Y. W. C. A. NOTES

"God's best gifts to us are not things, but opportunities."

The educational committee has provided for evening classes in gymnasium, millinery, sewing, cooking and current topics. Many persons have asked for special classes, but up to date only a very few have registered. If you wish to avail yourself of these opportunities, please register at the Y. W. C. A. Center, Twenty-second and Grant streets, this week.

The girls' reserve groups are growing and the girls seem very enthusiastic over the program. They are learning how to conduct a meeting and to discuss subjects intelligently.

The Blue Triangle girls entertained their mothers Wednesday evening with a very interesting program and luncheon. Several mothers were present and enjoyed the evening. The girls were indeed happy.

The girl reserve group which meets on Thursday afternoon selected for their name "The Premier Club." This is a high school group and the girls are planning to present interesting programs in dramatics.

Mrs. Forrest Gant served ice cream, cake and coffee at the Y. W. C. A. Center Saturday and Sunday evenings. The proceeds of which is to be used toward the purchase of a Victrola for the recreation room. The amount of $21.25 was realized. Mrs. Gant wishes to express her appreciation to the many patrons and to thank the friends for their liberal donations and assistance.

The Association appreciates this effort and interest shown to help make the Center attractive. Let us all render a service.

The Swastika Racket club breezed in Wednesday evening after a jolly sleigh ride and were served with sandwiches and cocoa. Breeze in again, we enjoy having you visit the Center.

Don't forget to register for classes.
