DEATH OF SERGEANT BRADLEY

Many hearts were saddened last week when it became known throughout the city that Sergeant Levi Bradley, for twenty-two years a resident of Omaha, had been called to the Great Beyond.

He was a man beloved by all who knew him, one who walked upright before the world and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need or a word of cheer to those in distress.

Shortly after coming to Omaha he became a member of Zion Baptist church, when he was made treasurer and ordained as deacon, and was still holding the office of deacon when he departed this life.

He was born in Sumter, S. C., in 1846. At an early age he enlisted in the United States army and served so honestly and faithfully that his discharge papers are filled with the highest words of praise and esteem that could be said of any one, regardless of race, creed or color. On each one of his re-enlistment papers his commanding officer says that he reposes special trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor and fidelity of Mr. Bradley and considers him worthy of any position or honor that may be given him.

His life as a citizen was on inspiration to all those who knew him. His daily exertions were ever in the direction of promoting the happiness of his fellow man, both here and hereafter. He was a living demonstration of the truth that he who lives rightly for others rather than for himself is most certain of happiness here and peace hereafter.

Funeral services were held at Zion Baptist church at 11 a. m. Sunday, August 24, after which the body was taken to Fort Crook for interment. The impressive ceremony of the United States army was carried out and all honors due those who serve their country faithfully were given him. In short, it may be said of him, as was said of one of old, that such an one went not unhonored to his grave.

"He lived that no regrets should rise To gather 'round his future years; He let no neglected moments pass To check his flight to higher spheres."

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM MEET

The twenty-fourth annual session of the supreme grand council of the Fraternal Order of the Sons and Daughters of Jerusalem is being held here this week. The sessions are being held in Grove Methodist Episcopal church, Twenty-second and Seward streets. M. N. Harry R. Graham, S. G. K., of Kansas City, Mo., is presiding. Delegates are present from Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. The sessions opened Monday morning and will close Friday night. The evening sessions are open to the public. At Monday night's open session N. W. Ware was master of ceremonies. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Silas Johnson and Mr. E. Llewellyn. Addresses of welcome were delivered by J. Dean Ringer, representing Mayor Ed Smith; the Rev. John Albert Williams and the Rev. Thomas A. Taggart. A brief but eloquent response was given by Fred A. Turner of Kansas City.

SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED

Privates Emmett Crawley, Cain John, Johnny White, James Butler, Harrison McCoy, Peter Daniels, Hannibal Petross, Herman Martin, Albert Seals, Oscar Brown, Thomas Williams, newly enlisted men in the United States army, were entertained at the War Camp Community club rooms. They were enlisted in Camp Mills, N. J., and are on their way to join the Ninth cavalry, which is now stationed at Camp Stotsenburg in the Philippine islands. They were given an excellent dinner at the home of Mrs. Ruth Wallace by the Crispus Attucks Red Cross chapter. The ladies of the Red Cross contributed in no small degree to the entertainment of the boys.

TERRY'S BAND MAKING GOOD OUT IN STATE

J. Frank Terry and Roy Robertson with their Dixie land jazz band of five pieces are meeting with great success in South Dakota and Nebraska. They are making long jumps and cancelling many engagements to arrive in Omaha in time to leave with Desdunes' band for the state fair September 1.

COMMUNITY HOUSE OPENS

The very attractive and complete room for soldiers and sailors at Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets was formally opened by a reception from 4 to 11, of which the public availed themselves, last Thursday. Several ladies assisted in receiving the guests who came and made everybody welcome. Messrs. Armstrong and Dickey, who are in charge of the community room, are men well qualified for the work. The room is supplied with tables for games, desks for writing and a library table well stocked with magazines and papers. It is a homelike and inviting place where our returned soldiers can spend much of their spare time pleasantly and profitably.

Here Are the Boys' Clothes for School Wear

HERE are the right clothes for boys—clothes that promote the parents' pride in their boys and the boys' pride in themselves—clothes that are dependable and reasonably priced—for example:

BOYS' DOUBLE-LIFE SUITS

With Two Pairs of Pants

These are a line of SUITS we are featuring for the schoolboy. The suits come with two pairs of pants, which means that the life of the suit is doubled. Fabrics have been selected for their strength. Patterns in neat gray and brown effects. Styles are those of the new waist-seam models with full belt around.

Big Values at 11.75

SUITS FOR LITTLE FELLOWS—Scores of them. Every new style and color here in abundance. Prices range from $5 to $15.

SWEATERS GALORE—A riot of colors in pull over-head style, also styles suitable for the little kiddies. Prices range from $2.50 to $12.50.

BOYS' ODD PANTS—Hundreds of pairs. Every pair fully lined and cut and trimmed above the average. Knickerbocker style or straight leg style. All sizes. Very reasonably priced at $1.45.

PLAID SILK TIES—A boy will feel better if he starts to school wearing one of these new Plaid Ties, which come in the Four-in-Hand or Windsor styles. Prices, 45c and 75c.

BLOUSE WAISTS—A big table full of smart new patterns in extra quality percales and madras. Big and roomy Blouses, well tailored. Sizes 4 to 16 years. Special, each, at 89c.
