

Among the Churches

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. W. F. Botts Pastor.
Good crowds were in attendance all day Sunday. The pastor preached two strong sermons. In the morning he talked on "A Great Vision and Question" and at night his subject was "New Opportunities of 1920."

The Sunday School held its annual election of officers last Sunday. It will be led this year by the same efficient superintendent Mrs. Odessa Harris.

Watch for further announcement concerning the necktie social to be given by the Mission Circle February 14.

A literary society, to meet on Monday nights, is being organized. All interested in this line of work are asked to attend.

General praise service every Wednesday night.

Regular services next Lord's day, to which the public is cordially invited.

PLEASANT GREEN

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. John Costello, Pastor.

Sunday services were well attended. The pastor preached on "Faith" in the morning. At night the Rev. W. H. Botts, state missionary, preached. There were seven additions.

A union meeting of the various mission circles will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. W. F. Botts will preach.

The revival is still in progress. Come and hear.

The Mission Circle will meet with Mrs. Bullet, 1109 South Eighth street, Monday at 2:30.

On January 4th the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell was blessed by the pastor, the attendants being Henry Smith and Mrs. Jennie Sellars.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP

THE DEACON

Rev. John Albert Williams, Rector.

Large congregations were present last Sunday morning, both at the services and Sunday School. The adult Bible class, taught by Mr. Thomas Reese every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, continues to grow in numbers and interest.

Beginning next Sunday, January 13, at 5:30 p. m., there will be a short service and instruction on "What the Episcopal Church Stands For, Believes and Teaches." This is the general topic of a series of instructions on the doctrine of the Episcopal Church, which will continue for eight Sundays. The general public is invited to attend.

ST. MARY'S BAPTIST CHURCH,

St. Mary's Baptist church, 30th and Q streets. Rev. F. Olliver, pastor. Services every Sunday. S. S., 10:30 a. m. Preaching, 11:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Good services all day Sunday. Rev. Olliver preached a fine sermon from Joshua 2nd chapter and 18th verse. Subject, "Hang Out Your Sign." When he was through it seemed that we had been with Jesus. Rev. Vider also spoke and made a lasting impression. Sister M. E. Berton, president of the Missionary Circle, made her report. This organization has existed but two months and three days and has raised $25.32. Everyone welcome next Sunday. We will ordain one of our young men for our speaker at 3 o'clock. Come out and see him examined. Rev. Vider will preach the ordination sermon.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Broadnax, Pastor.

Services were well attended Sunday. The Sunday School was very interesting. Many new students of other schools were with us. Mr. Allen Goode, the newly elected superintendent, will do all he can to keep it up to the standard where Mrs. Frankie Redd left it when she turned it over to him.

The two local preachers, Revs. Parker and Harris, are men that you can depend upon.

The trustees have launched a rally for the near future. There are twenty persons and each will raise $20.00. Mr. W. C. Mallard paid his $20 Sunday night. Collections for the day, $52.10. Mrs. Emma Farks joined our Zion.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

Services were well attended Sunday. We have begun our rally which will come off May 2, at which time we are planning to raise $2,000.

The following officers were elected for the Sunday School: Mr. H. L. Anderson, superintendent; Mrs. Lewis, assistant superintendent; Miss L. Watts, secretary; Miss C. McNary, treasurer; Masters H. Gardiner, W. Chambers and Richie, librarians.

The church made its annual report. It has 359 members and $1300 in the bank.

The Art club will meet with Mrs. James Clark, 2865 Ohio, January 21, at 2 p. m.

The sick are improving nicely.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

The good work is still moving on in the name of God. Rev. Rhonenee, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, Avenue A and Sixteenth streets, preached from Exodus, 11th chapter, a part of 7th verse. Text, "Shall Not a Dog Move His Tongue Against Man or Beast." Theme, "He That Worketh the Work of God Must be Submissive to God." Moses was careful to do what God commanded him to do in the land of Egypt. Egypt, a celebrated country in the northern part of Africa; the land of Ham, the son of Noah. Egypt, at the eastern part of the Mediterranean Sea, that the Hebrews called Mizraim. It is now called Misr by the Arabs. It is referred to in the Scripture as "The land of Ham." These were the hours of obedience. God spake unto Moses and Moses said "Thus saith the Lord, about midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt. And all the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die; from the first-born of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even to the first-born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill; and all the first-born of beasts. And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But against any of the children of Israel, shall not a dog move his tongue against man or beast. That ye may know how that the Lord doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. Many other good things were said that we do not take time to mention. It was indeed a spiritual meeting. Morning collection, $20.22. Sunday School and Christian Endeavor are being well attended.

