SMARTER SET SOCIETY GIVE DANCING PARTY

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the dance given by the Smarter Set society at Hanson park pavilion Tuesday night which was attended by about seventy- five couples of the younger set. The pavilion was decorated with the cleb colors, orange and blue. The girls looked stunning in their pretty organdie dresses and the young men were not one whit behind them in white trousers and dark coats. Many of the parents of the young people were present as invited guests.

N. W. C. A. NOTES

N. W. C. A. held an interesting meeting at the home last Wednesday. Notices will be sent to the members who have not been to a meeting this year, and are back in their dues, asking if they wish to retain their mem- bership, hoping for a reply by the next monthly meeting.

The home is now filled and applica- tions are coming in continually, and we cannot accommodate them. Won't the citizens, lodges, and clubs, help us enlarge the home with at least two more rooms? Now the home has stood eight years in Omaha, and is still running, is not that enough to place confidence in the management? Every citizen knows just what she or he has given toward the support. We mean to place the money that we re- ceive from the charity ball given by the Elks for the benefit of the home in the bank as a building fund. Now won't other organizations follow and make the Old Folk's Home a credit to Omaha? This is the only institu- tion owned and controlled by the Negro race. We will ask every colored paper in Omaha for space for every one's name that will donate to the building fund. Can't we have the ad- dition before winter?

We wish to thank Mr. Joe Carr for his yearly donation. Won't others who owe yearly donations please send them in. We still have some Easter envel- ope out. They come in at every meet- ing.

The Negro Woman's Christian Asso- ciation wishes to congratulate the Ne- braska Federation of Clubs for being able to burn the mortgage on the home they purchased in Lincoln.

Mrs. Barton entered the home last week, and now we are filled. Go visit the home as it brings cheer to those that cannot get out, and see that they have some candy or fruit, which they would enjoy. The address is 3029 Pinkney St., Web. 4534.

GIVE DANCING PARTY FOR DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown enter- tained at their beautiful home, 2883 Miami street, Thursday night at a de- lightful dancing party in honor of the graduation of their daughter, Gladys E. The house was artistically decora- ted in purple and white, the school colors. A prize waltz was won by Orlo South and Miss Frances Gordon, the prizes awarded carrying out the purple and white color scheme. Many out- of-town guests were present.

GIVE RECEPTION FOR OFFICERS

Gate City Lodge No. 6674, I. U. O. O. F. and Queen City Household No. 2903 gave a grand reception for their officers at the Y. W. C. A., Friday, July 8. It was a delightful affair from every point of view. The guests of hon- or were M. N. G. Belle Penn; P. N. G. Belle Penn; P. M. N. G. Lillian Gas- kins; P. M. N. G. Addie Shellman; D. G. S. Effie Sadler Irvin; G. D. D. R. L. Woodard; P. N. F. W. H. Paine; N. F. John L. Williams; the Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson; the Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Botts and the Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Williams.

The first prize, a ten pound ham, was awarded P. M. N. G. Addie Shell- man for selling the largest number of tickets and the second prize, a 24-lb. sack of flour was captured by D. G. S. Effie Sadler Irvin.

The committee of arrangements com- prised the following: Mesdames Hay- ward Vawter, C. Spratt, Henry Crouch, James Purvine, W. Gray, Belle Fos- ter, E. G. Oliver, B. Taylor and Mag- gie Caldwell.

SONS RETURN FROM BURIAL OF MOTHER

DeWitt, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Ill., and moderator of the Woodville Baptist Association. A large bouquet of American beauty roses was the center- piece. The guests present were the Rev. Messrs. H. H. M. H. Wilkinson, W. C. Williams and John Albert Wil- liams and Messrs. Amos P. Scruggs and Milo Wright. Mrs. McCrea was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Mar- garet Saunders.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP, THE DEACON

Despite the extreme heat of last Sunday the attendance at both Sunday School and the morning services were quite good. At the 11 o'clock service, Ethel Mary Eugenia, the infant daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis was baptized, the sponsors being Mr. George W. H. Bullock and Mesdames Rector and McGill.

The annual Sunday School and parish picnic will be held next Thurs- day afternoon at Elmwood Park.

The services Sunday will be at the usual hours, 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

THE NEW ERA BAPTIST AS- SOCIATION CLOSURE SESSION

Thursday, June 16.—The associa- tion women's department opened with praise service at 9:30 a. m.; Mrs. Gus- sie Allen of this city presiding. Mrs. S. Whiddy read a very excellent pa- per on Mission Work, which was dis- cussed by many of the ladies present. Reports showed a steady growth in numbers and resources. A beautiful basket of flowers was presented the retiring president, Mrs. Gussie Allen, by the president elect, Mrs. M. W. Wilkinson, and was received with ap- propriate expressions.

