One of the important features of the program for the evening was a debate on the question, "Resolved, that a Negro Y. M. C. A. is more advantageous than a similar organization." Both the negative and the affirmative put forth good arguments which so successfully counteracted each other that the debate was decided a tie. Future activities were also discussed, among them being a proposed debate with Lincoln Literary Society.

This phase of the New Era Movement will close Easter Sunday. During the week preceding, services will be as follows, based on The Seven Last Words:

Sunday, March 20: A. M.—"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." P. M.—"Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise."

Monday, March 21: 8 p. m.—"Woman, Behold thy Son!—Son, Behold thy Mother."

Tuesday, March 22: 8 p. m.—"My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me."

Wednesday, March 23: 8 p. m.—"I Thirst."

The Christian Endeavor meeting will be led Sunday evening by Miss Jamie Chandler. The topic is "Christian Progress in Alaska," Scripture reference Isaiah, 9:2-7. We were pleased to have some young people from the Clifton Hill Presbyterian and Hillside Congregational churches with us last Sunday evening.

The monthly social held at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Hicks Tuesday evening was an exceptionally pleasant affair, socially and otherwise. About seventy-five were present. The program was very entertaining and of a high order and was as follows: Violin and Piano Duet, Mr. Herbert Clark and Mrs. James A. Clarke; Reading, Mrs. George Riley; Piano Solo, Miss Teresa Liverpool; Male Quartet consisting of Rev. R. Taylor and sons; Address by Miss Frankie Watkins.

There is a pleasant rivalry between Miss Addie Thomas, president of the Christian Endeavor Society, and Mrs. James A. Clarke, president of the Ladies' Aid Society. Both are very ambitious and are doing excellent work in their departments.
