

NEBRASKA STATE HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE CO. HOLD FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET

The Nebraska State Health and Accident Insurance company bids fair to create a new precedent in the insurance world by the practice of its policy of absolute equality between all races in reference to rate of insurance, a square deal to its policy holders and equal opportunity for employment and advancement based upon ability and service rendered has successfully operated and although in existence for a very few months has built up a large clientele of satisfied policy holders and has secured an enviable record for promptness in paying all claims presented it during the present epidemic of influenza and sickness. The remarkable thing about this company is its real practice of democracy—race men are to be found on its board of directors, among its field men and agents.

The following invitation was sent out:

"Annual Banquet of Nebraska State Health and Accident Company of Omaha, Neb., given by the president, John E. von Dorn, in honor of the agents and field men held at South & Thompson Cafe, 418 North 24th street, Tuesday evening, February 3, at 8:30."

In response to the above invitation the following persons gathered and partook of the delicious repast:

H. Sheanin, M. Wright, L. A. Dil-larson, Rev. John Maxwell, Rev. J. D. Crum, John W. Priest, Rev. Wm. Franklin, Dr. M. Wiggins, Dr. D. W. Gooden, Dr. L. E. Britt, Dr. A. B. Madison, Dr. J. B. COMMUNITY CENTER HAS DISTINGUISHED GUEST

Field Secretary of the Community Service, Incorporated, Visits Omaha in Interest of Helping Keep Community Service in the Places Where Organized.

On last Thursday at the Community Center about 75 of Omaha's representative citizens gathered to listen to Mr. Atwell make a splendid address, emphasizing in it what he considers the three greatest things that have come to us out of the war, i. e., Community service, the American Legion and government insurance.

Preceding the speech of the evening Dr. Andrew Singleton led community singing. Later Mr. Twitchel, community song leader, led in songs and animated games which all present enjoyed.

Upon the statement by community workers Moton, Root and Goddard as to the necessity for Omaha raising $600.00 to continue all its centers a month until definite arrangement for further work could be made, the Rev. John Albert Williams made a motion that the colored citizens pledge $150 of this amount. The motion carried and in a very short space of time not $150 but $237 had been raised.

PALESTINE, TEXAS.

All the churches had appropriate services Sunday.

The Cartrel Chapel C. M. church held their first quarterly conference last Sunday with full reports from all departments, and they paid the presiding elder in full.

The St. Paul M. E. church held their first quarterly conference last Sunday and Monday night, with complete reports from all departments. They paid the district superintendent in full. The Rev. B. R. Booker was at his best at St. Paul's as this was his first quarter that he had at this point.

The Rev. A. W. Keith was in full sway at the Mt. Vernon A. M. E. church and Rev. W. W. Cowen had a full house at Grant Chapel A. M. E. church.

Rev. J. E. Ellis was in his pulpit at Pilgrim Rest Baptist church and Rev. Bolover Davis of West Union Baptist church was on hand.

Mr. C. A. Oliver of Harris, Texas, was a Palestine visitor last week.

Mr. C. J. Moore of Marshall is visiting, here and was out to St Paul church Sunday to worship.

Mr. Owen Manuel of Oak Wood was in the city recently.

Mrs. Gennifer Stell and Mrs. Carell Jackson of Oakwood were here to see their sick sister-in-law, Mrs. L. M. Strain, who is very ill.

Mr. Jesse Lee of Oakwood was in town last week.

Mr. W. T. Butler, a traveling salesman for the Davis Drug Co. of Galveston, was in town last week.

The surprise party given by members of St. Paul M. E. church to the pastor, Rev. S. M. Bolden, last Tuesday night, was a swell affair. He was delighted in the manner in which it was conducted, expressed his appreciation and invited them to come again.

How Blue Laws Hit Pennsylvania.
Pennsylvania's venerable blue law, enacted April 22, 1794, and entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality and for other purposes," has survived all the assaults of those who would destroy it. The legislators of 1794 regarded it as being vastly more wicked to shoot a rabbit on Sunday than to drink a hot toddy. One offender was tagged with a fine of $25 the other a shilling and a half. It was impossible under a strict enforcement of that law to operate a canal boat, a railroad train, a street railway car, a cab or sell any commodity from a loaf of bread to a package of chewing gum.

Why Indian Is Honored.

On a hillock overlooking the town of Robbinsville, the county seat of Graham, one of the southwestern counties of North Carolina, is to be erected a memorial to the Cherokee Indian warrior Junaluska, "I tried, but failed." Junaluska was always referred to by the early white settlers as the "friendly Indian." He was born in the mountains of Cherokee county, North Carolina, in 1758. At the battle of Horse Shoe Bend, Gen. Andrew Jackson with his white troops had the Creek Indians hemmed in at the bend of the river. Junaluska, who had previously attached himself to Jackson's forces, intuitively grasped the situation and swam the river and cut loose the Creeks' canoes. Being unable to escape in their boats, the hostile Indians were surrounded by Jackson's men and decisively beaten. In recognition of Junaluska's exploit and signal assistance to the white men, the movement to place this memorial on the Graham county hillside has been undertaken.

Why She Was Not Thankful.

Father had got for himself a dose of iron, quinine and strychnine. He had poured it into half a glass of water and had gone after something to take the taste out of his mouth when he swallowed the medicine. While he was gone little seven-year-old June came into the kitchen after a drink of water. Of course she saw father's glass of medicine and thinking it was water took a good swallow.

Father came back into the room just as she was spitting and trying to get that bitter taste away. "Was that your medicine?" she asked him.

He nodded his head and then essayed a joke. "But you're welcome," he said.

"No, I am not," she retorted. "I couldn't be, 'cause I'm not even thankful."

CHANGE IN MONITOR ADVERTISING RATES
Because of our keen appreciation of all our Monitor patrons, we have been loath to increase our prices until forced to do so. The increased cost of everything that enters into the making of a newspaper necessitates an increase in our advertising rates. Beginning with the first issue in February advertising rates will be as follows:
Display advertising—75 cents per column inch for single insertions.
Classified advertising—4 cents a word, or 20 cents per agate line.
Time or space discounts furnished on request. Contracts can be made at the office, 304 Crouse block, or call Douglas 3224 and our representative will call on you.
The Monitor is prepared to give its clientele in 1920 a larger circulation and better service than in 1919. Growing, thank you.
