RECITAL BY MRS.

PINKSTON'S PUPILS

On Saturday afternoon, June 12th, the pupils of Mrs. Florentine Francis Pinkston were presented in her fourth demonstration at Columbia Hall. From the opening number, a duet by Porter, rendered by Mrs. Lola Marshall and teacher to the end of a carefully arranged program, the pupils showed the result of careful training and faithful practice. The pupils showed marked improvement and advancement since the last recital.

A feature of the afternoon was a contest after the regular program. This was new and interesting. The contestants were five from the Intermediate grades, namely, Elaine Smith, Lyla Johnson, Grace Adams, Aline Burnett and Nathalie Brown. The number chosen for this contest was Burgmuller, Op. 109 No. 17, La Marche. All played exceedingly well, and it was hard for the judges to decide. After some discussion they gave Grace Adams honorable mention and awarded the first prize, $5 in gold, to Lila Johnson.

The second contest was of pupils of the advanced grade, Lucy Allen, James Jewell and Francis Gordon. The judges had to split the prize of $20 in this contest. Each contestant played two numbers, viz., Burgmuller, Op. 109 No. 13, (a) The Storm, and Schanoenka Op. 3, No. 1, (b) Polish Dance. All played exceptionally well, but the judges decided to split the prize of $20 in gold. All decided that the interpretation rhythm and rendition of "The Storm," by James Jewell, was the best, and $10 in gold was given to him.

Lucy Allen was awarded second prize, $10 in gold, for the most excellent interpretation and rendition of "Polish Dance."

Another honor came to Master James Jewell last week. Pupils of the Central High school are given a half point for music taken outside of the school. He was one of three boys to take the examination at the school, and stood highest in musical talent and musicianship. The card showing his standing and work with Mrs. Pinkston was a surprise to those conducting the examination.

A one-year scholarship is given to Dorothy Allen and Sarah Jane Brown for musicianship, studiousness and talent by their teacher.

We congratulate both the teacher and the pupils and feel assured that the musical tone of Omaha will be raised to a higher and higher plane and the community correspondingly uplifted.

ACTIVE IN HOME-BUYING.
(By Associated Negro Press.)

Tampa, Fla., June 17.—Our people are buying homes in this city and locality in large number. The movement began about a year ago and now hundreds of colored men are buying homes, many of which are good examples of architecture and are tastefully decorated in the modern manner. They are being encouraged by their white neighbors.
