The Easter morning service at St. John's A. M. E. church was largely attended. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and other flowers. The beautiful songs of the canary birds, blending with the voices of the choir, gave to those present a faint idea of what the real resurrection morn must have been. Special Easter anthems were rendered by the choir, and a solo by Mrs. Allen, who sang "Calvary." All who heard the program rendered by the choir in the evening heard a rare treat. Mr. J. C. Parker, as director, should be given the credit as one of the best choir leaders in the city.

GLAD HAND FROM "JOHN L."

How Defeated but Still Great Pugilist Made Firm Friend of Young Newspaper Man.

Theodore Dreiser, writing in the Bookman, recounts his youthful experiences as a reporter in St. Louis. One of his assignments was an interview with John L. Sullivan:

"'Aw, haw! haw! haw!' I can hear him even now when I asked him my favorite question about life, his plans, the value of exercise (), etc.

"'He wants to know about exercise! Yuh're all right, young fella, kinda slim, but yuh'll do. Sit down and have some champagne. Have a cigar. Give 'em some cigars, George. These young newspaper men are all all right, to me I'm for 'em. Exercise? What I think? Haw! Haw! Write any d-d thing you please, young fella, and say that John L. Sullivan said so. That's good enough for me. If they don't believe it bring it back here and I'll sign it for yuh. But I know it'll be all right, and I won't stop to read it neither. That suit yuh? Well, all right. Now have some more champagne and don't say I didn't treat yuh right, 'cause I did. I'm ex-champion of the world, defeated by that little dude from California, but I'm still John L. Sullivan—ain't that right? Haw! haw! They can't take that away from me, can they? Haw! haw! Have some more champagne, boy.'

"I adored him. I would have written anything he asked me to write. I got up the very best article I could and published it, and was told afterward that it was fine."

Oh, So That's It!
We are shortly promised stockings that will button up, and this recalls the old query: "Why is it that a woman always buttons her clothes up in the reverse fashion from a man?" If it were a fact that all women were left handed, and consequently found it easier to do things in this way, it would be understandable. But they are not.

A Mere Male thing offers me this explanation: "Probably, it is because all women are imitative. They intend in future to oust men from the earth entirely. Wherefore they stand in front of the glass, and endeavor to create in it a reflection as much like a man as possible. But looking glasses always show things reversed, and woman, not being able to realize this, always does things backward." So that's that!—London Opinion.

Meat Flour.

The qualities of meat flour, a new food that is being made in New Zealand, were described to a meeting of farmers and others held in a New Zealand town. The speaker said that recently at a dinner 18 persons sat down to a meal composed entirely of meat flour dishes, and only a little over half a pound of meat flour was used in its preparation. It was excellent for invalids and bore a high food value. It could be exported easily and compactly, and would keep so far as present tests went, for two years without the slightest sign of deterioration. It took three pounds of meat to produce one pound of the flour, which was at present being readily sold at five shillings ($1.25) a pound and was found exceedingly economical in the household at this price.
