ATTENDS SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING

Important Amendments Made in Diocesan Canons at Meeting Held in Lincoln.

Rev. John Albert Williams was in Lincoln Wednesday attending the special Council of the Diocese of Nebraska, which was held in Holy Trinity church. Several important amendments to the constitution and canons of the diocese were passed. Among the important changes made were fixing the date of the annual council the third Wednesday in January instead of the third Wednesday in May; appointing an executive council upon which is placed an important responsibility in the administration of diocesan business, and increasing the lay representation from missions to the annual council from one to two.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our neighbors, the Western Star No. 1 K. of P. lodge, friends and all for kindness shown us in our recent bereavement in the death of our beloved one, Mr. Edward Hemmings. Also for the beautiful floral designs.—Mrs. H. M. Hemmings, Wife; Mrs. H. M. Wright, Mother, and All Relatives.

CAMP FIRE

Group Ocoawasin met Friday at Twenty-fourth and Lake streets for a hike to Florence. On account of the rain they got as far as Fort Omaha, where they took a car and went to their guardian's home, Mrs. Larry Peoples, to cook their supper.

PHI DELTA GIRLS

The Phi Delta girls met Wednesday evening at the homes of the Misses Ethel and Teresa Jones. After a short business meeting, at which time Margaret LaCour was appointed social secretary, politics was discussed pro and con. At 11 o'clock the girls sat down to a delightful luncheon. Red and white carnations formed the centerpiece of the table.

RECOVERING FROM INJURY

Cyrus D. Bell, one of Omaha's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, who was injured a fortnight ago at Twenty-sixth and Farnam streets by being knocked down by an automobile, is recovering rapidly from his injuries.

PROMINENT SURGEON AN OMAHA VISITOR

Last week Dr. J. M. Robinson of Little Rock, Ark., chief surgeon of Rush Memorial hospital of that city, was a welcome Omaha visitor. Dr. Robinson, who is recognized as one of the leading physicians and surgeons of the South, was the guest of his brother, James A. Robinson, 3308 Blondo street, whom he had not seen for a number of years. He also visited Dr. R. C. Riddle, who was his understudy before Riddle entered the government service in 1918.

Dr. Robinson, who has been a subscriber to and an admirer of The Monitor for several years, having become acquainted with the publication through Mr. Fred C. Williams, who a few years ago made a successful southern trip as The Monitor's representative, took advantage of his visit to our city to become personally acquainted with The Monitor Staff by visiting the office and looking us over. It is hoped that he will come again.

BUILD FOR HER

DOINGS ABOUT THE TRIANGLE

The drive is on. More than 150 enthusiastic citizens met in the new branch headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. Monday night to get and give new inspiration and vigor to the budget campaign. Original yells were sent up and grim determination seized every enthusiast in the building. This was the first meeting of the team cap-tended the president, E. W. Pryor, for his efficient work. Commendation was also given other officers.

The annual election of the board of directors will be held Friday, November 26. The polls will be open at the rooms from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. All members whose dues have been paid and are therefore in good standing have the privilege of electing the board of directors.

November 18 a reception will be held at the club rooms for club members and their wives. The bachelors are expected to bring their best girl.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Do you want an automobile? Then look for The Monitor's offer next week. Just to give you a hint: The Monitor will give a high-class car to any individual, church, lodge, society or other organization which will secure at least 1,000 new cash yearly subscribers within four months. Contest will begin December 1 and close April 1. Watch for our advertisement and line up your friends in and out of town so that you may get this car. It will be a beauty.

OMAHA BRANCH N. A. A. C. P. WILL ELECT OFFICERS SUNDAY

The N. A. A. C. P. met at Pilgrim Baptist church, Twenty-fifth and Hamilton streets, last Sunday night and listened to a special sermon by the Rev. Wm. Clark of Newport, Ark. An appeal was made for the defense fund for the men who are under sentence of death for the Elaine, Ark., "race riot" and whose cases have been appealed to the supreme court. In the case of six the sentence was revoked. In the case of six others the sentence was confirmed, but has been carried up to the United States supreme court.

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp the association will meet in the same church for the annual election of officers. The secretary and treasurer will make their reports for the year. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

BISHOP SHAYLER PREACHES AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH

Last Sunday night the Rt. Rev. Ernest Vincent Shayler, D. D., bishop of Nebraska, preached at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon to a good sized congregation. It was an inspirational, doctrinal sermon on "The Being and Goodness of God" so simply and plainly put that even a child could grasp the lesson so effectively taught.

Sunday morning, despite the unpleasant weather, there was a good congregation present. The music of the Eucharistic service was beautifully rendered by the choir and the vicar preached from the Epistle for the day on "Heavenly Citizenship." The usual services next Sunday at 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

MOVIE STAR VISITS OMAHA FRIENDS

Clarence Brooks of Los Angeles, Cal., movie star in "Every Man's Duty" and other Lincoln Motion Picture company releases, arrived in the city Friday, en route west, and spent a few days visiting friends. While here he was the guest of George P. Johnson. Mr. Brooks left Tuesday night for St. Louis, Mo.

A TRIUMPH OF THE SCREEN

Colored Photoplay Makes Hit With Omaha Movie Goers—Thousands Witness Play and Were Satisfied.

Thousands of Omaha's movie fans were treated to Micheaux's new screen production, staged by an exclusive colored cast, in three runs at the Diamond theatre, Twenty-fourth and Lake streets, ending November 5. The play, featuring the "Brute," was clean, sensational and interesting in every act. The scenery in which the play was staged was especially attractive. Those who witnessed it were imbued with a higher sense of respect for our players as presented on the average screen. The scene was in a very attractive and fashionable home with such furnishings and surroundings as would make no one ashamed. As a rule when members of our group are put on the screen they are there as the "smut faces" or "back-yarders" or some character that is merely "funny" and not at all enlightening.

Not so with this play. This production was entirely free from all objectionable scenes and presented a wonderful story of a beautiful and tender girl in the toll of a shrewd gambler and boss of the underworld, whose creed is: "To make a woman love you, knock her down."

Miss Evelyn Preer divided honors with the world-renowned Sam Langford, who was introduced to the screen in a wonderfully realistic pietization of one of his many fistic battles. Every red-blooded man, woman and child was intensely interested and highly pleased with this sensational photoplay and expressed their appreciation for this effort put forth by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pedersen, proprietors of this playhouse.

TURNER COLLEGE MOVES TO MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 11.—A few days ago in a meeting of the trustees of the Turner College, which is located at Shelbyville, Tenn., it was proposed to move the institution to Memphis. The vote was unanimous. A location here in the city has already been selected and a payment has been made. The place is a beautiful one in South Memphis. It has on it now several buildings that can well be used for school work.

Fur Collar Coats

For Women and Misses

$14.95

This assortment of new winter coats with fur collars will appeal strongly to all women. They are made in the late loose and belted effects, of a splendid quality of velour in all the season's newest colors.

The collars, of soft coney fur, add to the attractiveness, and are so comfortable on a cold snappy day, as they can be turned up around the throat and ears.

This is a special purchase—otherwise not even Burgess-Nash could give such exceptional values.
