THE MANAGEMENT.

LINCOLN HAPPENINGS

By W. W. Mostly.

Mrs. Frank Williams returned to the city last Friday from Seattle, Wash., after being absent about a year.

Donald Smith is confined at home with illness.

Mrs. W. A. McClendon is improving from recent illness.

At Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday, Sunday School was led by Assistant Superintendent Mrs. J. Johnson. Praise and covenant services at 11:30 a. m., at 3:30. Rev. A. J. McAlister of the Newman M. E. Church delivered an excellent sermon, and was accompanied by a number of his members. Rev. W. A. McClendon of A. M. E. Church and several of his folks worshipped with us. At night, preaching and communion services were held, the pastor preached a fine sermon. The result of the rally being about $76.

Mrs. F. Young is confined at home with illness this week.

Rev. J. Broadnax of Argentine, Kansas, was a Lincoln visitor last week.

Rev. W. A. McClendon filled his pulpit last Sunday and, as usual, preached an interesting sermon to his folks.

The Du Bois Literary Club met at 4 p. m. and was well attended by students and associates.

We were sorrowful to hear of the death of Bert Williams at his home in New York last Saturday. We have lost a great comedian and entertainer of the American stage.

We, no doubt, understand that some people are not familiar with the adage, which says: "You can fool some people, but you can't fool all the people all the time." Such was brought to bear on last Friday night, when Madam Theodora Langford Mayo appeared in concert at the McKinley Auditorium before about twenty-five folks.

It is reported that a number of folks were confined at home with La Grippe the past few days.

Mr. John Blair died at his home, 801 Hill Street, Monday at 7 a. m., after some illness. Mr Blair was 84 years old, having lived in Lincoln for over thirty years. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Florence Anderson, to mourn his demise. The funeral will be announced later.

Rev. A. J. McAlister filled his pulpit Sunday and delivered fine sermons to his folks. The Sunday schools and aid societies of the different churches are doing good work.

If you want a clean shave, stop in at Stanley's Shop, 240 No. 9th.

CARL LOONEY DIES SUDDENLY

Carl Looney, proprietor of a restaurant at 1916 Cuming street, died suddenly last Friday morning at his place of business from heart trouble with which he had been afflicted for some time. He was 52 years of age and an upright and highly respected citizen. Funeral services were held from Jones & Co. Chapel, Monday afternoon, Rev. John Albert Williams officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery. Mr. Looney is survived by a widow and several children.

LAST CURTAIN FOR BERT WILLIAMS THE PREMIER COMEDIAN

In 1903, when the Williams and Walker company played at the Shaftesbury Theater, in London, Williams was invited to attend a lawn party at Buckingham Palace to entertain guests at the birthday celebration of the Prince of Wales. His demeanor so delighted royalty that he remained until his death a favorite with Londoners.

Forms Partnership With Walker.

It was in 1895 he met George Walker in Detroit, with whom he formed a partnership that lasted until the latter's death in 1909. They made the name of Williams and Walker famous throughout the English-speaking world. Their first appearance in New York was in 1896 and 1897. In 1902 they went to England where their American success was duplicated. Among the attractions made famous by this team were "The Polly Players," "Bandanna Land," "Abyssinia," "The Gold Bug," "Senegambian Carnival," "Sons of Ham" and "In Dahomey." It was with the last named production that they appeared so successfully in London. George Walker died in 1907 and Williams was featured alone in "A Load of Coal." In 1911 he made a Ziegfeld contract under which he appeared in "The Follies" for ten years. The comedian is said to have left a large fortune, which goes to his wife, Lottie Williams. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. in St. Philip's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Hutchens Chew Bishop, rector of the parish, officiating. On Wednesday the body was taken to the Masonic Temple, where services were held by St. Cecile Lodge. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery. Williams became a member of the Masonic order in Edinburgh in 1907.

An Asset of the Race.

Booker T. Washington wrote of Williams: "Bert Williams is a tremendous asset to the Negro race. The fact of his success aids the Negro many times more than he could have helped the race by merely contenting himself to whine about racial difficulties. The fact is the American people are ready to honor any man who does something worth while, irrespective of his color."

CRISPUS ATTUCKS CELEBRATION A GREAT SUCCESS

The last speaker was the Rev. John Albert Williams, who was charged with "spilling the beans" in the address above quoted. But Dr. W. W. Peebles soothed the outraged patriotism of the audience, by stating that "while there may be a question in the minds of some people as to whether Attucks was a rioter or patriot, I am quite sure that the 12,000,000 Negroes of America need more rioters like Crispus Attucks." (Great applause.)

Mrs. J. Alice Stewart in thanking all for their hearty co-operation, took the opportunity of saying that no matter what others might think she was convinced as others were convinced that Crispus Attucks was a hero and a martyr to American liberty. This also brought great applause and put the audience in tune for the benediction which was pronounced by the Rev. J. D. Crum. Thus happily ended Omaha's celebration of the day, which was a decided success.
