policeman was asked to arrest the man, but he refused to make the arrest. The officer was reported to the police authorities, whom it is believed will take action on the case. Another was the case of a man who had been shot by a white man who had accused him of insulting his wife. He was arrested and placed in jail and there was delay in giving him medical attention. Attention was also called to the discrepancy in bonds fixed by Judge Fitzgerald in the case of Colored suspects and white.
 A resolution was passed fixing the hour of adjournment hereafter at 6 o'clock. The meeting next Sunday will be held at Bethel Baptist church, Twenty-ninth and T streets, South Side, at 4 o'clock.

ROBBINS HAS AUTO DELIVERY TRUCK
 H. R. Robbins & Co., the enterprising grocery firm at Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets, have purchased an up-to-date auto delivery truck to give prompt service to their rapidly growing business. This wide-awake firm is getting its share of patronage and deserves it.

MAN ACCUSED OF STARTING RIOT
 Placed Under $50,000 Bond; Case Continued to August 14.
 Chicago, Aug. 10.—George Stauber, white, who, according to witnesses, threw the stone which set off the conflagration of race hatred, was put under bond of $50,000 by Judge Newcomer of the South Clark street court. Stauber is 23 years old and resides at 2904 Cottage Grove avenue.
 Detective Sergeant Middleton, Colored, who gathered the evidence concerning the start of the riot, appeared against Stauber. Sergeant Middleton told the court that he could produce seven witnesses who saw the actual throwing of the rock which knocked Eugene Williams off the raft, causing his death.
 The case was continued until August 14 to allow the police further investigation.
