THE SUPREME ROYAL CIRCLE OF FRIENDS OF THE WORLD COMES TO OMAHA

The Supreme Royal Circle of Friends of the World, a fraternal insurance order, operating in all the states of the United States and the District of Columbia, with a total membership of over 200,000 members and total assets exceeding one half million dollars, comes to Omaha. The organization operates under the insurance commissioners of the state with supreme headquarters in Chicago, Ill., and Dr. R. A. Williams as supreme president and founder. A. L. Richmond of Kansas City, Mo., is supreme supervisor of the western states with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., where in the last eighteen months over 3,700 members have been added in that city.

The Royal Circle is strictly a Race order, and is doing more for the Race than any other order among our people, paying $7.00 per week for sickness and accident, $150.00 at death and places a monument at the grave of each deceased member. Gives members free hospital treatment, medical and surgical attention, room, nurse and board entirely free. Also gives them the advantage of a loan and charity department to pay mortgages of their homes and farms, and when in need assists them from the charity department. After a member has been in the order ninety days they may increase their death benefits as high as $1000.00. The monthly dues are $1.25 per month and NO TAXES as we have to pay in most of our other fraternities. Joining fee, $3.50—men and women belong to same local body—no rough initiation.

The Royal Circle is fifteen years old and maintains hospitals for its members in Memphis, Tenn.; Little Rock, Ark.; Hot Springs, Ark., and has an orphan's and old folks' home for orphan children of the members where they are taught a trade and schooled until they are able to take care of themselves, and the home for aged members to spend their last years on earth being cared for by the order absolutely free.

Two other hospitals have been authorized, one for Chicago, Ill., and one for the western states, and if any work is done in Omaha as to membership, this city may be assured of the hospital for the western states as it is needed worse here than in most of the western states. Supervisor Richmond is here for that purpose, to organize local circles and put on a big membership drive with the view of giving Omaha an office building and the western hospital.

A local circle is to be set up Thursday night at Mt. Moriah Baptist church on 24th and Ohio, where Rev. H. R. McMillan is pastor and who has been a member of the order since its start. Supervisor Richmond can be reached at 2814 North 25th street. Phone Webster 1760 for information. All members of the order from other states or former members of the order are requested to be out Thursday night, March 16, 1922, at Mt. Moriah Baptist church on 24th and Ohio at 8 p. m. Public invited.

CRISPUS ATTACKS

Paper Read by Miss Emma Mitchell at Attacks' Day Celebration, Pilgrim Baptist Church, Sunday, Mar. 5

Crispus Attacks was born in slavery in 1723 and died in 1770. At the age of 27 he ran away from his master who advertised very extensively for his slave and offered a liberal reward for his return. Only after much meditation and thought had he broken away from the cruel chains that bound him, and he was determined to be a free American citizen. He learned to read at odd times, and he used this accomplishment in understanding the fundamental principles that underlie all regulated forms of government. A fiery patriotism burned in his breast. He was anxious to avenge oppression in any form, not by fighting alone, but by the sacrifice of life if necessary.

Several years later Crispus Attacks name once more appeared in the Boston journals. This time he was not advertised as a slave who ran away, nor was there a reward for his apprehension. His soul and body were beyond the cruel touch of master. The press had paused to announce his death and write the name of the Negro patriot, soldier and martyr to the ripening cause of the American Revolution, in fadless letters of gold.

On March the 5th, 1770, the Boston Massacre occurred. The people had been oppressed by British tyranny, they had been treated as inferiors, they were taxed without representation and their souls galled until they were maddened. When British troops to add insult to injury, encamped upon their grounds, they could withhold no longer. They were greatly exasperated. They organized clubs and resolved to avenge themselves and gain their rights. It has been said that Crispus Attacks led one of these clubs who brandished their clubs and pelted the British soldiers with snowballs. The scene was horrible. The populace advanced to the points of their bayonets. Crispus Attacks and twelve of his companions pressing forward encountered the soldiers, striking their muskets with their clubs, cried to the multitude: "Be not afraid; they dare not fire. Why do you hesitate? Why do you not kill them? Why not crush them at once?"

