Rev. and Mrs. Taggart entertained at luncheon on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Frank Nelson of the South Side. Mrs. Nelson enjoyed herself to the fullest extent and could not but express it a pleasant surprise and a rare treat. ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor.

Notwithstanding the first week of festivities, Sunday was, indeed, one of religious fervor. Large audiences listened to the well chosen sermon delivered in the morning by the pastor and in the evening by Rev. Mrs. Allen of Nashville, Tenn.

Several persons were added to the church.

The sick members are: Mr. Earl Johnson, St. Joseph's hospital; Mr. Bruce; Mrs. Georgia White, 2317 Charles street, and Miss Ray Lee Middleton, at the Swedish hospital.

The strangers that worshipped with us on Sunday morning were: Dr. and Mrs. Foles of Texarkana, Tex.; Miss M. Stewart of St. Louis, Mr. Bonaparte and Rev. Mr. Newby.

Miss Stewart, one of the popular school teachers of St. Louis, is the guest of Mrs. Grace Stevenson, who is spending the summer with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Williams, at 2416 Binney street.

Large crowds throng the carnival grounds on each evening. Monday night was patriotic night. The grounds were dotted with the olive drab. After the parade of all nations was reviewed by the large throngs and the dignitaries who were seated upon the platform, the program opened by singing, "America." Lawyer Pinkett, as master of ceremonies, introduced Captain Dickey of Washington, D. C., who is here in the interest of opening up a War Camp Community house, and Mayor Smith, who delivered a very democratic and enthusiastic address, which was overwhelmingly applauded by the crowd. After the addresses the bugler blew assembly and some of the gallant soldiers of the race and of America, led by Sergeants Turner and Parker, passed in review of the mayor and other honor guests on the platform.
