MR. J. N. BOYD is The Monitor's Sioux City correspondent and agent. Give her your subscription and news.—Editor Monitor.

Rev. H. C. Boyd departed Monday for Ottumwa, Iowa, to attend the General Conference of the A. M. E. church which convened in that city September 6 to 10.

Miss Ethel Lewis of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in the city Saturday evening and will make her future home with her mother, who lives at 503 west Seventh street.

The mass meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. will be held at the A. M. E. church, 513 Main street, on the third Sunday of this month.

Mr. George Hicks who left the hospital a week ago, is improving.

Morton, Linnear and Gertrude Pimberton arrived home Sunday after spending a week's vacation with their father, Mr. J. Pimberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Croffard, who are conducting a modern laundry at 812 west Seventh street, report that business has been very good and is increasing daily.

The Brotherhood of the Zion Baptist church will give a banquet and entertainment Thursday evening at the church, 6th and Bluff streets.

LINCOLN NEWS A. D. COMMENT

Milton Johnson has returned to the city to attend the State University this fall.

Roland W. Young has returned home from Omaha to attend the State University this year.

Miss Ruth Wilkinson of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the city Monday to attend the State University this year.

Rev. I. B. Smith will go to Grand Island next Saturday on lodge business.

Mr. James Kelly of Omaha visited his brother, Jewel Kelly, here the past week.

We are glad to note the numerous students coming into Lincoln to attend the State University, which speaks well for Nebraska and its institutions of learning. Lincoln, let us encourage these persons by our hospitality.

Mr. John C. Collins spent a few days at his old home in St. Joseph, Mo., the past week.

Misses Dorothy and Charlotte Lovington returned home from a visit at Denver last Saturday.

Miss Erma Tuggle and her mother are home from a visit at St. Joseph, Mo.

Miss Dorothy Loving and Miss Agnes Thomas gave a dinner party last Friday in honor of some young lady students who have entered school here this year.

Rev. H. W. Botts spent Tuesday in Omaha on business.

Rev. A. J. McAlister filled his pulpit at the Newman M. E. church last Sunday, the attendance being fairly good.

Last Sunday was the closing scenes of the Rev. W. A. McClendon's work here. There were special services all day. The Sunday School had a fine lesson at 9:30. The pastor spoke at 11. Rev. H. W. Botts of the Mt. Zion Baptist church preached a fine discourse at 4 p. m. At night, the pastor delivered his closing remarks. It is said he did fairly well on his dollar money.

Rev. W. A. McClendon and Rev. O. J. Buckhardt leave Wednesday for annual conference at Atchison, Kans.

Services at Mt. Zion Baptist church still continue to be interesting. The Sunday school was fairly attended at 10 a. m. Rev. H. W. Botts preached two fine sermons during the day.

The walls of Mt. Zion are fast being completed, and the Willing Workers are digging hard at the financial part. Remit for your papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Johnson entertained the Mission Tuesday night.

POPULAR DAN COLEMAN AT GAYETY THEATRE

Dan Coleman and his "American Girls" will be the new attraction at the Gayety Theatre opening Sunday matinee at three. Daily matinees, of special appeal to the ladies, will be featured throughout the ensuing week. To devotees of musical offerings, lavish in equipment, the name of Dave Marion, in itself, will bring assurance of entertainment out of the ordinary. Marion's reputation as a sumptuous producer has been maintained through many seasons of successful achievement, each Marion-made production developing improvements over its predecessor.

Dan Coleman's popularity as an Irish comedian of inventive instincts has likewise been enhanced season after season through his sincere efforts to increase his his artistic attainments. His success has resulted in a constantly broadening circle of admirers that now greet his every appearance in musical presentations. Coleman's chief associate with the "American Girls" will be Charles McCarthy, who long ago established himself as a favorite Irish comedian with patrons of the drama. As a star in Irish plays and melodrama his vogue dates back to "One of the Bravest," a piece in which he appeared for many seasons to the glorification of the uniformed fireman. Dan Coleman and McCarthy will do team-work in developing the comedy scenes.

Coleman's supporting company is declared to have been chosen with individual fitness for fast-moving comedy developments as the prime essential to their engagement. Arthur Dunn, a diminutive comedian, has for many seasons been recognized as an unfailing source of merriment. His association with musical comedy and vaudeville has made his work familiar to hosts of admirers.

Among the other principals are Inez De Verdier, prima donna; Alma Bauer, a gifted singer, and Charles Raymond, leading man. The personnel includes, as essential to musical entertainments, a chorus that is declared to be a model aggregation of good looking dancers and singers, twenty in all, trained by Dave Marion with his years of experience as chorus drill-master. In the matter of costuming for the various musical numbers, it is declared that Marion has surpassed his previous achievements in lavish results. Scenically, the equipment is promised to be wholly adequate and in keeping with the best traditions of affluent musical presentations. Wednesday night the curtain will not rise until after the electric parade has passed. Early Curtain Saturday at 8:00.

IS INTERESTED IN HELPING CHILDREN

Mr. E. B. Goodman, of the Phonograph Department of the Brandeis Store is deeply interested in encouraging and developing dramatic, histrionic and musical talent in promising boys and girls of our race. He is looking out for talented children. Recently he can across Catherine Cannon, an interesting five year old child, who lives at 1208 North Twenty-fourth street and recites very nicely. He has made arrangements for her to study at Meisner's school of expression and expects to present her in recital, with other classical talent, at some future date. Mr. P. G. Spitz, manager of the department, is encouraging Mr. Goodman in his plan. Both are very pleasant and courteous gentlemen who make a very favorable impression, and very frequently a customer, of those who visit their well-stocked department. If you want a phonograph you will no doubt be interested in the Phonograph Club, the advertisement for which appears elsewhere in this issue. But whether you want a phonograph or not Mr. Spitz and Mr. Goodman will be pleased to see you.
