

Among the Churches

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor.
In sending his Easter offering Mr. Johnson did not fail to remember the Sunday school and sent some beautiful Easter lilies which served suitably for the occasion. The Sunday school had arranged an elaborate program and every tot did well. Heruan Davis preached from the subject, "Our Risen Lord."

The morning service was as usual well crowded and the pastor preached on "The Resurrection." Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reed of Hugo, Okla. Next Sunday will be communion, the pastor will preach a special sermon subject, "Spiritualism."

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. Costello, Pastor.
The revival meting closed Sunday night with twenty-three additions.

The Rev. S. V. Terry of St. Louis preached as a closing subject, "The Burning Bush." The baptizing was postponed on account of the weather. If the weather will permit cars will leave Twenty-second and Nicholas streets 2:15 p. m.

The Mission Circle will be entertained by Sister Crowder, 2631 Parker street, Monday, 2 o'clock.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning covenant was one of the best in the church's history, in attendance and spiritually. The church was crowded to its capacity at night, at which time the Easter program was rendered and was enjoyed by all. The young ones made a remarkable showing under the superintendency of H. L. Anderson.

Next Sunday morning, April 11, all the Baptist ministers will preach from the theme, "What are some of the best methods of bringing our churches of today to the standard of the Apostolic Church?"

We are getting ready to move into our new church, Twenty-fourth and Ohio streets, on Sunday, May 2. The revival begins right then by a noted pastor from Dallas, Texas. Come to 2217 North Twenty-seventh avenue—good entertainment.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEWS.

Rev. W. C. Williams, Minister.
(By Corinne Thomas)
The cold wind and snow, which gave a Yultide touch to the spring festival, failed to chill the Easter spirit of the St. John's goers, who faced the chilly breezes to observe, what is probably the most impressive of religious services.

Easter lilies, palms, and spring flowers that filled the altar, defied the winter outside and gave the sanctuary an atmosphere of spring.

At both morning and evening services special music was rendered by the choir. At the morning services special music was rendered by the choir. At the morning services a violin solo was rendered by Maceo Williams, and a vocal solo by Rev. R. Taylor. The text for the sermon was, "He Is Not Here, He Has Risen."

The Sunday school rendered their annual program after which each teacher gave her pupil the much expected Easter memento.

The evening hour was devoted to a musical program by the choir. Every number was very appropriate and appealing.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

Rev. John Albert Williams, Vicar.

Despite the inclement weather the Easter services from the early Eucharist at 6:30 until the children's service at 6 p. m., were largely attended and inspirational. With few exceptions, some of whom were detained by illness, nearly the entire membership made their communion and while no special appeal had been made for an Easter offering, the offering was generous. At the 11 o'clock service the music was hearty and devotional, nothing elaborate being attempted, and was materially assisted by Dan Desdunes, violinist.

The usual services next Sunday at 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Monday night at 8:30 Mr. Knapp of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will meet a committee of "key men" of the congregation who will be instructed in undertaking special work.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICE.

The Presbyterians will hold services at Mt. Moriah Baptist church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends who may desire to participate in the services and meet the new pastor.

USE OF NAME UNAUTHORIZED.

My attention has been called to a circular letter issued by the "O. M. Olsen Booster Club for County Assessor," in which my name and that of my wife appear as members of the men's and women's committee, respectively. I desire to state that these names were used without our knowledge and consent. Neither Mrs. Williams nor I is a member of the "Olsen Booster Club." The use of our names in this connection is misleading and unauthorized.

REAL ESTATE, LOANS AND INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

Our Manager needs no introduction. Born and raised in Omaha, he received his schooling at the public schools, Omaha High School and Boyles Business College. A young man who has always stood high in the estimation of all who know him, and well liked by everyone. He has had experience in real estate and insurance, previous to his position in the court house where his experience has broadened into many lines. He will give the public the best that is in him.

We have associated ourselves together for the purpose of being of great service to the public, if it is in the line of Real Estate, Loans or Insurance. If you want to buy a home, see us. If you want good reliable insurance of any kind, let us write it for you. We are writing insurance with Old Line Companies, such as the Glens Falls, State Insurance Company and the Columbia Fire Ins. Co. Said companies stood the test through the San Francisco earthquake. We also would be glad to take full charge of your rental property. We can save you the commission fee on the up-keep bill alone. Expert advice on all matters pertaining to Real Estate, Insurance and Loans gladly given without cost to the individual. Our motto is a square deal to all.

Watch Us Grow!

J. DILLARD CRAWFORD
In Charge of Insurance Dept.

Our Insurance Department is in charge of a young man just completing his course at Commercial High School. He has lived in Omaha the greater part of his life and has always been a straightforward young man. He was very active in his school work and a favorite among his classmates and the faculty. He is president of the Douglas Debating Society (Colored). We feel sure he has the best wishes of the public in this his first business venture.

Our President has been a resident of Omaha for the past seventeen years. He began work as waiter in the hotels and restaurants of Omaha, and being a man of pleasing personality and easily met, he made friends with men in all walks of life. His desire has always been to stand for something in the community in which he lives and as a result he began to acquire real estate. He now has accumulated quite a deal of real estate, which brings him a good monthly income. Never being satisfied with working for the other man, he went into business for himself. He has been engaged in both restaurant and hotel business, but always leaned toward the real estate business which he has carried on in a small way for some years past. Mr. Galloway is a race man and never fails to give his time and money to anything that tends toward the betterment of the Negro race.

President
