AN IMPORTANT OCCASION.

Booker T. Washington's Birthday Celebration.

On the evening of April 15 quite an appreciative audience gathered at the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church to pay homage to the memory of the great Booker T. Washington. Rev. J. D. Crum made the opening remarks and presided as toast master. After invocation by Rev. W. M. Franklin, the audience was treated to a number of plantation melodies, of which Mr. Washington was delighted with in his lifetime. A musical solo was rendered by Miss Bertha Montgomery. Mrs. R. H. Robbins read a paper, "Dr. Washington as a husband." Other participants were: Miss Lula McCant, Mrs. G. Harris, Messrs. Young and Mallory. The address by Attorney Alley W. Lewis, subject, "Booker T. Washington as a Founder and Build-er," was a masterly piece, and was easily the feature of the evening. A recitation by Master Rosco Robbins, subject, "I Want to Be Like Booker T. Washington," was well rendered. The program closed with old planta-tion melodies. Refreshments were served.

LOYAL THEATRE TO REOPEN

UNDER COLORED MANAGEMENT
The Loyal theater on Caldwell street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth street, which has been closed for several years, is being re-modeled into a cozy family theater and will be opened soon under col-ored management.

Messrs. R. T. Walker and S. H. Dorsey, well known Omahans have leased the theater and are spending quite a sum in their determination to give Omaha at least one movie owned and controlled exclusively by the race.

The policy of the new management will be to give first class film ser-vice, good and courteous treatment at reasonable prices. Something spe-cial is being planned for the opening which will be announced in the col-umns of The Monitor at a later date.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

In spite of the inclement weather the faithful few came to worship Sun-day and all enjoyed the services. Rev. erend Mr. Parker and Elum were with us.

Quarterly conference, the second Sunday, Rev. W. C. Williams of St. John's will preach at 3 p. m. Rev. Rhonenee will be present. All are in- vited to be present and partake of spiritual blessing.

We come once a year in a financial appeal to the public. Please help a struggling church and donate to those who have the papers authorizing solicitation. Mrs. Delitha White has donated $2.50 to the May 16 rally and Mrs. Clara Lowe has been the next to follow with a $2.50 donation. You should be the next to help us.

With sincere thanks, I am yours,
for His Kingdom,

J. A. BROADNAX, Pastor.
5233 South Twenty-fifth street. Phone South 3475.

REGIMENTAL BAND

POPULAR CONCERT
Rain last Sunday afternoon did not prevent a large audience, numbering nearly 1,200, about equally divided be- tween the race, attending the popu- lar concert given at the Auditorium by Desdune's band. Those who at- tended were well repaid by a splendid program. The band was at its best and showed the result of its careful three months' rehearsal for this event. The audience showed its appreciation of every selection from the opening number, 366 Regimental March, composed by Richard Oliver and dedicated to his brother, Robert Oliver, first clarinetist of the band, to the closing number, the "Star Spangled Banner." The band was heard to its best advantage in the overture, "Morning, Noon and Night," by Suppe, considered a masterpiece in band composition, while "Alexan-der's Ragtime Band in 1920," arranged by Desdunes, captivated the audience. The trombone solo by Artie Watkins; the cornet solo by Jeff Smith, and the vocal numbers by Levy Broom- field, who was in fine voice, were artistic and pleasing.