Rev. J. P. Jackson, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church had wonderful services during the day Sunday. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are also being well attended. The same is true of Beulah Baptist church, of which Rev. M. D. Johnson is pastor. The Rev. Robert Ewing is here, having been sent here from Buxton, Iowa. He preached at Bethel Baptist church Sunday from Joshua, 1st chapter. Text, "Be Strong and of Good Cheer." Theme, "I Will Be With You." It was a wonderful sermon.

The sick are: Brother Robinson, 2425 Fifth avenue; Mrs. John Freeland, Mrs. A. A. Green, 1108 South Eighth street, and Mrs. Ruby Manuel. They are very sick at this time.

The Bethel choir will meet every Friday night at the church. Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jessie Nicholls, 1629 Avenue B, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Lizzie Payne, president; Mrs. Martha Herndon, vice president; Mrs. Hazel Bryant, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Madden, correspondent secretary; Mrs. Jessie Nicholas, treasurer; Mrs. Rossie Richardson, chaplain. Mrs. Payne has been president for some time. She is a wonderful worker and is loved by all in the church and community.

ATCHISON, KAS.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Baxter entertained with a luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bevilhans of Minneapolis.

The New Year's dinner at Campbell chapel was a decided success.

Mrs. Brown's recital on New Year's was good. Sorry her crowd was not up to the standard.

Mr. George Williams of St. Joseph visited his sisters in Atchison last week.

Mrs. Rosa Loftin entertained Friday at the Ideal Cafe with a leap year party. Everyone enjoyed themselves, departing in the wee hours of morning.

The overseas party given at Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown's apartment at Grey Eagle Inn was classical and well attended. At 12:30 luncheon was served at Stone's up-to-date cafe, with dancing between courses.

Mr. Harvey Brown is now in Africa as a missionary. We bid him God-speed.

Mr. Minor Robinson is on the sick list.

The public was shocked by the sudden death of Harry Parker, and we extend our sympathy to his father and aunt.

Mr. Benjamin Starks and Miss Minnie Guthrie were quietly married by Judge Adams Saturday night.

Everyone should attend the revival at Mt. Zion Baptist church and hear the wonderful lady evangelist.

On Monday, December 29th, at 5 o'clock, at Campbell chapel was solemnized the wedding of Miss Hattie Ingram and Mr. Henry Jefferson. At 4:30 o'clock Mrs. George Rayford sang "Oh! Perfect Love." At the end of the strains of music, the four ushers, Messrs. Clarence Brown, Ralph Baylis, John and Will Ingram, came down the outside aisles with six ribbon bearers, Misses Anderson, Webb, Gamble, Gray, McDaniels and Brown in pink and white costumes, graced the center aisle. They were followed by little Mary Allen, who wore a white organdy frock trimmed in lace with a pink sash, as flower girl. Next came the groom, accompanied by the matron of honor, Miss Virginia Elliott, who was attractively gowned in pink crepe de chine, being headed in French white beads. She wore a pink tulle hat trimmed in ostrich plumes. They were followed by the bride and her brother, Bert Ingram, who was best man. The bride never looked lovelier than in her wedding gown of Spanish bridal silk, trimmed in silver lace. She carried white bridal roses, also wearing a white tulle veil, which was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The many handsome gifts proved the popularity of the couple. They are now in Arizona and will be at home after March 1 at Cheyenne, Wyo.

Mrs. Pauline Wilson, Miss Lulu Valuzette, Mr. Tom Floyd and Ralph Baylis spent Sunday in Weston, the guests of the Hamilton sisters.

