INSTALLS SET OF NEW MACHINES

Richardson Brothers Equip Their Tailoring Establishment With Up-to-date Devices.

Omaha had enter into her business world about one year ago two progressive young men who were skilled tailors. For this period of time they have been quietly giving efficient service to their clients.

Recently they have moved into larger quarters, installed an up to date Hoffman steam presser and cleaning machines, and have increased their number of competent workmen so as to be able to turn out work on time and still maintain the same efficient service they have been giving. Nothing is more interesting than to visit the various business places of Omaha and see what they are doing.

COLORED COMMERCIAL CLUB BEING ORGANIZED

A Commercial club, composed of the business and professional men of Omaha, is being organized to encourage and develop business enterprises among our people. This organization has the backing and co-operation of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce. Preliminary meetings have been held by a committee, of which Mr. E. W. Pryor was chosen temporary chairman and Amos P. Scruggs, temporary secretary. A meeting to complete the organization and to elect officers will be held at some subsequent date, due notice of which will be sent to all prospective members. A letter explaining the purposes of the organization has been sent to every business and professional man in the city inviting him to become a member. This will be followed up by a personal visit by the membership committee. An organization of this character will be of incalculable benefit to our city and should have the active support of every progressive business man.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Episcopal church will present Miss Helen Ricks Merritt, reader, in recital at Grove M. E. church Tuesday evening, December 9.—Adv.
