GAYETY OPENS SATURDAY NIGHT

Old Man Johnson has been lucky enough to have Harry Hastings "Knick Knacks" to open the season this year at his fun factory. The show has clever comedians and is full of laughs, pretty girls, wonderful costumes and scenery. The Gayety has been completely redecorated inside and out, and very good judgment has been used in laying out the color scheme. We recommend the Gayety to our readers this year as a theatre where they may be sure to see a good, clean show, a place where they may take mother, sister, wife or sweetheart without the least misgivings.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
O. J. Burkhardt, Pastor.

Last Sunday will go down in the history of Allen as one of the greatest days in her existence as a church. Services were interesting from start to finish beginning with Lawyer Bryant's review of the Sunday school lesson and ending with an uplifting and largely attended night service. The program as outlined in last week's Monitor was successfully carried out, the sermons by the Rev. W. S. MacCallie, the Rev. Russel Taylor and the Rev. J. F. Bryant, who spoke morning, afternoon and night, respectively, were intellectual, spiritual and uplifting. The singing and other features were in keeping with the spirit of the day. During the day many ministers of the city, with representatives from their congregations attended. The co-operation of the Rev. Thomas Taggart and other Baptist ministers was appreciated. Next Sunday at 11 the pastor will speak on "The Lord's Day"; in the evening the Rev. P. M. Harris will preach.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters

Musterole, made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, will do all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—without the blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from bronchitis, sore throat, coughs, colds, croup, neuralgia, headache, congestion, rheumatism, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, and all aches and pains. It may prevent pneumonia. All druggists—35c and 65c jars and tubs—hospital size 63.
