CIVIC ACTIVITIES

(By Grace Morris Hutten.—Commissioner of Colored Commercial Club.) A troop of Boy Scouts has been organized at St. John's Church. Dr. H. S. Hawkins is chairman of the Troop Committee. Mr. Griffin has been appointed Scout Master. It has been very encouraging to the friends instrumental in organizing this troop to receive so many offers of assistance from capable men to help make this troop a grand success.

James Jewell, Henry Gordon and Jesse Hutten, scout aides of Dr. Craig Morris, scoutmaster of Troop 23, have been very helpful in organizing this troop. This is the spirit we would like to see not only among boy scouts but also all other organizations working along the same lines.

Miss Gladys Williamson was placed as office girl in the law office of Robertson & Robertson through the labor bureau of the C. C. C.

Many women have received good places this week through the Labor Bureau. If you haven't registered come to our new offices at 2122 No. 24th St.

The Colored Improvement Club met at St. John's church last Sunday. New committees appointed were Ed. Turner, Light, John Long, Houses and Fences; James G. Jewell, Paving; Grace Hutten, boy scouts.

Mr. Alexander who is in the employ of the city has offered his services free to any club members wishing to beautify his lawn.

Through the Colored Commercial Club and the Colored Improvement Club a light has been installed by the city at 25th and Grant Street. This is only one of the many improvements we hope to see in the near future.

Mrs. Florentine Pinkston is organizing a community singing class among our children. We are certain this will be greatly appreciated by our people.

The next meeting will be May 8 at which time a good speaker will be on hand.

It is hoped that every citizen interested in the improvement of his neighborhood will come out to this meeting.

TROOP 23

A number of scouts from Troop 23 spent a very busy and useful week end at Camp Gifford, learning more of woodcraft and campcraft. The scouts planted a tree for Troop 23. We know with what pleasure the troop will attend to this tree and noting its growth and development. During the afternoon the boys were guided by their good friend Mr. Cole to the higher hills where they listened to a wonderful lecture upon bird life, where they had the pleasure of observing more of "their little brothers of the air."

After a busy day the boys sa around the camp fire listening to the wonderful stories of famous scouts. Reeds had been made during the day by the scouts and many beautiful melodies were produced by these.

After a busy day the boys sat sleeping in the open, the scouts came home early Sunday morning, full of praise for the camp and enthusiasm in the Boy Scout work.

REPLY OF ABRAHAM L. SUTTON TO THE YELLOW CARD

To the Colored Voters of Omaha: My political enemies are circulating a yellow card among the colored people containing campaign lies intended to prejudice the colored voters of Omaha.

I wish to deny the statements contained on said card as being absolutely false and untrue and circulated for the sole purpose of trying to prejudice the colored voters against me.

The same persons who brought about the race riot in Omaha by telling lies about a poor colored man in jail are now engaged in trying to stir up race prejudice in this campaign by circulating this yellow card.

I have no prejudice against the colored people of Omaha and have always been of the opinion the poor unfortunate colored man hanged by the mob in Omaha was an innocent man, and have always had an abiding conviction the race riot in Omaha was a studied effort on the part of the lawless element in Omaha to discredit the present administration and bring about a recall of several of the city commissioners.

ABRAHAM L. SUTTON.

W. G. URE for City Commissioner

THE WORLD-HERALD'S HONEST OPINION OF W. G. URE

On June 17, 1919, the World-Herald on its editorial page expressed its true candid judgment of Mr. Ure. In suggesting him for a departmental appointment the following language was used:

"It needs a man of experience and mature judgment, a man of character and strength and firmness, a man who knows how to be tolerant and how to be fair. Such a man, we are hopeful to believe, is to be found in the commission itself in the person of William G. Ure.

"Mr. Ure is no friend of the World-Herald, personal or political. This newspaper has never supported him for public office. He has devoted a busy lifetime to opposing candidates and policies and principles to whom and to which the World-Herald was attached. We love him no better than he loves us. But there is an emergency at hand in which is involved Omaha's material interests, Omaha's good name, and the security of life, liberty and property in this great city. At such a time political likes and dislikes should have little weight. Mr. Ure is a man, a big and strong one. He has vigor and energy, tempered by a wise degree of caution and moderation. He doesn't see red or froth at the mouth."

"The men selected will expend probably $15,000,000 of public funds. It is important that men of known integrity and business ability will be chosen. W. G. Ure has these qualifications. He should have your vote and energetic support."

"Free" Bridge Facts

The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway Company, operating the present toll bridge across the Missouri River between Omaha and Council Bluffs, addresses, through this medium, a few statements of fact to the voters of Omaha on the proposition of voting bonds for a so-called "free" bridge between the two cities.

Bond Issues And Taxes

The complaints against high taxes now-a-days are numerous and loud. With the individual, as with the business man, taxes have assumed serious proportions and have become a heavy burden. There is a saying that nothing is certain but death and taxes. Taxes are necessary for carrying on the government of the City, State and Nation, and when assessed and used for that purpose are not cause for complaint. But when taxes go higher and higher because of the reckless issuing of bonds for this, that and the other purpose, the taxpayer has a right to kick.

The same complaints are heard from the business man, and must be raised through taxes. The City at present has not one dollar on hand as a sinking fund to retire these bonds.

And this is not all. There are outstanding at this date $3,667,000 of Omaha School Bonds, on which the taxpayers must pay annually, the sum of $173,120.00 as interest. And several million dollars more of School Bonds will be issued as soon as they can be sold for the purpose of building a new High School of Commerce and other much needed school buildings.

Douglas County also has outstanding bonds to the amount of $2,937,000.00, on which the annual interest is $131,620.00, a very large part of which the Omaha taxpayers must pay through their County taxes.

The legitimate needs of any growing city are many, and further bond issues for proper purposes will be numerous enough. For instance, you will be called on in the near future to vote bonds for the following projects recommended by the City Planning Board:

Project	Cost
Widening of 24th Street from Cumings to Pacific	$1,600,000.00
Widening Harney Street from 20th to 26th	375,000.00
Cutting through Douglas Street from 24th Street to 25th Avenue and widening between 20th and 24th and between 25th Avenue and 27th Street	175,000.00
Cutting through 22nd Street from Dodge to Howard	630,000.00
Widening of 20th Street from Dodge to Leavenworth	616,000.00
Inner Belt Traffic Way	400,000.00
River Drive	400,000.00
Widening and Improving Center Street	62,000.00
Total	$4,258,000.00

Is it not well to consider carefully and then vote "No" on the "free" bridge bonds?

REMEMBER! A "FREE" BRIDGE IS NOT FREE—AS THE TERM WOULD INDICATE—SOMEBODY WOULD HAVE TO PAY THE TOLL, AND THAT SOMEBODY IS THE TAXPAYER.

Amount	Purpose for which issued:
$2,124,800.00	Intersection Paving.
3,654,000.00	Sewers, storm.
963,250.00	Parks.
310,000.00	Fire Engine Houses.
220,000.00	City Hall.
100,000.00	Library.
150,000.00	Auditorium.
100,000.00	Police Station.
50,000.00	Public Comfort Stations.
46,500.00	Internal Improvement.
35,000.00	Electric Light.
15,500.00	Water, Fire Equipment.
495,000.00	Funding.
210,008.00	Refunding.
14,000.00	Overlap.
1,320,880.00	Special Assessment.
$9,808,938.00

The amount of interest which the Omaha taxpayers must pay annually on this bonded debt is $444,674.66. In addition to the interest, the entire sum of nearly Ten Million Dol-
