NEW YORK, April 1.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has issued a statement in regard to the refusal of Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas to extradite Robert L. Hill, accused of being the leader of a plot to "massacre" whites in Phillips county, Arkansas, last October, which reviewed the legal steps taken to prevent Hill's extradition. This the association regards as one of the greatest legal victories won since the segregation decision and since Governor McCall of Massachusetts denied extradition to West Virginia of John Johnson.

"At the close of a hearing which lasted from 2 o'clock in the afternoon of March 22 until after midnight, Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas refused to grant the extradition petition of Governor Brough of Arkansas for the return of Robert L. Hill, alleged head of the Progressive Farmers' and Householders' Union of America, to Arkansas.

"Hill was arrested in Topeka, Kans., on January 20, as the leader of the organization charged with planning to 'massacre' whites in Arkansas in October, 1919. As soon as news of the arrest was received at the national headquarters of the association, the secretary got in touch with Senator Arthur Capper (formerly president of the Topeka branch of the association and at present a member of the national board of directors of the N. A. A. C. P.), who wired Governor Allen asking that Hill's extradition be denied until the N. A. A. C. P. could be represented by counsel to fight the case. The association itself wired Governor Allen stating that the association would retain counsel on Hill's behalf and alleging that Hill could not receive a fair trial in Arkansas; that this fact was conclusively proved by the record of trial and conviction growing out of the Phillips county, Arkansas, verdicts of last November, rendered by juries from which colored men were excluded, the jury's verdict in the case of five of the twelve men sentenced to death, having been returned in five minutes. Counsel for the defense put 10 witnesses on the stand in defendants' behalf and did not ask for a change of venue.

"Senator Capper recommended Mr. Hugh T. Fisher, county attorney of Shawnee county, Kansas, to represent the association in fighting Hill's extradition. Mr. Fisher's genuine interest in securing for Hill a fair trial is shown by the following extract from his letter to the N. A. A. C. P. in which he agreed to take up the case:

"Immediately upon receipt of the telegram from Senator Capper I wired him to the effect that I would take the case upon his recommendation and without compensation, and that he should notify you to that effect."

"From this time until the decision of Governor Allen was rendered, Mr. Fisher has worked untiringly and with great legal ability in Hill's defense.

"It was contended on Hill's behalf that he had no direct connection with colored people arming themselves or with the trouble at Hoop Spur, Ark. By affidavits and depositions it was shown that the testimony at the Arkansas trial was procured through torture and that testimony offered by Arkansas authorities, who were represented by Attorney General J. D. Arbuttle, was hearsay testimony. Mr. Fisher forced the Arkansas attorney general to admit that S. O. Bratton, a white man of Little Rock, Arkansas, was almost lynched and that a great deal of feeling and prejudice against Hill and his organization existed in Arkansas.

"Following Governor Allen's denial of extradition, which was a great blow to the Arkansas authorities, counsel for Hill and the N. A. A. C. P. immediately took a train for Kansas City, Kansas, arriving there just in time to prevent the Arkansas authorities from securing a writ from Federal Judge Pollock for Hill's removal to Arkansas on the ground of impersonating a federal officer, which counsel for the N. A. A. C. P. regard as a trivial and inconsequential charge. Judge Pollock refused to sign the papers and has set April 8 as the date for the hearing on the federal indictment.

"Associated with Mr. Fisher and backed by the N. A. A. C. P., were three colored attorneys of Topeka, Messrs. Elisha Scott, James H. Guy and A. M. Thomas.

"The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People regards Governor Allen's action as deeply significant," said John R. Shilady, secretary of the association, "inasmuch as the Arkansas authorities were represented by the attorney general of the state, who appeared in person, and is indicative, the association believes, of what would have happened in Arkansas had

Ernest M. Pollard
For Governor

Ernest M. Pollard, Republican candidate for Governor in the primary, April 20th, was born in Nebraska fifty-one years ago. He owns and operates the farm homesteaded by his father, Isaac Pollard, at Nehawka, Cass County, in 1856.

After graduating from the State University, the voters of Cass County elected him a member of two sessions of the State Legislature. Later, the voters of the First Congressional District sent him to Congress for two terms. At present he is a member of the State Constitutional Convention, and has shown himself to be progressive, sincere and level-headed.

While in the United States Congress he was a member of the Agricultural Committee of that body and brought to the farmers of Nebraska, through the State Experimental Station, the serum treatment for the control of hog cholera which has practically wiped out this plague.

As Governor, he will represent no class. He will vigorously enforce all the laws and will insure to all the people, whether rich or poor, every personal and property right guaranteed by the Constitution.

He is a successful farmer and will give the state a business administration. His nomination will mean certain victory for the Republican party in the November election.

the ninety odd colored defendants in the alleged uprising in Elaine had a fair trial before an unprejudiced jury where their rights were protected as they were by Mr. Fisher and his associates in Topeka, and not as in Elaine, Arkansas, where the defendants were represented by counsel appointed by the court who did practically nothing in their defense."

WHY A COLORED
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH?

To approach the question first from the negative standpoint, let it be said that it is not because we in any wise believe that salvation can be obtained alone through the ministrations of the Presbyterian church. Nor is it that we feel that the other churches laboring among our people are not doing all that can reasonably be expected of them in the work for the betterment of our condition. But it is rather that the Presbyterian church with its splendid equipment for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God may not be a slacker in this field of so great opportunities, of so great need. A field wherein every possible Christian effort must be put forth against the multiple forces of evil.

Inasmuch as American Christianity is so divided, no community not being served by all the greater divisions of the church has full access to the catholic faith and worship. Every form of service has in it that which especially appeals to some individual mind and heart. Under present conditions no one organization either in doctrine or practice satisfies completely our diversified religious propensities.

While it should be the incessant and earnest prayer of all true children of God that the church be one, yet under existing conditions it is incumbent upon each denomination to exercise its full power in furthering the cause of the Kingdom of our Common Redeemer and thus by exalting Christ, cease to emphasize our differences. And surely there is much work for us all to do to hasten the time when the kingdoms of the world shall become the Kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ.

The position of the Presbyterian church is epitomized in its handbook thus:

"The Presbyterian Church stands, as it has stood during its entire history, for the unconditional sovereignty of God, for the Bible as the only infallible rule of faith and life, for simplicity of worship, representative government, a high standard of Christian living, liberty of conscience, popular education, missionary activity and true Christian catholicity."

Said President Benjamin Harrison, himself a ruling elder in the church: "The Presbyterian church has been steadfast for liberty, and it has kept steadfast for education. It has stood as stiff as a steel beam for the faith delivered to our fathers and it still
