LAI D OFF OF POLICE FORCE

Among the men to be laid off of the police force because of retrenchment is William Burch, who was appointed early in December. Mr. Burch is "that new policeman" who has been doing duty on North Twenty-fourth street for the past two months. The Monitor is advised that his work was satisfactory but lack of funds forced the laying off of several officers and as one of the most recent appointees the lot fell upon him.

BAPTIST STATE MISSIONARY TELLS OF WORK

The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, state Baptist missionary, has been in Norfolk, Neb., since the end of last week but will return to Omaha Friday night. Sunday morning he will be at the Pilgrim Baptist church at Hillside at night. He reports that the $1,800 on the Norfolk church is nearly reached and that the people at Fairbury are stirring as never before. He invokes the Divine blessing upon the pastors and people who are helping their weaker and needier brethren out in the state. There were two additions to the Norfolk field Sunday, one by grace experience and one by conversion.

ENTERS ACTIVELY INTO REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Mr. George Watson, one of Omaha's most substantial and progressive young men, who has been quietly handling real estate, in connection with his other work, for the last fifteen years, has joined forces with A. J. Davis, the realtor, under the firm name of Davis & Watson. They are located at 2419 Lake street and are ready to assist those desiring to rent or buy, making provision in certain cases to help patrons to make a first payment on a home.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

standard and support the measure. The bill has just as strong support in the senate as it had in the house.

Mr. J. David Larsen of the chamber of commerce will address the association Sunday, April 2. We urge that every member hear him.

The Young memorial will be held on March 26. A splendid program is being prepared. It is expected of all civic, fraternal and religious bodies as well as citizens to do this great man befitting homage.

The next meeting will be held Sunday, March 19, at the church of St. Benedict The Moor, 2429 Parker St., at 4 p. m. The public is cordially invited. All are welcome. Your moral and financial support will greatly enhance our possibility for helplessness and we respectfully solicit the same. Gratefully yours, H. W. BLACK, President.

HARMONY QUARTETTE PLEASURES AUDIENCE

The Harmony Quartette, composed of Messrs. H. Sherwood, George Griffin, H. L. Preston and J. Fletcher Bryant, sang at the Central Y. M. C. A. Monday night to the delight of a large audience of men. Their music was so pleasing that Mr. Campbell, the secretary, made a special request for one "Negro Folk Song", which request was cheerfully granted. Mr. Bryant, who is secretary of the colored branch, made an interesting address. The visitors were given a royal reception by the officials and members.

LINCOLN ITEMS

Word comes to us from Mrs. Ruth Van Derzee McWilliams of Frankfort, Kans., that her sister, Miss Cornie Van Derzee, youngest daughter of Wm. H. Van Derzee, formerly a Lincoln resident, became the bride of Dr. Wm. P. Burton of Ashtabula, O., on February 24, 1922. The couple will remain in Ashtabula at present, where Dr. Burton, a chiropodist, is in business.

The funeral of Mr. John Blair, who died Monday of last week, was held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. from the A. M. E. Church, Rev. W. A. McClendon, preached, followed by words from Rev. O. J. Burchardt. A number of friends were present to pay last respects to the deceased.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson arrived into the city from Chetopa, Kans., to visit her daughter, Mrs. M. Griffin.

Mesdames Lena May Curry, Soprano, Belle Guy-Riley, reader, appeared in recital at the A. M. E. church last Thursday night under the auspices of the Rose Bud Club. The program as carried out was said to be commendable by the fair crowd in attendance. The club served supper in the basement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Griffin will entertain the Utopian Art Club at their house, 2040 M St., Thursday night, March 23d. The Art club will give a social in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiley, 1124 O street, Thursday night, March 30. Their colors, blue and white, will be used.

The executive board of the New Era Baptist Association of Nebraska will convene in Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lincoln, Tuesday, March 28, with an all day session. It is announced as the last meeting before the setting of the association in June at Zion Baptist church in Omaha.

Mrs. E. C. Stephney entertained the Utopian Art Club at their home, 703 No. 13th St., last Thursday night. The meeting was a profitable one.

Those reported sick are: Mrs. Emma Clemens, Mrs. Agnes Knight, Mrs. Priscilla Ross and a number of others, names of whom I have not learned. The services at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday were especially interesting. The Sunday school was well attended. Rev. H. W. Botts preached two grand sermons, which were added greatly by several solos by Mr. J. E. Jeltz. The attendance during the day was encouraging.

We are glad to note that Billy Westberry has taken charge of the lunch car on the Boulevard. Wish him success.

Rev. A. J. McAlister filled his pulpit last Sunday, delivering fine sermons to his folks. All services were nicely attended. Rev. McAlister leaves for annual conference near April 1st.

At the A. M. E. Church Sunday the pastor, Rev. W. A. McClendon, filled his pulpit and delivered his usual good sermons. All aid societies and Sunday school had splendid services. Good attendance during the day.

A number of subscribers have promised to remit at certain times. Now, will you please make good your word? W. W. MOSLEY, Local Agent.
