ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Pastor

The fourth quarterly conference held last Sunday showed an increase along all lines. The Rev. W. S. Metcalfe preached at 3 o'clock to the satisfaction of all present. The Rev. Mr. Housley, in the pastor's absence, was in charge and did his duties well. The collection for the day was $45. The stewards collected for the quarter $366 and paid traveling ministers $158.89, a total of $438.76. Raised by the trustees $590.95. Total for the quarter $1,028.41. The pastor will preach at all services Sunday.

BAPTISTS HOLD UNION PICNIC

The Baptist churches of Omaha held a union picnic last Thursday at Riverview Park. Several special cars conveyed the picnickers to the ground. From the abundance of good things to eat, it was quite evident that H. C. L. had no terrors for those who provided baskets and spent a delightful day.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

The Sunday school of the Presbyterian church is growing nicely both in attendance and interest. It was indeed gratifying to see each teacher at his post and the classes in session.

Mr. R. A. McEachron, a member of the community church extension of Omaha Presbytery was present and expressed himself gratified with the progress of the work.

N. A. A. C. P. TO MEET SUNDAY

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT EVERY AGE
"NELO" HAIR REQUISITE assures it. Rob the hair of its lustre and you rob it of half its beauty, its suppleness and its strength. When the natural oil which protects it is deficient, it must be supplemented, otherwise the hair will become dull, dry and brittle; it will split at the ends and prematurely fall out.
