

Among the Churches

ALLEN CHAPEL, A. M. E. CHURCH

5233 South Twenty-fifth Street.

Services were fair Sunday, two joining our Zion.

Mrs. O. J. Blue, Rev. Mrs. Harris, Mr. Hatchey and wife, from Milwaukee, worshipped with us Sunday.

Rev. O. B. Harris will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m., also conducting class meeting. The pastor will preach in the evening.

The pastor especially desires all his members to pay their dollar money.

Mrs. Sarah Gray is on the sick list. See Mrs. Melisa Carter for The Monitor.

I hope every member and friend will subscribe for The Monitor, our only mouthpiece in the city and the only means we have of making our wants known.

Rev. J. W. Wilson will preach at 8 p. m. Sunday the 21st. You are cordially invited to all the services.

J. A. BROADNAX, Pastor.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor

Sunday was a day long to be remembered at Mt. Moriah. After a glorious covenant meeting, the pastor was presented a beautiful suit by the laymen and a smoking jacket by the Art club. Two of the other church auxiliaries presented him with $10 each. Several other packages were presented him which he did not open.

Mr. H. L. Anderson was also remembered with a token as he will accompany the pastor on his trip to Newark, N. J. They both left Sunday night to attend the national Baptist convention which will convene September 10. We wish them a pleasant and enjoyable trip. Too much credit cannot be given our pastor, Rev. Wilkinson, and our church clerk, Brother Anderson.

Mrs. Ida Harwood and Mr. C. O. Porter were united in marriage last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. M. H. Wilkinson.

Miss Ariona Moore and Mr. Jas. Battle were married Thursday evening by the pastor. Both of these young people live in Omaha.

Rev. J. D. Davis will fill the pulpit during the absence of the pastor. All members are requested to come out and hear him.

A number of visitors worshipped with us last Sunday. We had several additions to the church.

Strangers are welcome.

ST. JOHN'S M. E. CHURCH NEWS

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

A large audience listened to the very well delivered sermon on "The Gift of Tongue" by the pastor Sunday morning; also a very good audience was present at the evening services. There were several persons added to the church. The collection for the week was $204.52. Fifty dollars was taken up Sunday morning for charity.

The sick of the church are: Mesdames Rayford, president of the junior stewardess board; Mattie Thorne, 2425 Lake street, and Mary Dupee, University hospital.

A very interesting talk was made in Sunday school Sunday afternoon by Mrs. J. D. Lewis.

The Penny Endeavor club had a very interesting meeting Monday evening in the lecture room.

The visitors that worshipped in our pews on Sunday were: Mesdames Lucy Watkins, Ala.; Maddlock, Okla.; Jones, Tex.; and Messrs. Walter Smoake, Washington, D. C.; C. J. Jones, Tex.; Gaskin, Okla., and Prof. W. W. Jones of Wilberforce.

Visitors or strangers are always welcome to our services. Ushers or usherettes will gladly welcome you at the entrance and give you a convenient seat.

SIoux CITY NOTES

The services at Malone A. M. E. church, Sunday, September 7, were well attended, it being a big day both spiritually and financially. One member was added to the church during general class in the morning and $29 was laid on the table to be applied on the salary of our beloved pastor, Rev. P. M. Lewis.

Mrs. J. W. Norris has been ill for the past week, suffering from a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Anna May Askew of Riverside Drive has been slightly indisposed from a nervous attack.

The Daughters of Bethel will meet Monday, September 8, at Malone A. M. E. church.

Friday night, September 12, Court of Colanthe will perfect their organization at Malone church.

D. G. M. Mansfield Askew was in Council Bluffs Sunday, September 7 setting up a lodge of G. U. O. of O. F. He reports a pleasant trip and says the Bluffs is almost as good as Sioux City.

Mr. Ed Askew spent Sunday in Council Bluffs, assisting D. G. M. Askew in setting up a lodge of G. U. O. of O. F.

One very encouraging sign that our people are here to stay is the fact that they are buying property. Mr. Jesse Boyd has bought on Main street, Mr. H. J. Parker in Riverside and Mr. Dudley has just closed a deal for a nice home in Greenville.

The Monitor is a good thing. Push it along.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasburn Curtis entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. Jackson of St. Paul.

The burning of the mortgage at Malone A. M. E. will take place next week. Watch The Monitor for details.

All subscriptions and news will be thankfully received and promptly attended to by seeing Mr. Curtis, 513 1/2 Main street, or phone A-85769.

Be not dismayed. Whate'er betides God will take care of you.

WELFARE WORKER MAKES SURVEY

Warren, O., Sept. 10.—Miss F. L. Cameron, a well known welfare worker among the Colored people is now in Warren and is working under the auspices of the Negro Welfare Association, and is organizing an auxiliary of the association in Warren and Trumbull county. She has made a complete canvass of all of the Colored families here and finds that the census of the race in Warren is 1,100 and is rapidly increasing.

PULLMAN PORTER NOTES

Mr. Thomas Van has accepted a position with the Pullman company and is running to Portland, Ore., on U. P., Nos. 1 and 2.

Mr. Smith is running to Rochester, Minn., over the C. & N. W. Nos. 603 and 606.

Mr. B. Hunter, who has been out eight weeks with a special party, returned Saturday looking fine.

Mr. F. Thornton is running to Deadwood, S. D., on C. & N. W. Nos. 606 and 603.

Council Bluffs

Thursday afternoon Rev. J. P. Jackson and wife, Rev. M. R. Rhonence, wife and son, Charles, and Mr. R. V. Robinson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wright, at 2744 8th avenue. They enjoyed very much the family feast.

Mr. R. V. Robinson, 2425 5th avenue, who has been quite sick, had another paralytic stroke Saturday morning, and is now in a very serious condition.

Both churches report good services Sunday. Bethel A. M. E. church reported all departments well attended.

Rev. J. P. Jackson preached Monday at Bethel A. M. E.

Sunday some of the leading citizens of the city met at the Masonic hall at 12 a. m. to organize a lodge known as a standing organization of Odd Fellows. D. G. M. Askew arrived Sunday morning and assisted by W. H. Herndon and W. C. Lyons they were able to call together a number of the good citizens, who became members of this organization.

The N. A. A. C. P. met Sunday afternoon, September 7, at the Masonic hall with about fifty present. We had a wonderful meeting. We wish to say to the Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P. that we are praying God will aid you in leading to a good end the great work you have undertaken in the Scott case. We also wish to state that if there is anything we can do in helping you out in this matter, do not fail to call on us.

Rev. and Mrs. Rhonence were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Madden Sunday.

Mayor L. Zumeuhlen and C. C. Galloway, organizer of the N. A. A. C. P., will speak at the Masonic hall September 17. Refreshments will be served. Music by Perkins' band.

D. G. M. Askew is a resident of Sioux City, Ia. His great effort at organizing in which he so well succeeded, is highly appreciated by the Council Bluffs citizens.

Promises to reduce the H. C. of L. if carried out?

Let those who have the power to reduce the high cost of living remember that you can fool the public part of the time! And carry out their promises to the people by greatly reducing living expenses, instead of playing cheap politics. Let them work for the interest of the great many. Bring down prices within reach of a workingman's wages so he can save a few dollars for "That rainy day" or for sickness. Because you can't fool the public all the time!

These things can all be accomplished by united effort working in systematic order. A good system is needed to do anything.

Philip, through years of study has mastered a system to save your money. He kept the price on merchandise as low as possible—always a little less. Our ad will show you, how by using our system you can save. Watch for our ad. See our windows daily. Let us help you—you get more values here for less money. PHILIP'S THE HOME OF VALUES.
