

Among the Churches

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor.
The B. Y. P. U. rendered an excellent program last Sunday evening which was appreciated by all. Mrs. Hill of Lincoln, Neb., addressed the meeting, after which remarks were made by Mr. C. H. Walls and others.

The sick of the church are improving. Mrs. Andrews was out Sunday for the first time since here operation. Rev. Taggart preached the baptism sermon and also the sermon in the evening. Both sermons were spiritual and interesting.

ZION BAPTIST NOTES.

An old time covenant meeting was enjoyed by those who attended services last Sunday morning. This was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. At night the audience was delighted with the sermon preached by Rev. H. W. Botts of Bonneville, Mo.

Don't forget our Sunday school and B. Y. P. U.; both are steadily growing. Parents are requested to send their children regularly, that ample preparation may be made for the Yuletide festivities.

The sick of the church—Mr. John Gipson, Mrs. H. Payne, Mrs. E. Gorham and Mrs. Izora Belle, are improving at their various homes.

The "Wide Awake 21" will be entertained Friday night by Mrs. A. F. Flannigan at her residence, 2311 North Twenty-eighth avenue.

The visitors who worshipped with us Sunday morning were: Mr. J. P. Bruce of Paris, Texas, father of Rev. J. H. Bruce; Mrs. M. Taylor, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. J. W. Thomas, Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. William Hurrigan, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Martha Hatcher, sister-in-law of Mr. J. E. Hatcher, and Mr. Ollie Lewis of Lincoln, Neb.

Group prayer meetings are being held this week in the various homes, preparatory to the ten-day meeting which starts next Sunday, November

9. Preaching every night. All sister churches of the city are invited. The public is welcome.

The entertainment given by the B. Y. P. U. October 31st was a success from every standpoint—fun, frolic and finance. Thanks to all who helped to make it so.

ST. PHILIP THE DEACON NOTES.

The Woman's Auxiliary has now planned their regular weekly meeting. A very interesting meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. R. T. Walker, 2423 Maple street, with twelve members present. Mrs. Rose Johnson became a member. The ladies are planning a regular monthly social of which due notice will be given later, and all friends invited. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Sarah Lewis, 2818 Miami street. The members were all sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. H. H. Hicks, one of our most faithful workers, who has been confined for several weeks with rheumatism.

Addison Jones, one of the founders of St. Philip's, and his wife were among the worshippers Sunday morning.

A very delightful meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. LaCour.

During the absence of the priest, who served as a deputy from Nebraska to the General Convention at Detroit, the services were most acceptably taken by Mr. Thomas Reese, lay reader.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Pastor.
On October 15 the members of Allen chapel gave a reception in honor of their pastor, Rev. J. A. Broadnax, at the home of Mrs. Annie Reddick. It was a very pleasant affair and greatly appreciated by the pastor.

On last Thursday evening a few of the members gave a surprise donation party on the minister and his wife at the parsonage. Soon after retiring they heard singing at the door and upon opening it found a few good friends with their arms loaded with all sorts of good things to eat. Rev. Broadnax wishes to thank them all to come again soon.

Services were unusually good Sunday, with a collection of $49.50. Strangers worshiping with us Sunday were: Mrs. Cheesbough from St. Joseph, Mo., and Rev. Fantze from Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. Rosalee Haynes, the organist at Allen Chapel, has just returned from Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Lodge of Jerusalem will meet at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church next Sunday, November 9, at 2:30. The minister from Lincoln will preach the sermon. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.
Services were good all day Sunday, and well attended, with an addition to the membership of the church. The pastor preached an interesting and soul-stirring sermon Sunday night.

The men laymen will meet Monday, the 10th. All men are invited to come out and see what the men are doing. The laymen contributed $21.00 to the daily.

The Silver Leaf club met with Mrs. E. W. Smith, 2534 Hamilton street on Tuesday evening. After a short business session a delicious lunch was served.

The Swastika Art Club of Mt. Moriah Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Cassie Bailey last week. A pleasant meeting was held and one new member welcomed to the club. There were also two visitors present.

Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson and Sister Malone, who have been ill, are improving at their homes.

A Christian Woman's Monthly Meet will be organized Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., at the church. The presidents of the various clubs are asked to be present with their members.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Enormous crowds worshipped at both services on Sunday, the pastor preaching at the morning service and the Rev. Ross at the evening service. The well trained choir, under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Parker, added much to the service. There were twelve persons added to the church. The collection of the week was $278.68. The money taken up for charity was $60.51.

The funeral of Mr. Earl Johnson was held Sunday afternoon at the church. He is survived by a wife and three children.

On Friday evening the following persons were elected as officers of the Missionary Society: Mrs. Jas. Jewell, president; Mrs. Bonard, vice president; Mrs. Bastin, secretary; Mrs. Riley, assistant secretary; Mrs. Crawford, treasurer; Mrs. Metcalfe, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. Elliott, chaplain. The society will meet each week with a program at each meeting.

The Ladies' Aid Society met on Thursday to hold election of officers. The community service had its opening and organization of a community literary forum at the church on Wednesday evening. This will be held each week. The entire community is invited. It is for you. So come out. Admission free.

Let Others Follow Good Example
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3, 1919.
Rev. Jno. A. Williams, Omaha, Neb.

Rev. and Dear Sir: Looking over some old receipts I find I am indebted to you for a year's subscription to your good paper, "The Monitor." I find my subscription expired May 1, 1919. I therefore hand you my check for a renewal for one year, May 1, 1919, to May 1, 1920. Apologizing for the delay and hoping all delinquents will do likewise, I beg to remain, faithfully yours.

J. B. SMITH.

COUNCIL BLUFFS NOTES.

Miss Ethel Richardson left last Thursday evening for Des Moines and other cities where she will visit for an indefinite time.

Morning services were well attended at Bethel A. M. E. church last Sunday, and seven joined church. Quite a large crowd attended Sunday school and the election of officers was held.

Rev. Rhonenee is very proud of the way his members are working this year and the interest there seems to be manifested by all. Someone has united with the church every Sunday since he returned from conference.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave an entertainment last Friday night for the trustees, which was a great success. The Missionary Society will hold their program next Sunday at 3 p. m. Mrs. Rhonenee, the president, is asking all the members and friends to be present.

Rev. T. B. Stovall, the new presiding elder of the Des Moines district, will hold his first Quarterly Conference November 16th at Bethel A. M. E. church. Rev. J. A. Broadnax and Rev. W. C. Williams, both from Omaha will be present. Rev. Williams will preach at the afternoon services.

Big Thanksgiving dinner will be held at Bethel Baptist church, November 27th. Dinner will begin at 11 a. m. and will be served until 6:30 p. m. The Ladies' band of Omaha will parade from the church to the Masonic hall at Eighteenth and Pearl streets. Refreshments will be served at the hall. Good speaking, and everybody invited.

Miss Ruth Meekins, 1601 Ave D, won a prize of a silver dollar for writing the best composition on Colonel Roosevelt's life, at the Ave C school.

Rev. J. P. Jackson of Tabernacle Baptist church reports a spiritual meeting all day Sunday and one member added to the church.
