BOY SCOUTS AT CAMP GIFFORD

Ten boy scouts, troupe 23, together with their scout master, Dr. Craig Morris, spent the week end at Camp Gifford. They came back full of enthusiasm and praise for the camp, and are looking forward to the week that they will later spend camping. A large swimming pool has been installed in Camp Gifford so all the scouts will learn to swim under the supervision of their scout master. The base ball team is playing every evening at 33rd and Lake Sts. The next meeting will be Friday evening at Long School. Important business will be transacted.

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MRS. J. ALICE STEWART

A large and appreciative audience assembled in Grove Methodist Episcopal Church Monday night and was well repaid by the excellent program given by the pupils of Mrs. J. Alice Stewart, a teacher of thirty years' experience, who has done effective work in musical education among our people in this city. The program was a long and varied one, including numbers from primary to senior pupils. All acquitted themselves with credit to themselves and their painstaking teacher. Limited space prevents publication of the program in its entirety. Among those taking part were Claretta V. Beddix, Hester Kellogg, Noretta Moss, Ruth Kellogg, Oreda Maxwell, Geneva Osborne, Mildred Williams, Dorothy Storms, Annie New (five years old), Helen Williams, Theresa Liverpool, Mildred Lawson, Sybil Merrifield, Mrs. Belle Taylor, Mrs. A. J. Austin, Mrs. Mattie Johnson, Mr. G. Andrews, Mrs. Eva Roulette, Mrs. Lena Storms, Mrs. Thelma Bentley, Mrs. I. C. Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. Gaines. A wide range of composers was represented. Among the most appreciated numbers were mentioned Chimes of the Deep by Miss Mildred Lawson; Windshield B. Minor by Theresa Liverpool; Kemennoi Ostrow, (Rubenstein) by Mrs. Eva Roulette; Valse Arabesque, by Sybil Merrifield; a trio, Dance of the Winds, by Mildred Lawson, Helen Williams and the Teacher; vocal solo by Mrs. Thelma Bentley; a saxophone and clarinet duet, by M. and Mrs. Gaines; and a quintette, ten hands Hussernett, Sprudolo, by Theresa Liverpool, Helen Williams, Mrs. Eva Roulette, Sybil Merrifield and the teacher.

A pleasing feature of the recital was the presentation in a graceful form of small gold lyre to Mrs. Stewart from her pupils as a token of their appreciation.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Twenty-fourth and Ohio Sts. H. R. McMillin, Pastor
Last Sunday was a red-letter day in this congregation. The pastor was installed. The installation sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. W. F. Botts, the eloquent and popular pastor of Zion Baptist church. There was a large congregation present. Under the efficient leadership of the new pastor great spiritual progress is anticipated.

The Men's Laymen club will give a banquet, Thursday, June 23, to which the public is invited.

The Art Club meets every Monday night at the church.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

Twenty-first near Paul
A large congregation was present at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning, which was the customary-choral eucharist. The sermon was on the Gospel for the day, and dealt with "Joy Over the Penitent." Father Williams before the sermon briefly alluded to the fact of this being the thirtieth anniversary of his pastorate and stated that during the years there had been 305 baptisms; 245 persons confirmed and 5 received from the Roman obedience; 101 marriages and 263 burials. There was also a good attendance at the early eucharist at 7:30 and at the Church school at 10.
The services next Sunday will be as follows; holy communion 7:30 a. m.; Church school at 10 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11; and evening prayer and sermon at 8 o'clock.

COMMUNITY CHORUS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The children's community chorus which is being instructed by Mrs. Florentine F. Pinks-ton met Sunday afternoon at the Episcopal Church of St. Philip the Deacon. It will meet next Sunday afternoon at St. John's A. M. E. church. This chorus is open to all children who wish to attend. No denominational or class lines are drawn, all are invited.

LINCOLN, NEB.

By W. W. MOSELY

The annual session of the Heroines of Jericho is in session at the Masonic Hall this week. There are representatives from a number of cities here in attendance.

The members of the A. M. E. Church, held their final rally last Sunday. Soliciting cards had been in the hands of members and friends for sometime past for the purpose of raising money for installing pews in the church. There were two captains with lieutenants working under them. Wm. Woods reported $595.00, R. H. Young reported $759.00, Dr. E. R. Vaughan, Dean of Western University Theological Department was present. He delivered several sermons which were a source of interest to his hearers. Good music was furnished by the choir, and a day of rejoicing was the outcome.

Mrs. P. Saunders is confined at the State Hospital on account of illness.
