"ON TO CALVARY"

Slogan of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in Its Great Financial Drive.

PILGRIM REST BAPTIST CHURCH MAKES ITS LAST APPEAL. To the Many Friends and Readers of This Paper:

We are making this last appeal, asking that you will please send us a contribution for our rally, May 1st. For six weeks you have been reading our appeal in this paper. Up to this time very few have answered our appeal. It may be that you have not realized the importance of this appeal. Now if you are in sympathy because of Christianity, please let us hear from you before May 1.

The above is a cut of the Calvary Baptist church (white), 25th and Hamilton streets, erected in 1900. This building has been purchased by contract by the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church (colored) at a cost of $35,000. Fifteen thousand dollars of the purchase price is to be paid before entering the building.

Eleven thousand dollars is to be raised by the congregation and friends by May 1st. We are therefore asking every reader of this paper and the public at large to give us your moral and financial support in the raising of this eleven thousand dollars. Below you will find a coupon which you will please fill in, sign and return with the amount you will give for this purpose.

Please do not lay this aside, but give it your immediate attention. All contributions will be acknowledged in the columns of this paper. Watch this fund grow. Address all communications to

Among the social features of the week was the pink springtime tea given by Mrs. Augustus Hicks Monday afternoon, April 19, in honor of Mrs. S. A. Wooldrige of Kansas City, sister-in-law of Mrs. Hicks. The house was beautifully decorated with American beauties and sweet peas, which gave an atmosphere of a Japanese tea garden. Mrs. Hicks wore a beautiful gown of pink satin and lace. Mrs. Wooldrige wore a French gown of heavy brocade satin with cold trimmings and French feathers. Those who assisted Mrs. Hicks were: Mesdames William Murphy, Thomas Riggs, Charles Seymore, Jasper Brown and J. D. Lewis. These matrons were also beautifully gowned.

Mrs. M. Jackson, 2613 Burdette street, gave a delicious five-course dinner at 6 o'clock Friday, April 16, in honor of Mrs. L. Hall of St. Paul, Minn. She was the guest of Mrs. Taylor. A large bouquet of roses, carnations and hyacinths adorned the center of the table. Covers were placed for seventeen. Those present were Mrs. L. Hall of St. Paul, Mrs. Wooldrige of Kansas City, Mesdames G. Hayes, E. Hunter, A. Smith, M. Taylor, G. Ashby, A. Hicks, C. Jewell, E. Dudley, L. Bell and L. Davis, Miss A. Anderson, Master Orvington Hall, little Willa Hayes, Celestine Smith and Olive Jackson.