Inspired by his words, his followers rushed madly on, and the soldiers, incensed by this act of insolence, answered the warlike cry by discharging their guns. Attacks had lifted his arm against Captain Preston and fell a victim to the model fire. Three were killed and five were severely wounded. Attacks was buried from Faneuil Hall with great honor. He had led the people to make the attack. He was the first to resist and the first slain. His patriotism was the declaration of war. It was liberty to the oppressed. It opened the way to modern civilization and independence. It has blessed and will continue to bless generations yet unborn. For a man can fight when he knows he's right and know that he knows he is in a way that will make every blow that he strikes a blow to make victory his. The greatest greatness there is that the world may bring to you is the glory of being right and the splendor of being true.

WHAT IS A BOY WORTH!

This question was answered in a tangible way March 3 by the Branch Y. M. C. A. officials when they put over a $810 drive in twenty-four hours under the able leadership of the International Secretary, R. B. De Frantz of New York.

The current expense for 1922 is estimated at only $600 and the $810 came as the result of the earnest effort put forth by the captains. The branch officials started the drive by planking down $235.

Team No. 1, Captain, the Rev. Russell Taylor, $35; Team No. 2, Captain, Dr. J. A. Singleton, $95; Team No. 3, Captain, Mr. Nat Hunter, $40; Team No. 4, Captain, Dr. W. W. Peebles, $100; Team No. 5, Captain, Mr. James Clark, $30; Team No. 6, Captain, Dr. J. H. Hutten, $100; Team No. 7, Captain, Mr. W. G. Haynes, $32; Team No. 8, Captain, Mr. T. P. Mahammitt, $125; Team No. 9, Captain, Mr. J. D. Crawford, $60.

Messrs. W. S. Mill's, E. W. Pryor's and Joseph Carr's liberal gifts were included in the official contribution. Through the efforts of Mr. Jas. Clark $56.50 was contributed to this drive from St. John's A. M. E. Church.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

5233 South 25th St.
O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor.
For the past three weeks we have had a real spiritual feast. The Rev. Mr. Brown, the evangelist, has been preaching us some great truths and our churches and the community at large have been helped by our series of meetings. Some substantial members have been added to the church and many believers have taken higher grounds for Christ. Our quarterly meeting followed the revival. Dr. Divers brought us two great messages, morning and night, and the Rev. Mr. Conwell brought us a great message at 3 o'clock. Ministers from various churches, both Methodist and Baptist, were present with us. We extend an invitation to you to worship with us next Sunday.

IN MEMORY OF HERBERT WORTHY

By Francis R. Perkins.
Beneath the azure southern skies
In Bayon state, where sunshine lies
A babe in Louisville was born—
A mother's heart some day he'd warm.

Oh mother, can you not feel proud
To look to Him above the cloud?
Give thanks to God, for happy days,
Made bright by baby's prattling ways.

A mother's pride and mother's joy—
This loving, bright and manly boy—
How soon to manhood he would grow
And on the battlefield must go.

He gave his breath in foreign lands
To meet his country's great demand.
He gave his soul to God above—
What greater thing could mother love?

"Oh when the saluts go marching in,
So oft he'd sing with fire and vim,
Mother, sister, yes, one and all,
My hope's in God where'er I fall.

Sisters, bemoan my absence not,
For this is but man's common lot,
'Tis very hard and yet 'twould seem
That death is only a passing dream.

In sweet deliverance on the shore,
The pearly gates that ope once more—
Here Herbert stands, the boy to you
born,
Waiting for you on the final morn.

THE NATION WIDE MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR COLONEL YOUNG

It has been learned by the Associated Negro Press that it was an expressed wish of the Colonel that his remains be cremated. This could not be done in Africa. Whether the request will be ultimately carried out, or whether the remains will be brought to America and interred in Arlington cemetery, city of the soldier dead, or in the burying ground of Wilberforce, or at Janesville, Ohio, where the Colonel's father is buried, has not been decided upon.

GREAT REVIVAL AT GROVE M. E. CHURCH

22nd and Seward Sts.
Beginning Sunday, March 12, Rev. John W. Roberson, D. D., noted pastor and evangelist of St. Mark's M. E. church of Chicago, will conduct the services. As a singer, preacher and organizer he has no equal. Don't fail to hear him. Dr. J. Fletcher Bryant is in charge of the revival chorus. The ministers and their congregations and the public are invited. Sunday, March 19, will be a great day. Special sermon by Dr. Roberson at 3:00 P. M. Dinner served free to all who attend this service.
Rev. T. S. Saunders, Pastor.

RIGHT NOW is the time to pay you subscription to the Monitor.
