Mr. E. L. Reid, Omaha's most efficient head waiter, expressed his complete satisfaction with the waiters and other employees sent him from this association.

Mr. J. W. Woods of the Lincoln association sends this message to the Omaha association: "Don't throw away your gun because you have driven the 'bear' away; keep it loaded and handy, the 'bear' may return."

Mr. E. A. Lytle, assistant secretary of the W. P. E. A., will call on each member of this association to offer them the benefit of a bonifide A-1 insurance, such as one brother would offer to another.

Waiters, friends and others are reminded to be present at 2635 Parker street at 8:45 January 15, 1921.

Waiters, cooks, porters and others would do well to watch this bulletin.

DOINGS OF SMARTER SET CLUB

The Smarter Set club held its last business meeting of the year at the Y. W. C. A., Twenty-second and Grant streets, Saturday afternoon, December 18. At this meeting club colors—orange and blue—were chosen.

Miss Gladys Brown entertained at a slumber party New Year's eve at her home, 2883 Miami street. The club had breakfast at South & Thompson's cafe. New Year's night the club attended the performance of the "Smarter Set" at the Brondels theatre.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

The annual festival for the children was held in the Guild rooms on the Feast of the Holy Innocents, December 28. The children and their parents had a delightful time.

The annual parish meeting, postponed from last Monday night, will be held next Monday night in the Guild rooms at 8 o'clock. Reports for the year will be read, officers elected and other important business transacted. All members and worshippers are requested to be present.

The services Sunday will be at the usual hour, with this addition: At 4 o'clock the children's special service will be held, with music by the junior choir.

THE SMARTER SET

IN "BAMBOULA"
The Smarter Set, headed by Whitney and Tutt, presenting "Bamboula," a jazzy operetta, was greeted by large and appreciative audiences at the Brondels theatre last week. Beautiful scenery, exquisite costumes, scrupulously neat, fresh and clean, added attractiveness to a program of wit, classy musical hits and artistic dancing. From an artistic point of view "Bamboula" was not up to the standard of other attractions which this talented company has presented.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Salem Tutt Whitney and Mr. Tutt were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Wells Parker. It will be recalled that the Smarter Set presented last year "The Children of the Sun," based upon Mr. Parker's work of that name. The talented author and these talented actors are warm personal friends. It may please Omahans to know that Mr. Parker's opinion is sought and welcomed by the Whitney-Tutt organization in the preparation of their plays.

TRANSFERS TO COUNTY

ASSESSOR'S OFFICE
John A. Smith, who has been a clerk in the county clerk's office under Frank Dewey for several years, has resigned to take a clerkship in the office of Harry G. Counsman, county assessor. Mr. Smith entered upon his new position this morning. Mr. Dewey has always spoken of Mr. Smith in the highest terms as being one of the most competent employees in his office.

SEEKING JOB AT LEGISLATURE

J. C. St. Clair is in Lincoln seeking a position in the legislature. M. F. Singleton, president of the Douglas Republican league, sent telegrams Wednesday to Senator Saunders and Representative Berka of Douglas county urging the finding of a place for Mr. St. Clair.

STOCKHOLDERS HOLD

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

The first annual stockholders' meeting of the Kaffir Chemical Laboratories was held at the Kaffir building Monday morning, January 3, at ten o'clock. All the stockholders had been officially notified by the required written notice and nearly all were represented either in person or by proxy. Madree Penn, the president, presided. The financial report for the year was read by the secretary-treasurer. The report showed steady growth and progress in the company's business. The year's receipts were over $17,000 and expenditures $16,000. The assets total $74,000. The former directors were unanimously re-elected. They are Madree Penn, Grace M. Jones of Braxton, Miss.; Dr. Asa E. Fletcher. Larry N. Peoples, Fred C. Williams and Rev. John Albert Williams. Three vacancies on the board remain to be filled.

Several of the stockholders expressed confidence in the management and at the request of the president made certain suggestions that they felt might further the interest of the company.

