"BOY ON HORSEBACK" DENIES LEADING MOB; JUST HOLLERED
 William Francis, "the boy on horseback," alleged to have been one of the leaders of the mob which last Sunday lynched Will Brown, charged with assaulting Agnes Loebck, denied the accusation in an interview with the World-Herald.
 "I wasn't any more the leader of that mob than anybody else," said young Francis, standing in the corridor of the county jail.
 "Everybody was yelling and hollering and so was I. I yelled as loud as the next fellow. But I wasn't leading the mob and I didn't lead it."
 "Did you ride into the court house on your horse?" he was asked.
 "No, I did not. I did not get inside the court house, either on horseback or on foot."
 "Did you help lynch Brown?"
 "No, I wasn't within half a block when he was lynched."
 "Were you one of the men who went up to the jail and got the Negro?"
 "No, I wasn't even in the jail."
 "Tell us about forming the mob and working up the sentiment down in the south part of town."
 "I didn't help form the mob. I didn't know anything about the mob forming until I happened to meet it down on Thirteenth street."

Board of Governors Orders Renze to Store the Light Floats—Pageant for Belgian King and Queen Abandoned as Unwise.
 There will be no Ak-Sar-Ben electrical parade until 1920.
 This was decided by the board of governors, and Gus Renze has been instructed to remove the lamps from his eighteen splendid floats depicting "Famous Love Stories," and to place the wonderful creations under waterproof canvas for twelve months.
 No man was more heart-broken over this result of the Sunday riots than was Gus Renze, the Ak-Sar-Ben artificer.
 "I have been ordered to put my floats on ice for a year," said he the other night. "They are my darlings, and I would hate to see them freeze to death. But I am a Christian gentleman and can calmly say that all is for the best."
 The Coronation ball was held at the Den Friday evening, as planned. The police and military officials devised ample protection against any possible disorders.

N. A. A. C. P. MEETS AT PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH
 A monster meeting of the branch was held at Pleasant Green Baptist church Sunday afternoon with the president, Rev. John Albert Williams in the chair. To the appeal for new members many answered who were present at the meeting for the first time last Sunday.

 Reports of committees were accepted. The association heartily endorsed the letters sent to the mayor by the secretary of the branch, Mrs. Jessie Hale Moss. A resolution backing up the request of James Weldon Johnson in regards to the Curtis bill was unanimously passed by the house.
 Various speakers were heard upon the part yellow journalism had played in the recent lynchings and a motion prevailed for placing the Omaha Bee and the Daily News in the list of undesirable forces.
 The meeting adjourned to meet next Sunday at Grove M. E. church at 4:30 p. m.

NIGHT SESSIONS OF MOB PROBE

Charging to Move a Telephone

Some people keep their telephones at the same location for a long time.

Other people move every little while.

Here is an actual record of 100 telephones in an exchange a year ago:

21	were kept 2 months without moving.
19	" " 4 " " "
24	" " 6 " " "
13	" " 8 " " "
14	" " 10 " " "
9	" " the entire year.

We charge for moving or installing a telephone because we feel that a part of the cost should be paid by the person responsible for it rather than the expense be borne by all telephone users.
