Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters

Musterole, made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, will do all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—without the blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from bronchitis, sore throat, coughs, colds, croup, neuralgia, headache, congestion, rheumatism, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, and all aches and pains. It may prevent pneumonia. All druggists—35c and 65c jars and tubes—hospital size $3.

Better than a mustard plaster

THE ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Twenty-sixth and Seward Streets.
Russel Taylor, Pastor.

A goodly congregation assembled and listened attentively to the sermon on "Predestination", as taught and believed by Presbyterians. The pastor tried to make it clear that Presbyterians accept that doctrine only because to their way of thinking it is clearly set forth in the Holy Scriptures. It was also shown that practically the articles of faith of all reformed churches contained a statement of this doctrine. Next Sunday at 11 a. m. the pastor will, by request, present some thoughts on the divorce evil and related subjects. The choirs of St. Paul's and Pilgrim Baptist church are rehearsing weekly the cantata, "The Nazarene", which they will present in August at the Pilgrim Baptist church. Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will continue his expository thoughts on the Gospel according to St. Mark, the theme being, "Jesus Prays; He Cleanses the Leper", 1:35-45. At 7:15 the Christian Endeavor will be led by Elbert Taylor. Topic, "Lessons from Great Missionaries". Act 8:4-17.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
Twenty-fourth and Ohio Streets.
Rev. J. D. Davis, Acting Pastor.

Sunday school, 9:30; morning services, 11:00; B. Y. P. U., 6:00; evening services, 8:00.

Services were well attended in the morning. Rev. F. J. Bryant, Y. M. C. A. secretary, preached a touching sermon.

The Sunday school is doing well, having gained three new scholars. The Sunday school enjoyed the annual picnic at Elmwood park Thursday, July 27th.

Next Sunday our newly chosen pastor, Rev. E. G. McDonald from Hannibal, Mo., will favor us with his presence.

The Swastika Art club of Mt. Moriah church will hold its annual bazaar July 28th and 29th. On the 29th they will serve a chicken dinner. Every one is cordially invited.

The B. Y. P. U. will have a get-together social Sunday, July 30th, after their 6 o'clock meeting.

For news when it is news, you must read The Monitor.
