Last year we collected enough money from the churches to care for the home until spring. We hope we will do as well this year. We hope everybody who worships at the various churches Sunday will remember those who are depending on you for their living, and as God has prospered you during the year, you will also remember the home. The committees at the churches are as follows:

MRS. JESSIE HALE-MOSS SUDDENLY SUMMONED

Community Shocked by the Unexpected Death of President of Local Branch of N. A. A. C. P. and Active Worker in Church, Charity and Civic Affairs.

OMAHA WAS SHOCKED SUNDAY

morning by the news of the death of Mrs. Jessie Hale-Moss, wife of James W. Moss, and president of the Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P. Mrs. Moss became ill Wednesday while down town and was taken to her home, 2881 Miami street. Dr. J. H. Tutten was called and diagnosed her case as an acute intestinal trouble which would necessitate an operation and urged her going to a hospital. Thursday she seemed better and there was hesitation in carrying out the physician's instructions. Saturday she was taken to Nicholas Senn hospital, but was too weak to undergo the operation. Early Sunday morning she died.

Mrs. Moss at the time of her death had just completed one year as president of the Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P., of which organization she had previously served a year as secretary. She represented the association at the national meeting in Cleveland in June of last year and at Atlanta this year. She was a prominent member of St. John's A. M. E. church, taking a leading part in all of its activities. She served as an assistant at the Lake Street War Camp Community Center for some months. She was an active worker in the Y. W. C. A., being leader of the religious work. She was secretary of the Douglas County Colored Women's Republican club and was interested in juvenile welfare work. She was also associate editor of the New Era.

Jessie Hale-Moss was a daughter of J. Claudius and Caroline Hale of Middleport, O., where she was born May 26, 1875. She was graduated from Middleport High and Normal Training school, and taught school for nineteen years. Mr. and Mrs. Moss came to Omaha about seven years ago and she became actively identified with the social and religious life of the city. Mrs. Moss is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Caroline Hale; a sister, Mrs. John D. Wright of Omaha; two brothers, Frank Hale of Omaha and George Hale of Akron, O., and other relatives.

The funeral was held from St. John's A. M. E. church today at 1 o'clock, the Rev. W. C. Williams officiating. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery.

In memory of our dear Mother, who passed away November 17, 1903

Rest in Jesus, dear Mother; Forget you we never will. We always did truly love you. And will always love you still. We did all that was in our power, yet in vain. You were called away, but some day our loved ones we shall see.

DOINGS ABOUT THE TRIANGLE

The Y. W. C. A. budget campaign is approaching a successful end. At Thursday's report $40,000 had been raised, leaving $30,000 still to be subscribed. The colored people have subscribed and paid to date $2,270.04, $1,001.60 of which was reported in Monday's meeting. This is a fine showing, fellow citizens, but we have a good way to go yet, and a short time in which to work. Let every man and woman in this city make a contribution to this cause which they know will be a real sacrifice. Give until we feel it and then give. The voice of the young womanhood of this city and of those who will come here in the future cries at our gate now for Christian shelter, protection and recreation such as this institution plans to give them. Can we turn a deaf ear to that cry? The Good Book says, "He that provideth not for his own, even those of his own household, is worse than an infidel." Our young womanhood is in our custody and are our own household. In supporting this project we will not only be doing our duty, but will be building for ourselves a monument which will bless our posterity.

The working camp was deeply affected by the death of Mrs. Moss, who was chairman of the religious committee, one of the majors in the drive and one of the most faithful workers. All are deeply grieved at her loss.

In view of several requests coming from subscribers to be allowed to double their subscriptions and many others who have not yet given, the authorities have extended the campaign through Friday, the 19th.
