

W. W. Moseley is the versatile correspondent of the Lincoln news column appearing in this paper. Please give him all news items you wish carried in the Monitor, by Tuesday noon of the week of issue.

THE MANAGEMENT.

LINCOLN NEWS NOTES

George W. Ezell died at the T. B. hospital, Kearney, Nebraska, last Tuesday, and his body was brought to Lincoln Wednesday for burial, which took place from Roberts Undertaking rooms, the Rev. W. A. McLendon officiating. Mr. Ezell was formerly a foreman at the State Capitol, but being taken ill he was sent to the tuberculosis hospital where he gradually grew weaker and died. He is survived by a wife and other relatives.

The Misses Mary Green and Belva Spicer will leave next Monday for Atchison, Topeka and other Kansas points on a concert tour.

Mrs. Irene Mosley has accepted the agency of the Nile Queen hair preparations for this city.

The chattering supper given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Griffin last Saturday night is reported a success.

The dance given by some of the young folks on the evening of February 4th was not much of a success.

Mr. T. W. Bell was a guest at the home of Mrs. Laura Monday.

The Rev. W. A. McLendon left Monday for Montgomery, Ala. to attend the Southern Bishops' Council. He will be absent two weeks. Rev. I. B. Smith will serve in his stead during his absence.

Services at Mt. Zion Baptist church were well attended. The Sunday school had a fine crowd of children. The B. Y. P. U. held a social hour and service. Covenant services were participated in by a large number of members.

The N. A. A. C. P. held a rousing meeting at the A. M. E. church Monday night and after the speedy dispatch of routine business, Attorney T. W. Bell of Leavenworth delivered an inspiring address on race conditions and told of his efforts in behalf of the soldiers imprisoned at Leavenworth for participation in the Houston riots of 1917 in whose behalf he is working.

ALLEN CHAPEL, A. M. E. CHURCH
5233 South 25th Street
O. J. Burkhardt, Pastor

A big revival meeting begins Monday, Feb. 12th, at the M. E. church, 32d and You street, Rev. W. C. Conwell, pastor. This is a union revival of Allen Chapel and the M. E. church in which both pastors and congregations are actively co-operating. Evangelist John T. Brown, well known in Omaha, will conduct the services.

Last Sunday was a high day at Allen Chapel. The Rev. Mr. Lightner gave a fine discourse on "The Personality of Christ." Church work and Sunday school are looking up after the strike. We want 50 boys and girls who do not attend any Sunday school to attend ours. The pastor preached Sunday night on "The Value of the Soul," before a large and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Jefferson is slowly improving, as is also Mr. Mitchell. William Barnes died Sunday at a local hospital.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

5422 South 29th Street
Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor

The hours of services are as follows: 9:30 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., morning service; 3 p. m., Starlight Mission Band; 5:30 p. m., B. Y. P. U.

Monday night at 8 o'clock the Pastor's Aid and Literary Society will entertain at the T. D. C. Hall.

Thursday night the Mission Circle will meet at 7:30.

Last Sunday morning the pulpit was filled by the pastor, who preached an able sermon before a large congregation, some strangers being present, among whom was the Rev. Mr. Winston from Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Hope Miller's funeral will be held from the church Monday afternoon.

The sick of the congregation are Mother Kelly, Mrs. Campbell, 33d and A. Streets; Mrs. Carrie Moore, who is improving; and Mrs. Edmondson, 28th and You streets.

A POPULAR CATERESS PRAISES BUTTER NUT COFFEE

2705 Corby St., Omaha,
February 8, 1922.

Business Mgr. of the Monitor:
Dear Sir: For the past eight years I have been using Paxton-Gallagher's Butter Nut Coffee and in no single instance has it failed to retain its good, rich, mellow flavor. With or without cream, I always get good results. I have no hesitancy in recommending Butter Nut Coffee, because I am convinced that the results obtained are always satisfactory.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Dana Murphy.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors and especially the Blue Circle Club for kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings at the time of the death of our beloved son and brother, William Peyton Brooks, who died January 24th at Pueblo, Colo., and was buried here Jan. 30th.

Mrs. Ellis, Mother,
Harry Brooks, Brother,
Arthur Brooks, Brother.

Luther J. Dillard, who has been ill for several weeks, is reported to be improving at his home, 504 South Twenty-fourth Avenue.

Miss Addie Thompson and little niece, Helen Stevens, have gone to Peoria, Ill.

Get acquainted with the Episcopal Church by attending services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at St. Philip's Church, 1121 North Twenty-first street.—Adv.

Mrs. Caroline Smith continues quite ill at her residence, 2622 Corby St.

N. A. A. C. P.
The N. A. A. C. P. will hold its next meeting Sunday, January 12, at St. John's A. M. E. Church, 24th and Grant Stas. This will be a mass meeting and will be held in commemoration of the 13th anniversary of its birth. All members and citizens are asked to be present.
John W. Black, President.

BIG SHOE SALE
NOW GOING ON
BOYSEN SHOE CO.
412 N. 16th ST.
Opposite Jefferson Square

Butter-Nut

"The Coffee Delicious"

Supplies that final test, the required essential that decides the dinner question.

PAXTON & GALLAGHER Co.

