ORDER.

Doc. —, No.

In the District Court of Douglas County.
Nebraska.
In the matter of the estate of Ernest C. H.
Wicke, deceased.
On this second day of August, 1921, this cause coming on for hearing upon the petition of Frederick J. Wicke, administrator, praying for a license to sell Lots One (1). Two (2), Three (3), and Four (4), in Block Two (2), in Hyde Park, an addition to the City of Omaha, Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded, said property being a part of the above estate, for the payment of debts allowed against said estate and unpaid for want of personal property with which to pay same.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear in Court Room Number Seven (7) in the Court House, in Douglas County, Nebraska, on the 2nd day of September, 1921, at nine o'lock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why a license to sell said real estate should not be granted as prayed for in suid petition.

It is further ordered that a copy of this published once each week for four successive weeks in "The Monitor," a legal newspaper published and printed in Douglas County, Nebraska.

By the Court,
JAMES M. FITZGERALD,

> DECISION GIVEN LANGFORD Boxing fans were given one of the cleanest and best exhibitions of the manly art that was ever pulled off in Omaha at the Auditorium last Friday and recuperatng. Mr. Young is very new additions to the North 24th Street night when Sam Langford boxed ten rounds with Lee Anderson; and Jack Taylor eight rounds with Ed "Bearcat" Wright. Langford received an unpopular referee's decision, the conensus of opinion among the fans being that the fight was a good draw. Jack Taylor, who fought "Bearcat" Wright in the semi-final, was in a charitable mood. He donated the cat in all departments of the game.

There was a full house. The event was held under the auspicies of Koosevelt Post American Legion.
