"THE SMARTER SET"

"Bamboula," a sensational musical comedy produced by America's greatest and best colored organization, "The Smarter Set," headed by the foremost comedians, Salem Tutt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt, comes to the Brandeis theatre for four days starting Thursday, December 30. It is full of song hits, with a pleasant swing, groups of graceful dancers, clever comedians and the famous "bronze chorus," stunningly and beautifully gowned. "The Smarter Set" has created a sensation everywhere it has appeared, and the management has surrounded Whitney and Tutt with a remarkable "Smarter Set" cast, among whom are Emma Jackson, Tiny Wilson, Edna Gibbs, Grace Howell, Teresa West, Maud Lawson, Alonzo Fenderson, Marcus Slayter, Nate Cash, Julian Gostello, Alex White and Leon Walls. Whitney and Tutt bear the burden of the play as fun-makers, and it is said that they are as funny as it is possible for naturally comical colored folk to be.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF AWARD OF PRIZES IN MONITOR'S INTELLIGENCE CONTEST

Questions and answers will appear in next week's issue of this paper. Only two prizes won, as follows: First prize, $5.00, Mr. E. Lewis Kelly, 135 State street, Auburn, N. Y. Second prize, $3.00, Mr. Thomas Reese, 2723 Miami street, Omaha.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY

AN OMAHA VISITOR
William T. Francis, one of St. Paul's most prominent attorneys and influential citizens, arrived in Omaha Thursday morning on important legal business. Mr. Francis put in two strenuous days while here, leaving for home Friday night in order to spend Christmas with his family. He was most favorably impressed with Omaha. The Kaffir Chemical Laboratories, which he visited and inspected, elicited his warmest commendation. So well pleased was he with this unique business venture that he volunteered to present its merits to some of his business friends in the Twin Cities. He was gratified, too, with the fine grocery and meat store of the Co-operative Workers of America, which he also visited. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pinkett.

SOUTH SIDE LOCALS

MISS TUCKER, Reporter.

ST. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN

The organization service, in which the temporary name of Seward Street Presbyterian church was changed to the official name noted in the heading of this article, was well attended and much interest was manifested by all present.

Sickness and other causes prevented eleven of the twenty-seven signers of the petition for the organization being present. These, however, will be considered charter members of the organization, as will also any others who join with us before the church is enrolled in Presbytery, which will be about two weeks hence.

The sermon by Rev. J. W. Pressly from Matt. x:32 was exceptionally strong and convincing and its impression upon the attentive audience was very manifest.

The double quartet choir sang quite well. The solo work of Mrs. Hutten, Mrs. Shackleford and Miss Ruth Alexander deserves special commendation.

Ruling Elder R. A. McEckron of the North Presbyterian church and a member of the commission of organization, was present and gave a very encouraging talk congratulating the newly organized church.

It being impossible for Dr. Hutten to be present, his ordination and installation as ruling elder will take place at another time.

Sermon topics next Sunday will be as follows: "A Call to Service," 11 a. m.; "Those Whom Jesus Loved," 7:30 p. m.

RUSSEL TAYLOR, Reporter.

PHI DELTA

The Phi Delta Girls held their annual Christmas affair in the form of a formal dancing party this year instead of the Christmas eve party, at the home of Mrs. Wade Hampton Green, 2863 Ohio street. Twenty-five couples of the young set were present.

CAMP FIRE

Camp Fire girls will hold all future meetings at the Y. W. C. A. Friday afternoons at 3:30 o'clock.

CONCERT COMPANIES IN CITY

The Macon Jubilee Singers of Chicago spent the holidays in the city. They were en route to Sioux City, Ia., where they have an engagement for this week. While in the city they stopped at the Patton hotel.

The Harold Jubilee Singers of New York arrived in the city last Friday afternoon eastward bound on their concert tour. They sang at the United Presbyterian church Sunday night and gave a fine concert at Zion Baptist church Tuesday night. Archie Harold is director. Miss Shaw of Portland and Miss Walton of Nashville are other members of the company. They stopped at the Patton hotel.

Harry Bolden of Concord is appearing at the Gayety this week in the "Follies of the Day." He is a guest of the Patton hotel.

ST. BENEDICT'S NEWS
