ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN

Many words of commendation were heard on the sermon preached at the morning services on "The Profitableness of Holy Scriptures." To have our people comment on what we have to say to them is the desire of every minister, whether that comment is favorable or otherwise.

The 8 o'clock service was given over to Mr. Herbert and Miss Grace Jardine of the Clifton Hill Presbyterian church, each of whom brought to us words of encouragement and cheer. Christian Endeavor pledge cards were distributed and the returns showed that twenty or more had given their consent to be organized into a Christian Endeavor society, which organization will be effected at an early date.

The Name of St. Paul's church was also duly enrolled, and it is now lined up with the other forty-five churches of the Omaha Presbytery.

The special feature for our services Sunday morning will be the ordination and installation of ruling elders. Mrs. J. H. Hutten will sing a solo and the choir will render an anthem. At this service the sermon topic will be "Christian Stewardship." Evening, "Be Ye Reconciled to God?"

SOUTH SIDE LOCALS

Mrs. Wiggins, Thirty-third and E streets, is ill at her home.

The funeral of Mr. Elmer Washington was held last Sunday at Bethel church. The Rev. Mr. Taggart officiated.

Miss Correlida Tucker was one of the guests at the Junior-Senior reception at the Blackstone hotel last Wednesday evening.

Look! Look! Look! The St. John Club No. 16 will give a grand social and entertainment at the residence of Mr. P. Jefferson, 2721 R street, South Omaha, Thursday, January 27. Plenty good things to eat and refreshments served.

Mr. Cletine Roberts is quite ill at his home, Twenty-fourth and E streets. He is being attended by Dr. R. C. Riddles.

A farewell surprise party was given last week for Mrs. Billops and daughter, who left Saturday for Florida.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING OF THE CO-OPERATIVE WORKERS OF AMERICA.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Co-operative Workers of America was held the second Wednesday in January, 1921, at their store building at 1516-18 North Twenty-fourth street. The meeting was called to order at 8 p. m. by the president, Mr. John W. Gordon. After the invocation by Rev. Wm. Franklin, the president was introduced and proceeded to make his annual report. He was followed by the secretary, Mr. Z. C. Snowden, who brought out a detailed report of the company's activities during 1920. The treasurer's report was then read by Mr. S. W. Mills. To the surprise of the stockholders, there was only an error of two cents made during the year, this error having been made by the bank. This report was made by a state licensed auditor. Words are inadequate to express the deep sense of gratitude that was shown by the stockholders for this extraordinary efficient management. Mr. H. J. Pinkett, the general manager, delivered a short address regarding the company's activities during the fourteen months of organization. His report was gratefully received by all. The stockholders then proceeded to the election of the board of directors for 1921. The old board was unanimously re-elected, and the two vacancies were filled by Messrs. S. K. Brownlow and Christopher Adams, a soldier who was wounded in the world's war in France. At 10:30 p. m. the meeting was adjourned to meet the second Wednesday in January, 1922, unless otherwise called.

LINCOLN, WEB.

By W. W. Mosley

Remember the state meet of the N. A. A. C. P. to be held in Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday afternoon, January 23, at 2 o'clock. All members and those interested in the welfare of your race, be present.

Mrs. Evelyn Evans underwent a serious operation at St. Elizabeth's hospital last week, which has proved successful, and she is improving now.

The revival meetings closed at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Friday night. Rev. J. W. Gordon did himself credit in delivering masterpiece sermons to those who heard him during the ten nights' services, and will be long remembered. Six persons were added to the church. Rev. Mr. Gordon left Saturday for his home in Richmond, Mo.

Mrs. Margaret Williams returned home Monday after a month's stay with her mother and sister in Kansas City, Kans.

Prof. H. F. Anderson of Kansas City, Mo., was in the city last Friday and appeared before a large audience at McKinley Center that night. Prof. Anderson is styled "a man of mystery," and he proved that to be true in his performance, thus mystifying his audience with his pranks. The performance was given under the auspices of the Daughters of Isis No. 43. Mr. Wm. Chum is improving in health.

Miss Biju Collins is reported quite ill at the state hospital.

J. T. Wright was on the sick list a few days this week.

Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson of Fairbury, Neb., spent two days in the city and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Smith.

The ten nights' meetings closed at the Morning Star Baptist church the past week, after a successful run. The Rev. J. P. Staves was greatly assisted by Rev. John Costello of Omaha.

The services were conducted as usual at the several churches, being fairly attended; but there is room for improvement in the attendance of the members, especially Christians should show the world that they are interested in Christian religion, then our churches would be better attended and given more support for the cause of the Master.

Mr. Edward Hayes of St. Joseph, Mo., visited his nephew, Guy Wiley, here last Sunday.

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Editor, The Monitor: Permit me to speak a word of commendation for the people of Omaha with whom I came in contact. Arriving in the city I was welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shropshire, 1118 No. Seventeenth street. They left no unturned stones in making my sojourn with them very pleasant. I met the Rev. W. F. Botts, D. D., and he gave me an invitation to speak in his church to a large and appreciative audience; the Rev. W. C. Williams of St. John's A. M. E. did likewise. I was royally entertained in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Davis in honor of the Rev. W. Wheeler. I am returning to my home in Indianapolis, leaving my brother some better. Farewell to Omaha.

REV. R. D. LEONARD.
