LINCOLN NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson of Fairbury, Neb., spent several days in the city last week. She was initiated into Amaranth chapter No. 54, O. E. S., and also into Court of Isis No. 43. Mrs. Wilkinson was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Smith.

R. C. Poole left Monday for a trip to points in California to spend the winter.

A. B. Mosley spent the Christmas holidays with his mother and brother at Atchison, Kans.

R. L. Lewis of Omaha spent Sunday and Monday here with friends.

L. B. McGee is confined again with serious illness.

Tommy Coleman is able to be out again after some confinement with tonsillitis.

Dr. W. F. Botts and Mrs. Botts came over from Omaha Monday night, took supper with their brother and children, returning on the midnight train.

The executive board of the Nebraska Negro Baptist association will convene in Lincoln next Tuesday, January 4, at 10 a. m. at Mt. Zion Baptist church. The session will last during the one day only.

Union services were held at Mt. Zion on Christmas morning. Rev. W. E. McAllister of the Newman M. E. church spoke the message, which was greatly received by the fair crowd in attendance.

Rev. H. W. Botts entertained a number of friends at dinner Monday evening in honor of his brother, Dr. W. F. Botts and Mrs. Botts of Omaha. An elaborate collation was served in four courses, which was enjoyed immensely by the guests. The evening was spent in conversation. Dr. Botts and wife expressed themselves as being highly pleased in meeting these good people, saying we have had a very good time.

The services at Mt. Zion were enjoyable last Sunday. The day was cold and dreary. However, the faithful few came up to the house of worship. The pastor delivered the messages in his usual manner. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. services were well carried out. Come to the watch meeting Friday night.

Mrs. C. C. Stith and family of Horton, Kans., have joined Mr. Stith here to reside in the future.

The children of Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday school rendered a neat program Christmas eve, which was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. L. B. Moore had charge of them. Many presents were given out and many were made glad.

P. S. Williams is spending the Christmas holidays with his wife and her folks at Kansas City, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wright gave a family dinner on Christmas day.

HARLEM STOCK EXCHANGE PREPARES FOR BUSINESS

(By the Associated Negro Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A project is on foot to open a stock exchange in Harlem for the trading in securities of corporations owned and managed by Negroes. The proposed name is the Harlem Stock Exchange. The sponsors of the proposed institution are said to be negotiating for a building at Seventh avenue and 138th street. The plan calls for the issuance of $100,000 stock in the corporation managing the exchange—$25,000 common and $75,000 preferred. The par value will be $5.00 a share. There are said to be more than 100 corporations in New York owned by and selling securities to Negroes. Banks, real estate companies and other businesses are included.
