

NOTRE DAME SWAMPS UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Score Decisive in Thrilling Game— Catholics Superior in All Departments—Ten Thousand Witness Battle.

Ten thousand football enthusiasts witnessed one of the most thrilling contests ever staged with the pigskin on an American gridiron Saturday on the University football field of this city. The stands were filled to capacity long before the game was called. The game was a tie play-off resulting from the games played by both teams since 1915, each side holding two wins.

The Irish eleven took home with them the scalp of the Cornhuskers in the unquestionable shape of a 16 to 7 victory. From the start there was little or no doubt about the final result. The Catholics were superior in every department of the game. The Nebraskans realized that the Catholics had a better team and were willing to acknowledge their prowess. It was no reflection on the Huskers to be defeated by their formidable opponents.

Nebraska has five big games remaining on the schedule. These contests are Washington State, Rutgers, Penn State, Michigan Aggies and Kansas. Holding the Rockne eleven to a 16-7 score has inspired confidence in Coach Schulte and his men and the team feels optimistic towards the remaining games on the schedule.

This week the Huskers are slated to battle with the South Dakota University team. The Coyotes from the northern state have been hitting it along at a good clip this season and may cause the Scarlet and Cream some trouble, although a Husker victory is apparently certain. Two years ago South Dakota held Nebraska to a 0-0 tie.

The Cornhuskers came through the Notre Dame battle in good shape. Hukba, who smashed through the Irish defense for a touchdown, is getting back to his old time form. Dana, Nebraska end, who was unable to get into the game last Saturday because of injuries, should be in the lineup against the Coyotes. Swanson and Pucik were bruised up, though all right.

HOWARD VICTORIOUS

First Game of the Season

With less than fifteen days of actual practice and handicapped by being in the act of changing from the old to the new system of football, Howard university again proved her supremacy by defeating Virginia Theological seminary, 14 to 0. During the first four minutes of the game, the Virginians were swamped and before they recovered, Payne, Howard's plucky fullback, had crossed the goal for a touchdown. This provoked the visitors. Time after time, they attempted to force their way down the field, but not once did they enter the danger zone. Both teams failed in several attempts to make a forward pass.

About the middle of the third quarter, the Virginians failed to make a clean kick and Howard gained the ball behind her goal line, thus making the second and last touchdown. Once again in the last quarter, Howard threatened to score, but was penalized for "off side," failed to make gain and gave the ball over to her opponents. The Virginians became spirited toward the end. Her team showed new strength. At this critical moment, Howard was all powerful as the whistle called the contest to its close.

As a whole the game showed that both teams were in a stage of rigorous development. Howard proved herself the team with the greatest possibilities and able to contest every step that leads to bigger games against stronger teams.

The following is the schedule of the games to be played by the Howard eleven during the football season of 1920:

- Saturday, Oct. 23—At Petersburg Va. with Virginia Normal Industrial Inst.
- Saturday, Oct. 20—At Washington, with West Virginia Collegiate Inst.
- Saturday, Nov. 6—At Richmond, Va., with Virginia Union University.
- Saturday, Nov. 13—At Washington, with Hampton Institute.
- Thanksgiving Day—At Washington with Lincoln University.

CHARGES BRITISH WITH MISTREATMENT

LONDON, Oct. 21.—An indictment of British treatment of Negroes in British East Africa is made by Sir H. H. Johnston, writing in the Observer.

"Many of the assertions made before the Negro conference in New York," he says, "were wild and windy, but it behooves our colonial office to see plain justice done to the 4,000,000 of black and brown people in this 'colony' and 'protectorate.'" Numerous instances of bullying, flogging and torture are cited by the writer.

"The natives," he says, "are slowing coalescing, Bantu with Nilot, Mohammedan with Christian and Pagan, Somali and Galla with hitherto despised Negro in their common hatred of the invading white man, owing to the exceptional cruelties which have been committed, but, when the white delinquents are brought up for trial white judges inflict trivial penalties, or rebellious public opinion forces a governor to revise a sentence. I doubt if capital punishment for murder has ever been imposed on a white man in East Africa.

"Again, in the great war, thousands of native porters were compulsory enrolled by our government or by the military authorities in the unhappily-styled 'protectorate' and the arrangements for their commissariat, their medical treatment, their lodging and clothing have been miserably inadequate, with the result that some 23,000

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21.—Colored people in Columbus are making greater strides in establishing business enterprises and buying homes than any other city in the state. A $50,000 theatre, and a $40,000 hospital, built by colored capital, and operated by colored men, are among the achievements.
