WILL USE MOVIES TO COUNTERACT EFFECTS OF RIOT PUBLICITY

In an attempt to counteract the unfavorable nation-wide publicity received by Omaha as a result of riots on December 28, the Chamber of Commerce bureau of publicity announces will be taken at once to distribute the recently filmed Omaha picture, "East Meets West," in every large city in the country.

The bureau plans to place the film in 5,000 of the leading picture houses of the United States. The cost of this distribution is estimated at $25,000. A drive will be started soon to raise this amount.

"The houses in which the film will be shown will be carefully selected," said Harvey Milliken, chairman of the bureau. "We hope to reach most of the leading citizens of the entire country."

Owing to the orders of the fuel administration closing all public gatherings the Woman's Auxillary of St. Phillip's announces that the recital which was to have been given next Tuesday night has been indefinitely postponed.

MUSKOGEE, OKLA., BUSINESS MAN AN OMAHA VISITOR

S. L. Drew, special agent of the Muskogee Electric and Traction company, arrived in Omaha last Wednesday for a brief business trip. Mr. Drew, who is one of Muskogee's most wide-awake business men, dropped into The Monitor office in company with his friend, Attorney N. W. Ware, of Omaha, renewed his acquaintance with Fred C. Williams of The Monitor staff, whom he met in Tulsa, Okla., two years ago, chatted about business prospects in Oklahoma and left his subscription for The Monitor, which he was kind enough to say is "a race newspaper absolutely in a class by itself."

OMAHA ATTORNEYS ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

Attorneys Ailey W. Lewis, formerly of Denver, Colo., and Noah W. Ware, who appeared before the state board of examiners at Lincoln Wednesday, November 26th, have been duly admitted and licensed to practice in both the state and federal courts. Mr. Lewis, who is a graduate of the university of Colorado and other institutions of learning, was a successful practitioner in Denver for five years when, on account of his health, he had to abandon his practice. He is a gentleman of the first rank, of broad culture, excellent character and splendid ability and is a decided addition to the legal fraternity of Omaha.

Mr. Ware was admitted to the local bar some few years ago, but has not devoted himself to his profession, having been engaged in other business. He has now been admitted to practice in the federal courts and it is his intention to actively engage in the practice of law.

Omaha offers a good field for lawyers of character and ability.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PACKAGES EARLY

"Do your Christmas shopping and mailing early," advises Charles Fanning, postmaster, who is beginning to think of the busy days ahead for his department.

He stated that packages for overseas shipment should be at Hoboken not later than December 8 to insure delivery for Christmas.

A maximum weight of 11 pounds has been prescribed by the postoffice department for Christmas packages to Europe and a further maximum of two pounds for each article of food sent overseas by mail.

"I have been receiving many inquiries from Omahans who want to send remembrances to their relatives in Germany," the postmaster said.

BOOMING GENERAL WOOD FOR PRESIDENT

The colored people of Omaha have already taken active steps to promote General Wood's presidential boom. Under the leadership of John W. Long a Wood Club has been organized and is actively canvassing for members. The names of the following gentlemen have been suggested as officers of the club: John W. Long, president; Nat Hunter, vice-president; E. W. Scott, secretary, and Dr. L. E. Britt, treasurer.

CAMP FIRE NOTES.

Group Ocowasin, Mrs. Larry N. Peoples, Guardian.

Misses Ruth Jones and Audra Truehart are the authors of the following Camp Fire songs:

Air—"I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles"
Let us keep our candles burning,
Shining thru the day and night
Let us all light
Love, health and work
It is our duty, let's not shirk.
We will not be hindered
By hate ill or care
If we keep our candles burning,
For they'll guide us everywhere.

Let us keep our candles burning,
Candles of work, health and love.
Let them burn high,
Flaming toward the sky,
May Ocowasin never die,
Let not night or darkness,
Our camp fire light hide,
But let them make it burn more brightly.
To forever be our guide.

Air—"You're So Pretty."
We're Campfire Group
"Ocowasin"
We are camp fire girls
We've got the kind of pep that makes folks talk
We hike, sing, dance, play, work and walk;
Oh, we love it, yes we love it,
More and more each day
To work, health, and love, we're true
We're Wohelos thru and thru
We are
Cause, we're Campfires, yes, we're Campfires.
We are Campfire Girls.
