A message comes from Exelsior Springs, Mo., that Rev. H. H. Jones who has been there for several weeks on account of his health has recovered sufficiently to come home this week, and hoping by the "Master's" will to be in his pulpit Sunday.

The Sunday School of the A. M. E. Church has announced that they will give their annual picnic Wednesday July 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCowan celebrated their 25th anniversary of carriage on last Friday night at their home on West H. Street. A large crowd responded to the invitations, many carrying presents, which were joyfully received. The host and hostess were joyful over the presence of their guests, who enjoyed themselves in conversations, luncheons etc. J. W. B. says the old timers had a fine time.

R. H. Young and Jack Galbreath spent Sunday in Crete.

Sunday School was nicely attended at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. H. W. Botts preached two interesting sermons during the day. Attendance was fair.

Rev. I. B. Smith filled the pulpit during the day at the A. M. E. Church. The Sunday Schools and Aid Societies held meetings. The pastor Rev. H. H. Jones will conduct services next Sunday.

Mrs. N. E. Stewart, who is here from Los Angeles, Calif., made a few remarks at the churches, saying that she and her husband, who is a Baptist minister, were preparing to go to Africa as missionaries. This we should be proud of that they are going to sacrifice their lives to teach those heathen the way to Christ and civilization. Mrs. Stewart will speak at Mt. Zion next Sunday, at which time she will tell her aim. Hear her.

The Utopian Art Club gave their bazaar and entertainment at Mt. Zion last Thursday night. Quite a crowd was present, and the affair was a success.

Rev. A. Simms preached the sermon. M. L. Hunter spoke on the aims of Order and Chas. Bradford on its history.

HAS RETURNED TO OMAHA

Everett Johnson, who was in the painting and paper-hanging business here for some time, has returned to make Omaha his home after an absence of two years in Denver, Col. He will resume his business at 1701 N. Twenty-fourth Street.

Job's Tears Named.

The missionaries in the Hawaiian islands named one plant. It grows on reedlike stalks, a kind of knife-edged, rank growth that bears white enamel beads. Everybody calls these beads Job's tears.

Needs Long Seasoning

Wood for tennis rackets requires at least five years in the rough timber state before being cut up for use. Wood for pianos is kept, as a rule, for 40 years before it is used.

Altogether a Busy Family.

"What is the Higgins' family doing now?" asked Mrs. Jones, of her neighbor. "The wife is writing poems that nobody will read, the daughter is painting pictures that nobody will buy, the son is writing plays that nobody will put on the stage, and the husband is writing checks that nobody will cash," was the startling reply.

Discovery Credited to Cattle.

It was owing to cattle refusing to drink from an impregnated spring on Epsom common in 1618 that Epsom salt was discovered. Doctors examined the spring, and in consequence of their verdict all the aristocracy of England were hurrying to Epsom a few years later to take the waters.

"War Lords" Yield Kitchen
