

Among the Churches

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Pastor.
Services were good and well attended Sunday. Rev. Dr. Ross preached at the evening service in his very efficient way. One member, Mr. Polk Jones, was added to our Zion. Rev. Allen was present at the morning service, and in the evening Rev. Harris and Rev. Parker were at their post of duty.
The following were elected as trustees for the coming year: L. Pegrem, G. Haywood, A. Floyd, W. C. Mallard, V. Trice, W. Alston, P. Jefferson, A. Ward and C. Riddles.
George Redd, S. Jackson, C. J. Good are the new stewards. S. C. Chainey, G. W. Tucker and O. J. Blue are the newly elected leaders.
Quarterly meeting will be held Sunday, November 23. The presiding elder, Dr. A. C. Terrel, will be present.
We want $100 for Allen Chapel the second Sunday in November. Some have already pledged as much as $5.

Mrs. Sarah Severe, Sada Stapleton, E. Clark and Mrs. O. J. Blue are the leaders chosen by the pastor.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.
The pastor delivered two interesting sermons Sunday to an appreciative audience. At the morning services the rally of twelve made their report. They raised $1,201.
The Art Club met with Mrs. J. A. Newby last Tuesday. There were four visitors and two members added to the club. The club gave $100 in the rally.
The Silver Leaf Club met with Mrs. L. Stovall, Twenty-sixth and Seward streets, Monday evening. After a short business session a dainty lunch was served. This club contributed $25.00 to the rally.
Miss Frances Bynum and Mr. William Hicks were married at the parsonage last Thursday, Rev. Wilkinson performing the ceremony.

The Sunshine Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Cox, 2207 North Twenty-seventh avenue, last Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance, and a delicious lunch was served.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor
Two very large audiences filled the auditorium on Sunday. The pastor preached with an unusual amount of spiritual force. There were ten persons added to the church. The collection for the week was $229.51. The money for charity was $43.30.
The sick of the church are Mesdames Howard Moss, Unita apartments; Francis Smith, 1334 Ogden street; Messrs. Earl Johnson, St. Joseph's hospital, and Mr. Charles Garrett, 2411 Lake street.
A missionary society was organized Friday afternoon at the church. Quite a number of valuable women became members.
The W. W. club held a delightful meeting Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Carr, 2411 Lake street.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor.
The Mission Circle, under the leadership of Mrs. Whitley, Mrs. Burton and others, rendered a program during the past week which was a great success; $116 was realized. One pleasing feature of the program was a mock convention.
Rev. Booker preached at the morning services at Bethel last Sunday. There was one convert. At the evening services Rev. Taggart preached a very interesting and spiritual sermon.
Mr. Vargne, Mrs. Estella Andrewz and Mr. Johnson, who have been ill, are improving.
Lady Blayde is able to be out again after her illness. Her many friends were glad to see her out to church Sunday.
There will be baptizing at the church next Sunday. All are invited. The pastor will preach.
The Dorcas Industrial club will give an entertainment at the home of Mrs. G. Taggart, 2120 North Twenty-seventh street. The pastor especially wants to see all the members at his home on this occasion.
The United Burial Association of the Bethel Baptist church will make an announcement later about their meeting.

SIoux CITY.

Rev. P. M. Lewis preached Sunday morning to a well-filled house. His text was: "Be Not Afraid It Is I."
The morning choir which has been reorganized under the direction of Mrs. Mahalia Wright, made their first appearance Sunday and rendered excellent music.
The official board at their meeting the 21st fixed the pastor's salary and decided to continue the envelope system of raising funds. This system seems to meet the approval of all.
The Stewardess Board, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Knight, will give an entertainment Thursday, November 5, to raise the presiding elders assessment.
Rev. T. B. Stovall, P. E. of the Des Moines district, will hold his first quarterly meeting Sunday, November 9th.
Mrs. M. J. Clay and her mother, Mrs. D. C. Clay, are preparing to move to Omaha. They will be greatly missed in the church circle.
Mr. Charles Murray's father, who has been visiting him for the past week, has returned to his home in Omaha.
Rev. Lewis and Mr. Tom Constantine spent one day last week as the guests of Mrs. Hicks, 1301 Hill street.
Rev. Lewis has sent an A. D. S. call for a basso in the evening choir. The pastor being indisposed Sunday evening, Mr. Joseph Norris gave a most excellent address. The attendance was good at both services, with a collection of $25.00.
Dr. J. Wilbur Norris reports $36.00 raised for the Roosevelt fund. This amount has been forwarded to S. Joe Brown at Des Moines, state chairman.