Mr. Garfield Winfrey spent the week in Kansas City.

Mrs. Cary Brown spent Sunday in Kansas City the guest of her niece.

Mrs. Rachel Brown spent Sunday in Leavenworth.

Miss Lucile Dorsey has returned home from Parsons where she spent the holidays.

Mrs. Aggie Kerford of St. Joseph, Mo., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Kate Handy.

Mr and Mrs. Clarence Reford and Miss Hazel Smith entertained delightfully Sunday night at Leavenworth hall. The evening was spent in games and contests which were won by Mrs. Lulu Colbert, Mrs. Marv Smith and Mr. Jesse Stone.

Messrs. Heney and Arthur Allen have returned from their extended trip through Kentucky and reported a fine time. They have struck oil and are drilling in a colored churchyard.

Misses Walton of Leavenworth has been elected to fill the vacancy of Miss Ruby Thornton in the public school.

Misses Hazel and Verna Penn and Lucile White have returned to the State Normal at Emporia.

The young Mr. Smith of Effingham spent Sunday in Atchison.

Mrs. Maggie and Maud Allen, Miss Chloe Pyles, Mr. Troopy Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hinton went to St. Joseph to see the "Smart Set."

Miss Otie Ousley of Kansas City spent the week-end with her father.

Mr. John Mack is on the sick list and is very ill.

Mr. Roy Cocanougher was stricken down with pneumonia, but under the attention and care of Dr. Stewart he is coming out alright.

The Carnation Art club met last week with Mrs. Ira Hickey. She had four guests outside of the club members—Mrs. Brown of Chillicothe, Mo.; Mrs. Lee of St. Louis, Mrs. John Kelley and Mrs. George Rexford. The club will meet this week with Mrs. Verbena Tolbert.

The Grim Reaper death has been very busy in Atchison since the beginning of the New Year, having made three trips the past week, causing the deaths of Mr. Harry Parker, Mr. Minor Robinson and Mrs. Majors. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved families.

If your subscription for The Monitor has run out call Ralph Baylis, 2613 J. He will renew it.

Miss Virgie Bussey has been visiting in St. Joe and Leavenworth.

Mr. Manuel Phelps has gone to St. Joe to work.

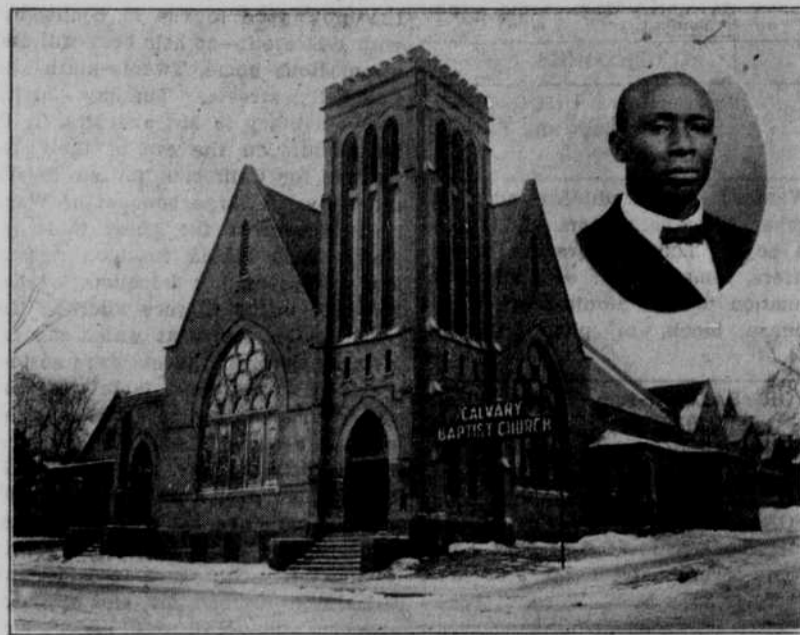

We are glad to see Mrs. Flovilla Ring, who was so ill, out again.

Mr. Jim Brown of Weston spent a day here last week with his daughters.

Miss Gladys all All has been confined to her home with illness
