N. W. C. A. NOTES

The N. W. C. A. met at the home last Wednesday and had an interesting meeting. Interest was added by the remarks of appreciation made by the inmates, Mr. Bruce and Mrs. Young, for the generous provision of a home for those having none.

The N. W. C. A. will have their Easter envelopes out very soon, and we hope every one who gave 40 cents or more last year will do the same this year. Mrs. Henry Black won the prize last year for bringing in the most money with her envelopes. Let us see who wins the prize this year. All the ladies did well.

We wish to thank Mr. Al Peoples for donating the paper for the Old Folks' home, and Mr. Cleo Mortimer and Mr. Willie Botts for putting it on. Mr. Mortimer is also going to paint the kitchen. If more of our men would take interest and help us, we could make the home look very presentable inside and out.

We are in need of some carpenter work done at the home. How many of our men will give us a day? If so, call up the president, Mrs. W. H. Mortimer, Webster 3361.

Won't some of the clubs of the city donate some window shades and some white curtains for the sitting room?

SOUTH OMAHA'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STORE SELLS OUT. CREDITORS FORCE PRICE SMASHING

The Leader, South Omaha's largest and best equipped department store, must sell outright, regardless of cost, every article in its store by February 12. This means that they are offering the greatest clothing sale offered in this section. The only reason they assign for this unusual reduction sale is that their creditors demand the cash, which must be raised within the remaining nine days of this sale. The stock must be removed. They have prices and goods that fit everybody in the home—men, women and children—at prices in many cases less than one-fourth their value. Those of us who have been waiting for things to "slow down some" before we spend our money, can well afford to turn it loose at this sale. Look for the sign—The Leader—4727-29 South Twenty-fourth street, South Side.
