

Among the Churches

ST. PAUL'S BAPTIST CHURCH. Fourteenth and Grace Sts. (Rev. C. Johnson, Pastor)

Revival meetings will start Sunday evening, March 7. Rev. Mr. Staves will preach the first sermon on Sunday night. On Monday night Rev. John Costello of the Pleasant Green church will be with us and remain, preaching until this meeting is closed. Come one—come all—to these meetings.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH. (Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor)

Mr. and Mrs. White of Chicago are now stopping in Omaha, looking forward to making it their future home. They were visitors of Bethel Baptist church.

Service was conducted on Sunday morning by Rev. Herman Davis, who preached a very interesting and spiritual sermon. The evening service was as usual house filled and the pastor finished his series of sermons.

The Volunteer seekers combined their work with the Eastern Star Bible class and are looking forward to having success and better results with their meetings.

The Mission Circle meets at the home of Mrs. Anna Gibbs, 5422 South Twenty-seventh street. The president, Mrs. C. Cage, earnestly requests all members to be present as she is not familiar with the work. She needs the encouragement and co-operation of each individual.

The Sunday School and E. Y. P. U. are planning to send delegates to the Sunday School congress which convenes in June.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor. Services were well attended all day, the pastor delivered a very forceful message from the subject, "Encouragement," which was given to him, at the morning service, and at night, "Mistake." Our church is waking up along all lines, so much so that many have seen the wisdom of supporting their church from God's standard of giving which is the only one provided for in the whole Bible, old and new, and that is by tithing. Those who are making this effort are: Mrs. J. D. Davis, $14.25; Mrs. S. S. Whitelaw, $12.65; Mr. J. Hall, $7.50; Mrs. L. Ivory, $10.50; Mr. P. Aldridge, $8.00; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mathews, $15.70; Mr. A. Smith, $12.00; Mr. Edgar Jones, $14.00; Mrs. E. Jones, $10.00; Mrs. L. Wade, $2.40; Mrs. J. W. Walker, $2.25; Mrs. M. Woodson, $4.50; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Betts, $9.95; Rev. and Mrs. Wilkinson, $13.00; Mrs. M. Duncan, $1.00; Miss H. Smith,

$1.00; Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson, $2.00; Mr. Ed. Porter, $2.00. The last four, because of sickness, etc., could not do as they wanted.

Feeble as it might appear to be, yet these few people have given to the Master's cause in one month, $142.30. When our Christian churches shall have caught the vision and have heard the voice of the Master calling for service, no job will be too big for them to undertake. Total for the month from all sources, $412.41. We are hoping that the day will come, when our Christian men and women will be big enough and enough filled with the spirit of God that they will not allow the existence of the church to hinge upon worldly entertainments and amusements, but will give as God has demanded of them.

Ministers, we have failed to put the facts before the people, wake up and get some followers that will not sleep when we are awake. The Silver Leaf club was reorganized at the pastor's residence on Tuesday night.
