REV. J. A. BROADNAX, G. M.

Annual Sermon of F. A. A. and Y. M.

The annual sermon of the Free and Accepted Ancient York Rite Masons, Keystone Lodge No. 12, and Golden Rule Lodge No. 18 will be held at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church, 5233 South Twenty-fifth street, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 20th. All York Mason lodges are invited to participate with us. Meet at Odd Fellow hall, Twenty-fifth and N streets, at 1:30 o'clock sharp to form line of march. Captain Waddles' band will furnish the music.

The public is cordially invited to the ceremonies.

C. J. GOODE,
W. M. S.

SEWARD STREET
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Corner 26th and Seward Sts.
Rev. Russel Taylor, Minister.

Services every Sunday, 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

We are glad to note that more and more interest is being awakened in our cause. The attendance on last Sunday showed some increase. Though not large, it was representative. The pastor is coming in touch every day with Presbyterians, some of whom have temporarily taken up their abode with other churches. The fact that they were not satisfied outside of some church indicates the vitality of their religion. Now that their own church is being organized here, we trust that they may see their way clear to come home.

It was a pleasure to have Mrs. Hutten and her friend, Miss Hunt, with us Sunday evening. Miss Hunt presided very efficiently at the organ and Mrs. Hutten rendered much aid by her beautiful singing.

The subjects for next Sunday are as follows: Morning, "The Fruitless Fig Tree;" Evening, "The Jailer's Question." Come and worship with us.

MASONS AND SOLDIERS
PAY LAST RESPECT TO ERNEST J. ERWIN

The first soldier of Douglas county whose remains were brought from overseas for burial was Ernest J. Erwin, whose funeral services were held at Bethel Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. All the York Rite Masons turned out in full uniform to assist in giving suitable tribute to Mr. Erwin's memory who was an active member of the lodge. The soldiers were present also to join in the services of respect to their comrade in arms.

EX-SERVICE MEN BECOME SATIRICAL WITH CONGRESSMEN

Some Iowa ex-service men have drafted a satirical bonus bill for congressmen who are against the bonus plan. The bill limits congressional pay to $30 a month, for the time on duty, less allotments, insurance, payments on Liberty bonds and court-martial fines. Issue clothing is to be allowed the members, although it must be ill-fitting and renewable at rare intervals. Rations at 52 cents a day will be allowed, and one-tenth ounce of Bull Durham daily. Travel in third-class coaches or box cars is provided, and each man will be in his seat at the capitol at 7 a. m. Kitchen police and fatigue details will be provided from the rank and file of membership. After enacting this bill, the congressmen are invited to kill the soldiers' bonus.

NEWS OF TROOP 23, BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scout movement is growing in favor in Omaha. Troop 23, Andrew T. Reed, scoutmaster, meets every Friday night at the Community Center. As the troop is an unusually large one permission has been granted for a second assistant scoutmaster. Sabert Hanger was elected to this position last Friday night.

Victor Williams spent Saturday, May 29, at Camp Gifford where he attended a scoutmaster and assistant scoutmasters' meeting. Standardized scout tests were given and Mr. Williams ranked with other scoutmasters who have been in service for a longer time.

Troop 23 is training for the efficiency contest.

Mr. Leon T. Freeman and infant son of Indianapolis are the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClure. Mr. Freeman has accepted a position here and will make Omaha his future home.

For Monitor office call Doug. 3224.

WILL GIVE RECEPTION FOR GRADUATES

Mrs. Ruth Wallace will give a reception at her residence, 2204 North Twenty-eighth street, Saturday evening, June 19, in honor of this year's graduates from Central, Commercial and South High schools. The parents and friends of the graduates are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Wallace will be assisted by the Camp Fire girls and Phi Delta sorority.

MUSICAL RECITAL

Mrs. Florentine Pinkston is giving a recital demonstration at Columbia hall Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5. In addition to the recital there will be a contest among the advanced pupils—Frances Gordon, Lucy Allen and James Jewell are among the intermediate pupils Grace Adams, Lula Johnson, Nathalie Brown and Elaine Smith. All are invited; no admission charged.

HALT!

After a March of Fifteen Years We Come to a Glorious STOP

At SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

June 16-21, 1920

With the Fifteenth Annual Session of the

Sunday School Congress

The Sunday School workers of this country have exerted every effort to make the first invasion of the North a decided success. Every Sunday school should be represented. Where it is found impossible to send a messenger, send in your enrollment blank, thereby identifying your school with the greatest Christian work of the present age.

"Front Line Sunday Schools and How to Build Them"

is an emblem that the CONGRESS has successfully solved. Send for an enrollment blank now. Fill out and return to the CONGRESS Secretary on or before June 10th. Remember this CONGRESS will be ably represented at the World's Sunday School Convention in Tokyo, Japan, in October, 1920, by the CONGRESS Secretary.

ALL RAILROADS

Have granted an excursion rate of one and a third fare for the round trip on the Certificate Plan. Every representative should ask his ticket agent for a certificate or a receipt when purchasing tickets going to the Congress. The Congress Secretary will sign the same. Present this signed receipt to the agent at Springfield and you will only have to pay one-third fare for the return trip. Tickets on sale June 12-18, good to return June 24th. In writing for blanks and other information, please enclose 5 cents for post-haste service. Send all communications to the

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONGRESS, Henry Allen Boyd, Sec.
