ONE-FOURTH WORLD'S WOMEN IN CHINA

Seventy Per Cent. Employees in Shanghai Cotton Mills Women and Children Working Twelve Hour Shifts.

One-fourth of the women in the world are Chinese—200,000,000 of them. They are going into industry in large numbers to work long hours and for little money.

In Shanghai, for instance, seventy per cent. of the employees in the cotton mills are women and children. Working hours for spinners are from six in the morning until six at night and from six at night until six in the morning. Weavers work from 5:30 in the morning until seven at night and the wages are from ten to twenty cents a day. Hundreds of women are employed in silk filature mills, standing hour after hour washing cocoons in basins of boiling water in the excessively hot rooms necessary for apartments where fine silk is spun. In Canton alone, there are 150,000 women in factories at a maximum wage of forty cents a day for women and of fifteen cents a day for girls.

As part of its program of world service for women the National Young Women's Christian Association is expecting to put on a staff of secretaries in China an expert on industrial conditions who will develop social work in factories, and work to improve conditions for women employees. This work will include the introduction of recreation and social life among the workers and of health lectures and educational classes.

Y. W. C. A. STUDENTS TEACHING IN CHINA

Physical Training School Maintained in Shanghai.

The vast majority of Chinese men remember their mothers as cripples. Many a girl wanders into a mission school who has not had her own feet bound, but has never seen a woman of her own class who could walk, and, therefore, she walks in a most ungainly fashion—scarcely conscious of her natural feet.

The Chinese Medical Association—an Association composed only of Chinese physicians mostly graduates from American and English institutions—have asked the entire educated community of the country to co-operate in better health for the children of China. All the Mission Boards operating in China felt that one of the greatest contributions the Young Women's Christian Association could offer to the health of China would be to establish a normal school for the training of physical directors.

Accordingly, in Shanghai, which is the greatest port in China, the national committee established such a school in 1914. The school has won favor with all educationists, both missionary and government. There have already been nine graduates from this school. Miss Ying Mei Chun, a graduate of the Wellesley School of Physical Education, has been dean of the school. Graduates of the school are scattered from Canton to Peking, teaching with conspicuous success in twelve mission and government schools.

There are approximately 500 women physicians in Japan now, she says, and 400 women medical students. Dr. Inouye was the only delegate from Japan to the Y. W. C. A. International Conference of Women Physicians, in session during September and October.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR

A very quiet, but pretty wedding occurred Saturday, January 17, at 8:30 p. m., when Mrs. Louisa Proctor became the wife of Mr. Robert Banks. Sr. The wedding occurred at the home of the groom's daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Pemberton, 2628 Franklin street.

The bride was very becomingly attired in yellow brocade satin and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

Rev. W. C. Williams was the officiating minister, and the impressive ring ceremony was observed.

The guests present were Mesdames S. Lewis, Mabry, Jenine Sellers and Al Banks; Mr. and Mrs. L. Artison, Messrs. Will Thomas, Wm. Banks, A. F. Banks, John Walls, James Banks and Theodore Stewart.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Pemberton. Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton are at home to their many friends at 2124 North 27th avenue.

Todd-Davis Wedding

Mrs. E. D. Davis, one of the prominent members of the society of St. Benedict The Moor, and Mr. Ross Todd were united in bonds of matrimony last Tuesday evening at St. John's church, 25th and California streets. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Cassilly, S. J.

The bride was attired in a gray broadcloth traveling suit. Mrs. Lewis, matron of honor was dressed in a princess white serge, trimmed in old rose. Mr. Jno. T. McDonald, Sr., prominent newspaper man and book-keeper, was best man for Mr. Todd.

After the ceremony the party returned to the home of the bride, where dinner was served to eighteen. The bride wore yellow crepe de chine over white satin, trimmed with ermine and pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Eudell Brown gave the bride away and were witnesses to the ceremony. The couple will reside at 2927 North 27th street.

LIST OF LIVE STOCK SHIPPERS DRAWN FROM A VARIETY OF RACES

People of many races are live stock producers, located in territory served by the Omaha market. During the past few years the roll of live stock shippers has included full blood Indians, men of Japanese, Russian, Bohemian, Mexican, Spanish and Swedish descent. English lords have adjusted their monocles in the lobby of the Exchange and the blocky sons of Nippon have ordered boiled rice in the dining room. And in the old days when "Here's How" was a common expression, it might have been heard frequently with a strong Irish brogue.

Last one section of our population be overlooked in the racial delegates. Alexander Brown of Merriam arrived this morning with a load of mixed cattle and a broad African smile. Mr. Brown is an old gentleman of color whose activities tend to discredit the Osler theory. He is not only a successful farmer and stock raiser, but does not like to be bothered with hired help.

Two years ago he raised about 3,000 bushels of potatoes on his farm in addition to more or less grain and live stock and chickens. Mr. Brown and his wife do all of the work, not having found it either necessary or convenient to pay out good money for farm labor of questionable quality. —Daily Drivers Journal-Stockman South Omaha, January 13.

COLORED BOY SCOUT TROOP ORGANIZED IN OMAHA

It will indeed be satisfying to know that the Boy Scout movement which was started a few months ago among the colored boys of Omaha is alive as a direct result of Community Service. The Boy Scouts of America is a corporation formed by a group of men who are anxious that the boys of America should come under the influence of this movement and be built in all that goes to make character

We are very fortunate in getting the service of H. L. Anderson who, a few years ago, organized and was scoutmaster of the first colored troop in Omaha.

We have had five real snappy meetings so far, and our membership has rolled up to eighteen enthusiastic boys. At the last two meetings Mr. G. H. Hoyt, the scout executive of Omaha, was present and conducted the tenderfoot test. The following boys passed the test and are real scouts: William Lewis, Harry Lewis, Chester Ball, James McRae, Harold Robbins, Worthington Williams Millard Carr, Thomas Chandler, Vasco Phillips, Raymond Miller, Edward Todd, Maceo Farrel and Charles McRae. These boys are regular scouts and are now permitted to wear the full regulation Scout uniform. We are anxious that all parents who are interested in their boy to see that he becomes a Scout. Ages from 12 to 18 years.

The Scout Council for Troop 23 is as follows: Dr. William W. Peebles, Mr. H. L. Anderson, Mr. Isaac Bailey, Mr. Edward Turner and Father John Albert Williams. All meetings are held at the Community Center, 2420 Lake street, 6:30 to 8 p. m. Mr. V. L. Williams, assistant scoutmaster; Mr. William C. Moten, acting scoutmaster.