At the meeting of the board of directors the following officers were chosen: Madree Penn, president; L. N. Peoples, secretary; Rev. John Albert Williams, general manager; Dr. A. E. Fletcher, production manager.

ATTORNEY FILES SUIT AGAINST MINISTER

The Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor of St. John's A. M. E. Church, is charged by H. J. Pinkett With Crookedness in Factory Deal.

AN ACCOUNTING IS DEMANDED

Attorney Alges That His Pastor Has Taken One-Half Interest in Factory Built by Church Funds, but Entitled Only to One-Eighth Interest.

Something of a sensation has been sprung here by the filing of a suit in the district court Monday against the Rev. William C. Williams, pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church, by Harrison J. Pinkett, an attorney, member of the congregation, and until recently a member of the official board of the church, charging the pastor with the diversion of church funds to his own personal use.

The petition alleges in substance that the church voted the sum of $6,000 to the Rev. Mr. Williams which was to be used by him in purchasing a site and erecting a factory which would give employment to girls and women. That the lots were purchased in the minister's name, not in the name of the congregation, and that about the time the factory was completed, the plaintiff alleges that Rev. Mr. Williams turned over to the church a warranty deed for a half interest in the property, whereas, it is asserted, he should have turned over seven-eighths of the plant, inasmuch as the defendant invested only $750 of his own money in the project, which was $50 less than the $800 he (Williams) received as his commission "as contractor and superintendent of the building."

Pinkett demands an accounting from the Rev. Mr. Williams as to the disposition of funds entrusted to him by the church for investment.

The factory is located at Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets and is leased by the M. E. Smith company.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Cornelia Ann Hoag, who died December 30, 1920, was held at Silas Johnson's chapel Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Mr. Botts officiating. The deceased had been a resident of Omaha seventeen years, and at the time of her death resided at 1915 Izard street. The beautiful solo, "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep" was sung by Mrs. Addie Bell-Baron. Interment was in Forest Lawn. She leaves a husband, Horace Hoag; a son, George Johnson, and a sister, Diania Johnson, and other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the many friends who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our beloved wife, mother and sister; and also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Needlecraft Club Entertained by the President

The Priscilla Needlecraft club was entertained by the president, Mrs. Belle Taylor, at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday during the holidays. The large recreation room was beautifully decorated and the tables were arranged in the form of a triangle, which is the symbol of the Y. W. C. A. The club was favored with vocal selections by Miss Bently, reading by Mrs. W. C. Hicks and instrumental solo by M. Knight of Chicago. Another feature of the evening was a game of donkey. Mrs. D. Sawyer received a beautiful calendar for being the successful player. Santa Claus left gifts on the tree for each member of the club, kewpie dolls and miniature brooms for each guest. A delightful luncheon was served.

New Year's day was open house at the Y. W. C. A. Many visitors and friends inspected the building. Harmony Temple served a delightful dinner from 3 to 7. Aside from the public table, the following ladies entertained at private tables: Mrs. D. W. Gooden, eight guests; Mrs. C. D. Wilds, six guests; Mrs. J. F. Redmond, five guests; Miss Juanita Jones, five guests, and Mrs. Joseph Scott, sixteen guests.

The Blee Triangle club will meet Wednesday, January 5, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Mae Buckner will be hostess.

The Girls' Reserve Corps, Miss Gladys Brown, president, will hold a meeting Thursday, January 6, at 3:30 p. m.

Miss Marde Penn, chairman of girls' work, has returned to the city and will meet with her committee Friday, January 7, at 8 o'clock p. m.

The class in first aid will begin work Saturday, January 8.

The Girls' Work Committee will meet Friday evening at 8 p. m. to talk over and plan the activities for girls at the Y. W. C. A. Miss Madree Penn, who has been out of the city for some time on business, will preside at this meeting. Mrs. L. N. Peoples is the assistant chairman.
