The Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P. will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Mt. Moriah Baptist church. A special program will be given.

COMMUNITY SERVICE HOLDS CHRISTMAS TREE FOR KIDDIES

Community service a few years ago was a thing unheard of. It is a child of the war and a blessed offspring of the War Camp Community Service. If the Red Cross is the "Greatest Mother," then Community Service can be styled as the "Greatest Father," for it is the head of the House of Love; it serves and works for, and binds together the great human family. This was manifest on Christmas day at Columbia Hall, 2420 Lake St., when some 300 little ones and friends gathered about, a beautifully decorated tree singing carols.

After an interesting Christmas program was rendered by the members of the Girls' Community Service League, jolly old Santa Claus put in his appearance and made each and every one happy by distributing boxes of candy, assorted nuts, oranges and other gifts.

The affair was conducted by Mr. W. C. Moten, Miss Frankie B. Watkins, directors of community work, and Mrs. J. H. Moss, local assistant. The tree was donated by Trimble Bros., decorations by the Burgess-Nash Stores, nuts by Hayden Bros., candy by Brandeis, and lights by the Nebraska Power company, through the courtesy of Mayor Smith.

Cash donations were given by Mr. S. S. Caldwell, the N. A. A. C. P., and many other friends.

On Christmas eve a group of the Community Service Girls remembered the old people at the home, by carrying a small tree, beautifully decorated to that institution, and presenting each one with a small token. The old people seemed happily surprised.

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Scott was held from St. John's A. M. E. church last Friday morning at 11 o'clock, the Rev. W. C. Williams and the Rev. S. L. Deas, officiating. Barnett, son-in-law; Dewey Allen, grand son-in-law, and George Allen. Interment was at Forest Lawn cemetery.

PHI DELTA NOTES

Miss Mozetta Joseph of Kansas City was the out of town guest and Miss Irene Newman at home from Chicago for the holidays.
