

Among the Churches

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.
The pastor has returned from his eastern trip. He spent three weeks visiting many points, including Niagara Falls, 142 miles down the Hudson river to New York, the National Baptist convention at Newark, N. J. He also visited his wife's relatives at Philadelphia and spent some time in Williamsport, where he was pastor for five years.
The public is invited to hear the report that will be made Tuesday evening, October 7, by the pastor and Brother H. L. Anderson. The meeting will be in the form of a social function.
The spirit of welcome was high at church Sunday. The pastor preached two strong sermons. Two were added to the membership of the church.
Baptism and covenant next Sunday morning; at night fellowship and communion. You are welcome.
MRS. E. W. SMITH, Secretary.

BETHEL BAPTIST NOTES

The Bethel B. Y. P. U. had a get together meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The program was short and spicy and everyone present felt a new desire and became more interested in the study of the bible.
Mrs. Nelson has worked with the B. Y. P. U. for ten years, and is trying to put the union on the map for work in Omaha. She has from time to time invited all the various unions to take part. She has tried, but failed, to make all the unions of the various churches come together in one union for work. But with the co-operation of her workers, will make the Bethel B. Y. P. U. just what God would have it be, a set of young people, studying the bible, working towards success, with love to all, malice to none.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Considering the absence of the pastor and the inclemency of the weather, services were unusually well attended and orderly conducted.

Mrs. Marie Rayford is quite ill at university hospital.
The W. W. club will meet Friday with Mrs. Shackelford, 1506 North 26th street.
St. John's contributed a small sum of $19 Sunday morning to the Salvation Army.
Rev. W. C. Williams returned Monday evening from the annual conference which convened the past week in Kansas City, Mo.

SIoux CITY NOTES

Miss Vesta Walker, daughter of Mrs. John Shores, and Mr. Lewis Carter were married September 25 at Dakota City. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith were the attendants.
Mr. William Collins, the barbecue king, was called to Hornick, Ia., this week to barbecue meat for the homecoming celebration.
Mrs. Lena Mays, the hair culturist, and her husband have moved to Waterloo, Ia.

Brother Joseph Norris filled the pulpit at Malone A. M. E. church Sunday in the absence of the pastor. He gave a most excellent talk in the morning. At night Dr. J. Wilbur Norris, an ordained deacon, preached a most excellent sermon to an appreciative audience from Proverbs xxiii:10. Dr. Norris is always heard with pleasure and profit.
Sam Mitchell, an employe of the Swift packing house, lost his purse last week, containing $780.50, when the police raided a crap game in which Sam was engaged. The old saying, "A fool and his money are soon separated," is as true today as when first uttered.

Mr. Ed Askew is on his job again at Davidson Bros., after a week's illness.
Dr. Curshon, pastor of Mount Zion Baptist church, preached the annual sermon for the Odd Fellows juveniles at the church, Sunday, September 28, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Margaret Smith and her sister, Miss Laura Askew, were guests of Mrs. E. J. Curtis on Wednesday, September 24.
Rev. P. M. Lewis will spend a few days in Rockford, Ill., on his way home from attending conference.
Mrs. Williams of Mobile, Ala., has joined her husband, Doc Williams. They are at home at West Fourteenth street.

LA GRANGE, TEXAS, NOTES

Agent H. L. Vincent went to town last Friday and Saturday for the first time in six months.
The continuous rains have prevented the farmers from producing much cotton here, but to the north there is a great demand for hands and consequently many people have left here.
The A. M. E. district S. S. convention closed a successful session here last week. Amount raised, $500.
Last Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock Mr. Charlie Scott and Miss Sallie Williams were married at the St. James M. E. church, Rev. J. H. Napier officiating.
Miss Nettie Phearse and Mrs. Fannie Clark, both of Taylor, attended the Scott-Williams nuptials.
Rev. G. M. Mallory visited here last week.
Mrs. Lottie Beavers, Temple, returned home after visiting a few days with Mrs. Lizzie Williams, her mother.
Mrs. Julia Sutton and Mrs. Mabel Schermack and children are spending a few days out of town.
Prof. G. A. Randolph states that the colored high school here is improving and has an increased attendance over last year at this time.

Mr. T. P. Poole, East Bernard, was in the city last Saturday.
Rev. J. H. Napier is making some repairs on Mrs. Cassie Edwards' home.
Mr. Levi Simms spent last Saturday in Weimer.
Misses Susie Grant, West Point, and Virgie Palmer, Ellinger, were in the city last Saturday.
Our sick: Mmes. Pollie Smith, Rebecca Moses, Charlotte Jarmon, Esther Phearse, Julia King and H. L. Vincent.

PALESTINE NOTES

We are having plenty of rain in this country at this time, and everything is looking fine, especially the turnip crop.
Palestine Association has just ended a successful session. Rev. E. A. Early was moderator and conducted the session in the same efficient way he has for the past eleven years.
Rev. W. A. Alexander was elected moderator for the next term, and we are hoping that he will have success in his new field.
The Sunday school convention was held at Oakwood last week with a good attendance. Rev. F. F. Washington as presiding elder makes a good report from all churches. Those attending the convention were as follows: Mrs. Martha Swanson, Mrs. Martha Garland, Mr. A. G. Howard, Mr. L. D. Thompson, Rev. W. A. Keith, J. H. Little, H. McKeenah.
Mr. Louis Garland was in the city this week looking after some business in connection with the association which convenes in Buffalo today.

Rev. D. J. Crawford and Rev. J. E. Ellis have returned from the national Baptist convention. Both report a good time and a splendid session.
The Zion Hill Baptist association is in session this week at Crockett. Those attending were S. J. Williamson, Rev. D. J. Crawford, Rev. T. M. Daily, Mrs. Malinda Jefferson.
Miss Maggie has joined the list of Monitor readers.
Miss Mattie Paterson is home after spending a few weeks on a vacation trip.

HELENA, MONTANA, NEWS

The grand United Order of Odd Fellows held their annual convention here this week with delegates from all parts of the northwest. They adjourned Thursday afternoon to meet in Salt Lake City in 1920.
The Montana state fair, which started Monday, has brought many visitors into the city. Helena's "400" has always held a place of prominence in the way of elaborate entertaining and nothing was left undone towards making this week indeed a gala week for the visitors who numbered probably sixty.
Among the distinguished out of town guests who attended the state fair and other social functions were Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson and son of Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. Contee, Denver, Colo.; Dr. Robinson and mother of Great Falls. The Woman's club of Butte was represented by Mrs. Arthur Chappell, president; Mrs. L. C. Forman, historian; Mrs. Mack Arnold, secretary, and Mrs. Walter Duncan.
Mrs. Thos. Roberts and little Mattie Tolbert of Omaha are visitors in the city. Mrs. Roberts is the guest of her brother, George Howard, whom she had not seen for 38 years.
A formal ball was given at Armory hall Thursday evening, complimentary to the Odd Fellows and visitors. A delightful evening was spent and those in attendance were unanimous in declaring it to be the swellest affair of the season.

Messrs. L. C. Forman, John Davis, Ed Rivers, Wm. Ridley of Butte were delegates to grand lodge of the Odd Fellows, and remained in the city throughout the week.
Mr. Mack Arnold came over from Butte Thursday morning and was the guest of his wife and mother during the day. He returned by evening train.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, Mrs. Charles A. Joyce and Hon. C. F. Jones were state fair visitors.
Mrs. Wm. Freeman, who lately returned to Butte from a two months' vacation is visiting in Helena this week.
