

DEAN OF WASHINGTON LAWYERS GIVES ADVICE

(Special to The Monitor by Walter J. Singleton.)

Washington, Sept. 16.—Judge John A. Moss of Anacostia, D. C., dean of the colored lawyers practicing at the bar of the District of Columbia, and former justice of the peace, offers to the reading public some wholesome advice to the voters of the country.

The day will surely come in the history of this country when the color of a voter's skin will cease to be an index to his politics, and when the mere nomination of a candidate on a false self-styled democratic ticket will no longer be equivalent to an election. I also say that when the political mouths of such men as Cole Bleas of South Carolina, Vardaman of Mississippi and Frank Clark of Florida are closed, and the people of this country decide to follow the leadership of such men as the late Thomas Jefferson, Grover Cleveland, William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt, and many others that I could mention, then, and not until then, can we expect to enjoy a perfect democratic form of government. We only ask justice and the rights guaranteed by the constitution of the United States. I insist that men, women and children who are lynched and murdered in cold blood without the slightest opportunity to say, "I am not guilty," must be stopped. These horrible offenses are encouraged or at least winked at by the foremost men of a certain section of the United States who claim that they represent the purest democracy on the western continent.

We are all watchfully waiting and hoping to hear the death knell of such democracy resounded throughout America next November. Why should there be such a condition existing in this country as a solid South? What does it mean in good pure English? A different form of government to that of the North, East and West in the United States?

I think I can see darkly, as through a glass, that when the people of the country realize the fallacy of a so-called solid democratic South, there will be a beneficial breaking up of the present political situation in that section of the most beautiful portion of our common country, and there establish that grand old Lincoln-Jefferson American democracy. Then and not until then can we boast of being the freest and most magnanimous people on the civilized earth.

I am looking forward to see the day come when there will be no North, no South, no East and no West, when every American citizen can feel safe in the enjoyment of every right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States. Away with such a democracy as we have been living under and passively enduring for the past eight years. Let the women and men of the East, North, South and West vote early and late for Warren G. Harding for president next November.

Mrs. Mitchell Returns With Many Negatives of Native Scenes and People of Mystic Lands.

(By the Fortune Syndicate.)

New York, Sept. 16.—Mrs. Elizabeth Mitchell, musical director during the past ten years at the West Virginia Collegiate Institute, at Institute, who went to northern Africa and southern Europe last June, for the purpose of securing negatives in travelogue form, returned to this country on the White Star liner Cedric, landing in Boston Tuesday of last week, where she was met by her husband, C. E. Mitchell, president of the Mutual Savings and Loan Company of Charleston and the financial agent of the West Virginia Collegiate Institute. They came immediately to New York, remained two days, and went direct to Institute, where Mrs. Mitchell will rest and recuperate.

During her sojourn in northern Africa and southern Europe, Mrs. Mitchell secured four thousand feet of films, which will be converted into "movie" purposes at once. When it is ready a presentation of the travelogue will be privately made in New York, at which newspaper and theatrical managers will be invited to view it.

Headquarters of the Mitchell Travelogue Company have been established in New York, at 2293 Seventh Avenue, with T. Thomas Fortune as manager.

Truth About Haiti

James Weldon Johnson, in the Nation and the Crisis, is telling the American people the truth about Haiti. He is not talking from hearsay, but from personal and scrutinizing observation. The power of truth is no less today than yesterday. The truth will make Haiti free. However, the truth about the manner in which the present democratic administration, under Woodrow Wilson, has debauched the rights, will, freedom and morality of that little nation forms a page in history as black as night.

Mr. Johnson is not a vindictive writer. He does not say mean and terrible things simply for the purpose of making anger or stirring up strife. He has an established ability, nevertheless, of making facts plain, and showing them up in their true light. The manner in which he shows up conditions in Haiti, if there were no lynching and other evils in America going at the present time at the rate of almost two a day, would be enough to ring a stinging protest against those who have been responsible of raping this republic of its glorious rights.

The present administration has most beautifully elucidated on the "rights of weaker peoples," but Haiti would make the savages blush for shame, and labels the propounders of so-called justice as the rankest kind of hypocrites and tyrants.

PROMINENT MINISTER ANSWERS SUMMONS

(By Associated Negro Press.) Asheville, N. C., Sept. 16.—Rev. Chas. B. Dusenbury, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church, principal of the Calvary school, and one of the most prominent Negro educators and leaders in the state, died here following a short illness.

He had served the church and school for almost twenty-nine years, being the founder of both institutions, which have a great influence among Asheville's colored population. He was a graduate from both the college and seminary of Lincoln University, and came into the local field when no other prominent church or educational institution was here.