HASTINGS, NEB.

Mrs. Willie Swain entertained a few friends at a birthday party October 12. The house was beautifully decorated with different colors. The evening was spent in playing whist, after which a delicious four course luncheon was served. Immediately after lunch Miss Clara Spencer, daughter of the hostess, entered the room bearing a cake with thirty-five candles. Mr. J. S. Craig was toastmaster. Mrs. Swain received many beautiful and valuable presents. After a pleasant time the guests departed wishing Mrs. Swain many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Trice of Alda, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Wyth Walker, Mrs. N. Baskerville of Abeline, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, Mr. John Daugherty and Miss Clara V. Spencer.
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Swain, Mr. and

Mrs. Edwin Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Wyth Walker, Mrs. J. S. Craig, Miss Clara V. Spencer, Miss Louise Walker and Mr. John Daugherty spent Sunday in Grand Island the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Trice.

PALESTINE, TEXAS.

Palestine is full of visitors this week. The Baptist state convention is in session and they are having success both financially and spiritually. They have already raised $26,000 which took them over the top.
The Y. W. C. A. held a very successful session at St. Paul M. E. church last week.
Sells and Floto circus was in town last week. Many visitors enjoyed the sights.
Mr. Louis Garland was the guest of his wife last week.
Prof. J. L. Hamilton of Cunev and Rev. A. W. Keith were visitors to this office last week.
Rev. G. W. Carter will hold his fourth and last quarterly conference at St. Paul M. E. church next Sunday and Monday, after which he will go to Houston to attend annual conference. This is his last year as district superintendent in this district. While here he made many friends who are sorry to see him leave. We wish for him success in his new field.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Mrs. Lizzie Tanhill of Chicago and Mrs. Martha Payne of St. Paul, were the guests last week of their sister, Mrs. Ellen Rodriguez. Mrs. Tanhill also visited at the homes of Mrs. H. V. Besse and Mrs. Fankel. She is a former resident of Council Bluffs and a member of Bethel A. M. E.
Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Jaco of Glascoe, Mo., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mildern Banks, 1706 Third street.
Mr. P. P. Farmer, who was called to Tripier, Mo., on business, sent for Mrs. Farmer and she left last Saturday evening and returned Monday.
Miss Addie Davis who, with her mother, was called to Billings, Mont., on account of the illness of her sister, returned home last Friday. Her mother will stay for an indefinite time.
Mrs. Althouse, whose son is on the railroad out of this city, accompanied by her family, arrived in Council Bluffs last week. She will make this her future home.
Mrs. J. Payne and Mrs. J. W. Hall were the guests of Miss Hazel Funches in Glenwood, Ia., last week.
The Church Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. A. Mallott last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lizzie Payne, the president, is doing splendid work with the Aid and is making it a great success. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Hall October 31. This society will give an entertainment for the trustees at the church Friday evening.
R. V. Robinson, Mrs. D. M. Mixon, Germa Gunn and Mrs. Mary Berry, who have been ill, are much better at this time.

Services were good at both churches Sunday.
Little Charles Rhonenece is all smiles since he started to school. The teacher reports that he is doing nicely.

It is not doing the thing we like to do, but liking the thing we have to do, that makes life blessed.—Goethe.
