BRINGS SOME PORK TO OMAHA MARKET

E. M. Buckner, who owns 800 acres of good Nebraska land near Broadwater, Neb., and is also the proud father of seven broad-shouldered sons and four winsome daughters, brought a car load of hogs to South Omaha last Wednesday. The car contained seventy-three hogs, the average weight of each being 270 pounds. Multiply this by 73 and you will see that Mr. Buckner's hogs totaled 19,710 pounds or nearly ten tons of pork.

Mr. Buckner has lived in western Nebraska for the last eight years and is well pleased with his home and neighbors. He comes to the South Omaha market two or three times a year. Mr. Buckner was a welcome caller at The Monitor office.
