There are few of the younger set who do not know these gentlemen. The Cafe will be furnished with every modern convenience for comfort and service. They will have private booths and tables for ladies and will have competent and courteous service. The Colorado will doubtless set a pace for all enterprises of its kind in Omaha. The management is determined to spare no means in making this the one pleasure resort of the city. They will be open day and night and their motto will be "Service and Comfort." They will handle everything to eat and such luxuries as cigars, tobacco, soft drinks, candies and everything in the confectionery line. They extend a cordial invitation to

DOUGLAS DEBATING SOCIETY.

The D. D. S. met last Saturday night with Worthington Williams at St. Philip's rectory. All business was put over until next week and the evening turned into a social hour or two. The "hit" of the evening was the latest jazz hits and the boys passed the evening in the hilarious, care-free happy manner in which only a bunch of boys can. Forgetting completely the dignity that is supposed to comport with members of a debating society the boys' "good time" sense came to the top. Parliamentary law, the dignity of the officers all were forgotten as Mamie Smith sang and Ted Lewis played for them. Refreshments were served by the host's mother. As the boys left they expressed the wish that all meetings might be social meetings instead of once a month. The next meeting will be a business meeting and all members are urged to be present.

REPLY OF ABRAHAM L. SUTTON TO THE YELLOW CARD

To the Colored Voters of Omaha: My political enemies are circulating a yellow card among the colored people containing campaign lies intended to prejudice the colored voters of Omaha.

I wish to deny the statements contained on said card as being absolutely false and untrue and circulated for the sole purpose of trying to prejudice the colored voters against me.

The same persons who brought about the race riot in Omaha by telling lies about a poor colored man in jail are now engaged in trying to stir up race prejudice in this campaign by circulating this yellow card.

I have no prejudice against the colored people of Omaha and have always been of the opinion the poor unfortunate colored man hanged by the mob in Omaha was an innocent man, and have always had an abiding conviction the race riot in Omaha was a studied effort on the part of the lawless element in Omaha to discredit the present administration and bring about a recall of several of the city commissioners.

ABRAHAM L. SUTTON.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Rev. W. M. FRANKLIN, Pastor. After preaching ten nights and one Sunday the Rev. Y. H. Young of Topeka, Kan., returned home last Friday night after services. Upon taking leave of the church Rev. Mr. Young expressed himself as being highly pleased with the reception given him. The church in appreciation of the work done by him presented him with a purse of one hundred dollars.

The pastor filled the pulpit at 11 and 8 o'clock preaching two powerful sermons. Fourteen were added to the church last Sunday, bringing the total number of additions up to ninety-seven during the two weeks' meeting. Many of this number were new converts who were baptized at three o'clock, the pastor officiating, in the presence of an over-flowing congregation.

The Sir Knights and Daughters of Tabor under the leadership of Dr. Jenny Sellers paid off an endowment coming to Mr. Williams, by the death of Dr. Harris, his mother. The amount was one hundred and sixty dollars, verified by Rev. J. D. Crum and Mr. Allen Jones.

HEARING PRESIDENT HARDING'S MESSAGE

and there, the most coming when the President said, "the league covenant can have no sanction by us." But that had followed a notable utterance.

Weaved carefully into his plea for a Welfare Department came the President's reference to the American Race Question. The tenseness of those moments is indescribable. It would have been an ideal moment for the photographers to have made pictures, for there was hardly a muscle that moved in the entire assemblage. Some few Democrats looked red in the face, while some few Republicans turned pale. I seemed to think I could hear the thud-thud beating of ageous man, President of all the people, made the Race Problem an issue that must be solved in a practical way.

This portion of the President's address was received with eloquent and profound, but nevertheless, I think, significant silence. There was no pause for applause. In fact, so cleverly did the President continue reading his message, entering immediately into a discussion of Army and Navy bills, and so breathless were his listeners, that he was well into the next subject before the people realized what had been said.