The regular session, of the associa- tion proper, was called to order by Moderator W. F. Botts at 1:30 p. m., a large number being present. Fol- lowing the enrollment, M. H. Wilkin- son, missionary read his annual re- port, which showed creditable work done during the last past nine months. An address on Modern Demands For An Educated Ministry, was delivered by Rev. Dr. Brannon of Chicago.

At night Prof. Smyly again thrilled the audience with Gospel songs. The Welcome Address was delivered by Rev. J. D. Cram, responded to by Rev. H. W. Botts, Lincoln. An en- thusiastic Sermonette and Lecture was delivered by Dr. J. Francis Rob- inson, Nashville, Tenn., Field agent of the National Baptist Convention.

Friday, June 17.—The Association reassembled at 9:30 a. m., Moderator Botts presiding. The report of the Executive Board showed that a large amount of money had been collected each quarter and expended, with a balance of $192.85. Letters from churches showed a marked growth in numbers and finance.

Friday evening Rev. D. M. McQueen conducted memorial services in mem- ory of the twenty-eight deceased since last annual meeting.

The Constitution of the association was amended, changing the name to the New Era Baptist Association of Nebraska, and fixing the per capita dues at seventy-five cents, annually.

Rev. T. A. Taggart discussed the subject: "Are We Preaching the Gos- pel as Commissioned?" Quite a num- ber participated in the discussion.

The report of the committee on digest of letters showed that monies collected for the year ending June 13th, 1921, was $47,484.69.

At night session, Moderator Botts read his annual address to a large audience.

Saturday, June 18th.—The follow- ing officers were elected: Rev. W. F. Botts, moderator; Rev. T. A. Taggart, 1st vice-moderator; Rev. Wm. Frank- lin, 2nd vice-moderator; H. L. Ander- son, secretary; P. H. Jenkins, treas- urer; Revs. H. R. McMillin, M. D. McQueen, and Jno. Costello mem- bers of the Executive Board. Rev. H. R. McMillin was elected president of the ministers and Deacon Union, Deacon Herald, vice-president; Rev. J. D. Davis, treasurer; and Deacon Andrews, secretary.

Officers of the Women's conven- tion are: President, Mrs. M. H. Wil- kinson; 1st vice-president, Mrs. E. J. Griffin; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. L. Whiddy; secretary, Mrs. E. P. Saf- fold; cor. sec. Mrs. Lacy; treasurer, Mrs. L. Wilson; Board members, mes- dames S. A. Botts, Irene Sharpe, and S. Jackson.

Finance committee reported total amount received $646.39.

The next session will be held at Zion Baptist Church.

STOOD HIGH IN BEE CONTEST

Augustus Hicks who entered ener- getically into the Bee's Help Your- self Contest made a splendid showing receiving nearly 10,000,000 votes. Al- though not a prize-winner he received a substantial sum as commission. He desires to thank all who helped him.

PROMINENT MINISTER ANSWERS SUMMONS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 14.—Rev. Dr. William A. Credit, former pastor of Cherry St. Baptist Church, of Philadelphia, and founder of the Downing Industrial School, died of high blood pressure and complications in the Mercer Hospital of Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening, June 27. He was one of the most gifted and versatile men who ever graced a pulpit.

SOUTHERN BISHOP URGES SUPPRESSION OF LYNCHING

(By The Associated Negro Press.) ROME, Ga., July 14.—Bishop Fred- erick F. Reese, of the Episcopal church, of this state, in a talk before the local Kiwanis club, urged that lynching stop in this state at once and forever. He said that mob violence strikes at the root of our civilization and is a crime against the dignity of Georgia and its sovereignty. Bishop Reese endorsed the statements made in Governor Dorsey's pamphlet and ad- vised a better attitude towards the Col- ored people, better counsel and better education. Things cannot continue as they are in the Negro situation, the bishop earnestly asserted, and an im- mediate change is necessary.

Common Fault. "There is one thing which proves plainly King Charles I of England was not the man for the place." "What was that?" "He lost his head at the critical moment."

SLEPT FOR THREE YEARS

(By The Associated Negro Press.) FORT SMITH, Ark., July 14.—Jim Eshinger, colored, the "sleeping won- der," who has slept steadily for more than three years, nearly rivaling the mythical Rip Van Winkle, and who awoke from his long sleep last Fri- day, is able to feed himself.

He has been awake during the nor- mal hours of human wakefulness since Friday, sleeping soundly and normal- ly the last two nights. Sunday morn- ing he was able to feed himself, eating simple, easily digested foods.

His condition, though emanated from lying as though lifeless for so long, is said to be fair. It is thought that the crisis is reached and physi- cians are watching and waiting with the keenest interest his ultimate out- come.
