Forty Years of Dependable Merchandise

have developed for Brandeis Stores a reputation for efficiency in merchandising which places it in a field by itself

The Store of Quality, Prices and Service

Low prices and good values in merchandise are appreciated when offered with the courtesy and consideration that is given the customers of Brandeis Stores. Every purchase, large or small, must give complete satisfaction to the customer or it is not satisfactory to us.

THE two stories added during the past year indicate the rapid growth of the stores since the new building was opened. Not only have we added numerous departments, but every department individually has grown and expanded so that our stocks in all lines of merchandise are now complete. The growth is due to the efficiency of our system of supplying the needs of our customers at prices which they can afford, and to the courteous treatment accorded every customer regardless of race or financial position. Each purchase, made a pleasure because of the consideration extended and a satisfaction because of the value obtained, strengthens our position as the greatest institution of values and economy in the Middle West. The latest and best in wearing apparel, dress goods and accessories are always in stock at Brandeis Stores and, for those wishing low priced merchandise, our Basement Departments offer the best values at the lowest possible prices.
