PHI DELTA NOTES

The Phi Delta Sorority girls entertained their mothers Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Harold in observance of Mother's day. A delicious seven-course dinner prepared by the members was served. The table was beautifully appointed and decorated by a centerpiece of lilies. During the meal the musical contingent of the club furnished vocal and instrumental numbers. These Mothers' day affairs have become an annual event and the mothers of the Phi Delta girls eagerly anticipate them.

THE SOLDIER'S DREAM

A PLEASING PAGEANT
The pageant, "A Soldier's Dream," which was given under the direction of Miss Lucille LaCour of the Community Center last Thursday night at Columbia Hall, was a delightful affair and brought out, as it deserved to do, a liberal patronage. The girls of the various countries which passed before the sleeping soldier, which part was taken by Roscoe Miller, who was in excellent voice, were artistically impersonated by Miss Ruth Washington, Miss Wade, Miss Beatrice Majors, Miss Thomas, Miss Boyd, Miss Middleton, Miss Pegg, Miss McCaw, Miss Roberts, and Mesdames O. Roundtree, Jr., and John Smith. The serpent dance, by Miss Mary Pegg, who represented Egypt, and the butterfly dance, by the same young woman, were additional features of a most attractive program. Folk dances by a group of the younger girls pleased the audience. The prologue was read by Andrew Reed.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR

COMMUNITY SERVICE
National headquarters of Community service has done a generous thing for Omaha, which should be appreciated. It has continued its workers here until June 1st, because of the need for such work and because it is believed that the citizens of Omaha will hereafter finance the work. If community work is to continue here among the colored people, it is up to us to support it. To do so will require not less than $500 a month. This means that 25 cents a week from 500 people will finance this splendid work. Surely there are not only 500 but 1,000 who can be counted on to do this much.
A drive is now on to raise funds for the continuance of community service which has big possibilities in training for better citizenship. There are hundreds of our people in Omaha who can give from $5 to $25 each for this uplifting agency, without asking or expecting a single cent from generous hearted white friends. Show your independence, manliness and race-pride by giving towards a generous fund for the support of an agency in which all should be deeply interested.

FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL COUNCIL DIOCESE OF NEBRASKA

The fifty-third annual council of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Nebraska opened with an impressive service and a record-breaking congregation in Trinity Cathedral last Friday morning, and closed with an inspiring missionary mass meeting participated in by all the congregations of Omaha and many from outside points, at Brandeis theatre, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Bishop Shayer's annual address to the council was a masterly analysis of present-day conditions and a clarion call to the flock entrusted to his oversight to measure up to their Christian responsibilities in battling against the forces of unrighteousness entrenched no longer in a world of pagan apathy, but the world of decisive combat. Destructive forces are at work which demand aggressive and militant Christianity. Foundations of home life are threatened. The yellow strand of jealousy, the red strand of lust, the black strands of unbelief are often woven together into the domestic fabric. The ineptitude of children towards religious education and the indifference of parents regarding it present an awful prophetic picture of the future. The holiest things in love and life are reduced to the level of lust and bestiality. A devilish greed is abroad in the land. Brutal forces are dominating. "Might is right" has been accepted in many places as true American doctrine. These are conditions which only an aggressive, virile Christianity can successfully overcome. Sunday's mass meeting was addressed by Bishop Morrison of Iowa who spoke on "Christ For the World," and by Bishop Woodcock of Kentucky who moved, swayed and thrilled his vast audience by one of the most effective speeches delivered in this city on "The World For Christ."

St. Philip's congregation was well represented at all sessions and services of the council. Rev. John Albert Williams as secretary of the diocesan board of missions presented its report to the council, was appointed on the committee on Church Extension and reappointed as one of the examining chaplains of the diocese, a position which he has filled for a number of years.

LOYAL THEATRE OPENS

The Loyal Theatre, on Caldwell street just west of Twenty-fourth street, opened Wednesday night. It can be truly called "The Theatre Beautiful," so artistically has it been decorated. The grand formal opening is to be Saturday. Messrs. Walker and Dorsey, two of our dependable and enterprising business men, the proprietors, are to be congratulated. The Loyal is one of the best equipped movie theatres in Omaha. High class pictures, the same as those shown in the higher priced downtown theatres, will be shown. The Monitor predicts great success for the Loyal.
